Mobile Payments, Consumer Policy, and the Law Nwanneka Ezechukwu, 2023-03-17 Mobile technology offers an innovative and cost-effective channel for delivering a range of financial services including mobile payments. In some jurisdictions mobile payments simply provide a convenient option for facilitating payment transactions. In other jurisdictions mobile payments are viewed as potentially transformative because they present an opportunity to expand access to financial services. However, as with other innovations, mobile payments raise consumer protection concerns and require robust regulatory mechanisms to address such concerns. Against this backdrop, the book adopts a typology of consumer policy tools which can be used to address the identified consumer concerns. This typology guides the enquiry into the existing consumer protection frameworks applying to mobile payments in selected jurisdictions: Canada, Kenya, and the United Kingdom. The main objective of this endeavour is to identify best practices that national authorities seeking to leverage mobile payments and similar innovations can emulate. This book will be of interest to policymakers, regulators, industry stakeholders, students, and scholars interested in the regulation of innovative financial services, particularly from a consumer protection perspective.

The Foundations of Communication in Criminal Justice Systems Daniel Adrian Doss, Jr., Glover, Rebecca A. Goza, Jr., Wigginton, 2014-10-17 Myriad forms of communication occur within the criminal justice system as judges and attorneys speak to juries, law enforcement officers interact with the public, and the news media presents stories of events in courtrooms. Hindrances abound, however. Law enforcement officers and justice system personnel often encounter challenges that affect their Environmental Management Chris Barrow, 2024-04-29 This comprehensively updated third edition explores the nature and role of environmental management and offers an introduction to this rapidly expanding and changing field. It focuses on challenges and opportunities and core concepts including sustainable development. The book is divided into five parts. Part I: Introduction to Environmental Management, four introductory chapters cover the justification for environmental management, its theory, scope, goals, and scientific background. Part II: Practice explores environmental management in economics, law, and business, and environmental management's relation with environmentalism, international agreements, and monitoring. Part III: Global Challenges and Opportunities examines resources, challenges, and opportunities, both natural and human-caused or human-aggravated. Part IV: Responses to Global Challenges and Opportunities explores mitigation, vulnerability, resilience, adaptation, and how technology, social change and politics affect responses to challenges Part V The Future the final chapter considers the way ahead for environmental management in the future With its well structured coverage effective illustrations and foundation for further more focused interest this book is easily accessible to all It is an essential reference for undergraduates and postgraduates studying environmental management and sustainability and an important resource for many students on courses including environmental science environmental studies and human geography

The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo,2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely

Ethics of the Legal Profession Sir Fred Phillips,2016-04-08 In countries outside the developed world although writers have written commentaries on specific legal codes very little attention has been given to legal writing which has focused specifically on the ethics of the legal profession This book makes a special contribution in that regard providing as it does a comparative study of prevailing efforts to enhance ethical standards in a profession potentially in crisis and under much public scrutiny Countries which have been examined include the UK the US Canada South Africa and countries in the Pacific South East Asia and the Caribbean Valuable guidance and learning are provided on such topical issues as wasted costs orders conflicts of interests legal and judicial codes confidentiality privilege and the ethics of the criminal process where the jury system comes in for critical evaluation This book will be a valuable text on the ethics and status of the profession It will be of considerable interest to law students practitioners and legal academics Bar Associations Attorneys General and Directors of Public Prosecutions as well as members of the judiciary

Appropriate Dispute Resolution in Comparative Perspectives Chinwe Egbunike-Umegbolu,2024-07-23 This book explores the various types of Appropriate Dispute Resolution ADR applied in Nigeria the UK and the US It critically examines the effectiveness of mediation arbitration restorative justice collaborative law and online dispute resolution ODR in settling disputes or conflicts while also demonstrating the benefits of ADR and multi door courthouses MDCs The book provides a concise introduction to the resolution of disputes or conflicts in Africa prior to the advent of colonial rule It suggests that a legal transplant can also take place from a less complex society to a more complex one contrary to the general belief that legal transplants usually proceed from a more complex society to a less complex one The book aims to help people understand ADR mechanisms and the advantages of settling disputes using means other than litigation It presents Traditional African Methods of Settling Disputes TAMSDE Early Dispute Resolution EDR arbitration negotiation ODR collaborative law restorative justice conciliation ombuds and early neutral evaluation as viable alternatives It also highlights the need for clinical legal education and effective messaging that highlights the benefits of ADR compared to traditional litigation In turn it analyses the use of ADR especially mediation and collaborative law to settle disputes in criminal law restorative justice employment law and business and human rights due diligence violation cases Further the book demonstrates that criminal matters are now under the scope of ADR via Restorative Justice Door The book discusses the skills techniques and relevant statutory frameworks for each field of Appropriate Dispute Resolution and provides national and international examples of the application of the relevant principles Addressing the fields of Appropriate Dispute Resolution ADR criminal law civil law business management psychology employment law humanresource management and African studies it will appeal to a wide readership Advancing Civil

Justice Reform and Conflict Resolution in Africa and Asia: Comparative Analyses and Case Studies Yin, Elijah Tukwariba,Kofie, Nelson F.,2021-06-18 The civil justice system is characterized by a distinct dispute resolution and law enforcement functions although these functions are not always explicit and their relationship can be vague People normally turn to this legal system to address an unjust situation they encounter This makes civil justice both socially and economically important as it may be driven by efficiency or access to justice concerns The literature suggests that law reform has an uninspiring record in this field This is because it has largely not been considered with a detailed empirically informed evaluation of proposed solutions This legal system is complex and research in this field is correspondingly challenging interesting and important Advancing Civil Justice Reform and Conflict Resolution in Africa and Asia Comparative Analyses and Case Studies provides significant empirical research findings as well as theoretical reviews and frameworks on a wide array of issues within civil justice and the legal system This includes topic areas such as access to justice and legal representation the challenges to developing civil justice courts and procedures and civil justice reform This book is valuable for lawyers human rights lawyers court officials psychologists social workers sociologists consultants professionals academicians students and researchers working in the field of law socio legal studies sociology anthropology political science social work social policy economics and criminal justice along with anyone seeking updated information on the current reforms and challenges within the civil justice and legal systems Mediation and other forms of Alternative Dispute

