Strategy for Peace, US Foreign Policy Conference*, 1997 From Promise to Practice Chandra Lekha Sriram, Karin Wermester, 2003 How can the United Nations regional and subregional organizations government donors and other policymakers best apply the tools of conflict prevention to the wide range of intrastate conflict situations actually found in the field The detailed case studies and analytical chapters in From Promise to Practice offer operational lessons for fashioning strategy and tactics to meet the challenges of specific conflicts both potential and actual Economic Sanctions Hossein G. Askari, John Forrer, Hildy Teegen, Jiawen Yang, 2003-02-28 This is the first of three related empirically based studies examining the broad range of issues raised by the use of economic sanctions This volume addresses the philosophy behind economic sanctions why they are used and what they are meant to achieve Ashari Forrer Teegen and Yang go back through history to analyze whether or not economic sanctions have been successful by measuring their historical impact and modeling their effectiveness and they offer an analysis of the international and domestic business implications of sanctions in today's global economy Of particular interest to scholars students researchers and the public policy community involved with international business and economics and international relations Economic Sanctions under International Law P. Sean Morris, 2024-08-15 The effects of US secondary sanctions are broad and are often designed to cripple the target country's economy and currency Some states have sought to circumvent these sanctions by setting up a special purpose vehicle to facilitate trade and financial transactions with the sanctioned country on humanitarian grounds Although the nature of these special purpose vehicles is new and experimental they are little understood not least how they operate and function in international law This volume addresses this gap by identifying and examining some of the legal issues that a special purpose vehicle such as the Instrument in Support of Trade Exchanges INSTEX generates The collection brings together leading legal academics sanctions practitioners and policy experts to provide an assessment of the special purpose vehicle in the context of secondary sanctions in international law It will be of interest to researchers and academics in International law Security law Economic law and Comparative law World of Faith and Freedom Thomas F. Farr,2008-11-07 Most trouble spots have some sort of religious component from Iraq and Afghanistan to Israel and Palestine These conflicts are of great geo political importance and of interest to the US Yet argues Farr our foreign policy is handicapped by an inability to understand the role of religion in these places Altered States Andrew P. Cortell,Susan Peterson,2003-01-01 Challenging dominant assumptions in international relations Altered States demonstrates that national political institutions change more frequently and less dramatically than is commonly thought and with important consequences for the political landscape Combining theory with solid empirical research including archival evidence and interviews the contributors explore the causes and consequences of institutional transformation in the United States Western and Eastern Europe Russia and the former Soviet Republics and Cuba Altered States highlights the dynamic and interactive relationship between national political institutions and reform minded policy entrepreneurs a perspective that will interest scholars and policy makers alike India John N. Mayor,2003 India long known for its huge population religious conflicts and its status as not quite best friend ally of the United States has moved from the backwaters of world attention to centre stage Afghanistan and Pakistan with whom India is in almost conflict are neighbours India has developed a nuclear capability which also has a way of grabbing attention This book discusses current issues and historical background and provides a thorough index important to a better understanding of this diverse country
