Falling Off The Bed Nona-Michael Ankheseenamun Jackson, 2019-03-03 Handwritten lyrics in a medieval styled fashion is really one of life's ways of living in the medieval period and writing it all through A Father Losing His Daughter to Addiction Anthony M. Varone, 2023-06-21 About the Book This story recounts the painful struggles of a daughter's addiction told through her father's eyes It takes the reader on a journey in living and dealing with her addiction This is a story similar to many addicts A Father Losing His Daughter to Addiction will hopefully not only help those struggling with addiction but also help to educate family members and give them hope and ways to cope during the struggle The author hopes the reader can really see the pain his daughter lived with as well as any addict and how this disease destroys lives and families About the Author Anthony M Varone explains My daughter meant everything to me and was my life I loved taking care of her the day she was born Life today is very difficult for me without her I always loved being active and riding my bike or playing golf as well as working out but today that is hard to enjoy because of how lost I find myself I'm searching for my way back from her death By going to meetings with my daughter when she was alive and my meetings of Nar non it has opened my mind to see both sides that exist for the addict and their family It has educated me about her life as well as my life Huskerville Roger C. Aden, 2007-10-29 This work reveals the storied love affair that has long existed between native Nebraskans and the University of Nebraska football team The author draws upon his experiences as a devoted Huskerviller and the insights of more than 500 other Husker fans who shared their ideas through interviews questionnaires and Internet communication to compose a story that highlights how the culture history and geography of Nebraska are intimately embedded in fans devotion to the Cornhuskers The book features photographs and an extensive bibliography while an appendix provides 16 essays written by devoted Husker fans In the Field of Black Diamonds Drew Hudson, 2007-06 It is the year 1918 the zenith period of anthracite coal mining and James Mueller a fourteen and a half year old son of a coal miner is soon catapulted into the arduous life of a mine worker James decision is not based on greed or a directive from his parents but on his desire to help his family financially after learning that his older brother is to attend medical school in Philadelphia to become a doctor Along the turbulent path of his life James soon discovers that a special bond has formed with one of his seven children his daughter Catherine Catherine faces her own obstacles growing up in the impoverished idiosyncratic patch town of Shepsberg The experiences of both James and Catherine are entwined on many levels as they learn the most essential lessons in life from one another In the Field of Black Diamonds is based on a true story which chronicles the tale of a coal mining family set in the anthracite coal region of Eastern Pennsylvania This is the story of their lives their journeys their successes and their struggles in the black land simply known as coal country I Was a Mistake Shawn Woods, 2015-07-31 Shawn Woods writes about his life as being labeled a mistake by his mother and how she displays her resentment for him in front of family and friend besides verbally abusing him throughout his life Even to this day she insults degrades and rejects him Shawn went through school with learning disabilities and graduated from high school with a 6 to 8 grade in reading and spelling level His book is written in his own words so you can see for yourself how he struggles with expressing his thoughts Familiar

My Play Ground-The Bronx Anthony F. Marano,2008-12 My Play Ground The Bronx My Memoirs is the autobiography of Anthony F Marano a baby boomer born and raised in New York City who shares his poignant recollections of the good times including long forgotten television shows street games amusement parks movies music and much more Marano grew up during the 1940s in Country Club Spencer Estates in the midst of the Bronx as a member of a group of boys fondly nicknamed the Four Amigos Marano s brother Frank their next door neighbor Willie Jr and their friend John also known as Butchie were thick as thieves during both good times and bad Marano begins retelling his life story with chapters about his rambunctious childhood that include entertaining tales about cap guns with ammunition that could be purchased at any candy store his Remington truck bike black with chrome trim found next to the Christmas tree in 1956 and his first job as a soda jerk This delightful collection of anecdotes will spark a desire in baby boomers everywhere to reflect warmly on the joys of their own childhoods their old neighborhoods and the young friends who were once such an important part of their young lives The Cadillac Poems of Steven Forris Kimbrough Steven Forris Kimbrough,2015-03-17 Out of the experience of living in Europe as a youth a tragic accident a lengthy hospitalization and loss of a leg The Cadillac Poems of Steven Forris Kimbrough offers a collection of the poetry of the late Steven Forris Kimbrough With a mastery of multiple languages a deep love of nature an earnest concern for the poor and marginalized especially Native Americans a desire to love and be loved and a deep faith his poetry is filled with images metaphors and a keen understanding of human nature and emotion with which everyone can identify Born in Alabama in 1958 Kimbrough lived with his family in North Carolina and New Jersey and then moved with them in 1970 to Germany where his father sang opera and taught at Bonn University He learned German very quickly while attending a Gymnasium high school equivalent and studied Italian as well Through his extensive travels in Europe he developed a deep interest in diverse peoples languages and cultures which is reflected in his poetry While he began writing poetry as a child this skill blossomed in Germany writing poems in English German and French The narrative in The Cadillac Poems of Steven Forris Kimbrough by his father S T Kimbrough Jr weaves together genuine inspiring and moving poetry that will undoubtedly stir the hearts and minds of countless readers as they too journey into an unknown future Nothing is hidden here and nothing is excused The result is a poetry that lingers in the mind as powerfully as wood smoke or the sight of the first snowdrops in spring or the sound of a cadence of music heard in the heart long after the music has stopped I commend these poems to all who believe as I do in the power of poetry to give form to the hopes and longings of human experience and to all who find in that form a heightened perception of life itself Richard Watson