Resolution Michael Bartlet,2024-12-03 Covering both the principles and practice of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR this important new textbook equips students not only with a contextual understanding of the role of ADR in adjudicating civil disputes but also with the different forms of mediation and ADR available and the key issues in their application Providing theoretical and practical insights the book begins with a critical examination of the tenets on which ADR is based where it sits in relation to civil law and how it is applied in different national contexts It discusses the various areas in which mediation or arbitration can be applied from family mediation to restorative justice and includes chapters on the ethics of mediation and its psychology as well as an introduction to online dispute resolution ODR The concluding chapter offers some thoughts on the benefits and challenges of mediation Featuring a glossary of key terms detailed case law end of chapter problem questions and advice around listening skills during a mediation process Mediation and other forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution is an essential textbook for any student approaching ADR for the first time and offers practitioners an opportunity to reflect on the context of ADR Mediation and Commercial Contract Law Maryam Salehijam, 2020-12-10

There is an urgent need to better understand the legal issues pertaining to alternative dispute resolution ADR particularly in relation to mediation clauses Despite the promotion of mediation by dispute resolution providers policy makers and judges use of mediation remains low In particular problems arise when parties lack certainty regarding the legal effect of a mediation clause and the potential uncertainty regarding the binding nature of agreements to pursue mediation is problematic and threatens the growth of ADR This book closely examines the importance and complexity of mediation clauses in commercial contracts to remedy this persistent uncertainty Using comparative law methods and detailed empirical research it explores the creation of a comprehensive framework for the mediation clause Providing valuable insight into the process of ADR and mediation this book will be of interest to academics law makers law students in house council lawyers as well as parties interesting in drafting enforceable mediation clauses Asia-Pacific Legal Development Gerry Ferguson, 1998-11-01

In this age of globalization many legal experts see evidence of swift global movement toward an eventual single world legal system Yet the trend to political and economic integration in some parts of the world is matched by the trend to disintegration in others where strong cultural and political resistance to external influences exists Asia Pacific Legal Development traces current and prospective developments in several legal systems of the Asia Pacific region to make sense of these trends and counter trends The contributing authors represent a wide variety of specialist expertise both public and private and together they encompass the three sectors that constitute a modern system of formal law the economic the behavioural and the civic Taking into account the opinions and perspectives of both indigenous and non indigenous experts on topics ranging from prostitution to constitutional law the book surveys how several ASEAN nations as well as Canada Australia and New Zealand are confronting social economic and legal change In the first three parts chapters are grouped along general sectoral lines to cover economic civic and behavioural themes while in the fourth cross sectoral contexts are addressed With the introduction and concluding chapter the editors provide an overall integrating framework as well as provocative insights into trends in legal development in the Asia Pacific region and on comparative legal research and writing in general Asia Pacific Legal Development is not only an exemplary model for cooperative and comparative legal research and scholarly pluralism but also a rich study of the increasingly relevant issue of convergence and divergence of legal systems with a unique Asian focus Dealing in Virtue Yves Dezalay, Bryant G. Garth, 1996

With examples from England the United States Sweden Egypt Hong Kong and many other countries Dezalay and Garth explore how international developments in turn transform domestic methods for handling disputes Finally they analyze the changing prospects for international business dispute resolution given the growing presence of international market and regulatory institutions such as the EEC NAFTA and the World Trade Organization The Comparative Constitutional Foundations of Private-Public Arbitration, 2025-04-24 This book engages with the concerns the rising phenomenon of arbitrations between private and public actors raises for principles of constitutional law including democracy the rule of law and the protection of fundamental rights It analyses how party appointed one off arbitral tribunals determine the delineation of private rights and public interests within a transnational legal environment and provides a framework that aligns this activity with constitutional values Featuring 20 chapters dealing with almost 40 jurisdictions from different corners of the world the book examines how domestic legal systems and legal practice approach the involvement of public entities as parties to arbitration agreements and arbitration proceedings to what extent the constitutional legal frameworks involved problematize private public arbitration as a constitutional concern and how different domestic legal systems ensure that private public arbitration conforms to and avoids undermining the public interest The chapters analyse inter alia whether the governing domestic law treats private public arbitration differently from commercial arbitration between private parties to what extent domestic law permits such arbitrations what regulatory frameworks domestic law sets up and what control mechanisms domestic law establishes in order to ensure that the public interest is safeguarded when public entities agree to have disputes resolved through arbitration rather than in domestic courts Multidisciplinary Dynamics of Mediation Hugo Luz dos Santos, 2025-09-15 This book casts an analytical eye on the legal dynamics of mediation premised on a multidisciplinary approach This is the very first book to meld mediation and applied psychology with a view to portray the myriad of cognitive biases with which the great bulk of legal actors grapple tussle with in mediation settings The overriding goal of this book is to provide a multidisciplinary comprehensive and full fledged framework to legal dynamics of mediation while emphasizing the paramount importance of incorporative mediation to protect the fundamental rights of the weakest disputant in the room something that has not been done yet This book is the very first one to provide a framework frame of reference to the usage of artificial intelligence in the remit of both mediation settings and Restorative Relationship Session RRS