Emeritus Professor of English University of Durham Durham UK The Planter Willis A. Thoen, 2012-06 The Planter is a remarkable story of a boy who grew up in one of the servant s houses that belonged to a very wealthy plantation owner in the late 1800 s and early 1900 s The story starts out in Louisiana where he plays and works the fields of endless cotton corn and beans The setting took place approximately forty years after Abraham Lincoln had signed the Emancipation Proclamation which set the slaves free at least on paper For most of the slaves there were still many hardships to endure Peter was fortunate in being brought up on a plantation that was owned by a generous and caring man He was also blessed with a superior genetic inheritance of his own that was later discovered from a box of papers in the mansion library by Mattie the plantation owner s daughter Peter was an intelligent and observing boy who reached for the high road in life He thoroughly enjoyed the surroundings of his childhood and playing with his peers as well as the beauty of the European architecture and the setting of the plantation along a lazy winding river But most of all he was overwhelmed by the plants and animals that were everywhere around him He was physically and emotionally involved with pollination and the breeding and crossbreeding of plants and animals Peter had a hungry mind and was the first generation of his family who became educated He learned to read in part from Mattie and his Sunday School teacher as well as his loving Grandma It was by his observations and experiments that he gained a windfall that paid his way to go to a prestigious New York University and from there on to a University in Bordeaux France to further those studies While all of those studies were bigger than life to him they mostly contributed to his own maturing and romantic relationships along the way that came from inside of Peter himself

Elders Living Alone Robert L. Rubinstein, Janet Capriotti Kilbride, What is it like to be old have many health problems and live alone This book enters the lives of frail elders who live alone and vividly conveys their continuing struggle to maintain their independence Many look to their homes as the important facilitating element for that independence the home environment and personal space are often the most significant elements for elders living alone Hearing on National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1997--(H.R. 3230) and Oversight of Previously Authorized Programs Before the Committee on National Security, House of Representatives, One Hundred Fourth Congress, Second Session United States. "Orphans" with Parents Marian Crawford Stover, 2012-05-16 Dropped off at an Orphanage and separated from my siblings at age seven I was always being called BAD by the sisters that cared for us I was able to make it through it all with lots of prayers and Faith in my Jesus After leaving the home I moved on into an abusive marriage thinking it was normal it was all I knew it was one tough struggle after another I was able to come out on top New Visions of Collective Achievement Darrell Cleveland Hucks, 2014-11-26 New Visions of Collective Achievement The Cross Generational Schooling Experiences of African American Males takes you on a journey into the lives of three families of African American males each with an elementary aged boy Bear witness to each boy s observations and insights on his current schooling experiences also hear what older males in his family have to say regarding their schooling experiences Employing qualitative methodology to include their frequently unheard voices in educational research this book endeavors to move toward correcting this oversight New Visions of Collective Achievement graciously offers each of us as stakeholders a most precious gift a theoretical and practical framework to effect real meaningful and long lasting change if we are courageous enough to take heed This refreshingly clear and focused book presents a comprehensive discussion on the schooling experiences of African American males across generations This invaluable resource should be required reading for all educators who work with this population to show the value of education in the African American community Chance W Lewis Ph D Carol Grotnes Belk Distinguished Professor of Urban Education UNC Charlotte New Visions of Collective Achievement provides educators with an important insight into the ways Black males experience their education across time Through groundbreaking research presented in the voices of three generations of Black males this book commands attention and calls for multiple stakeholders in our schools and communities to work together to cultivate and advance the social and academic well being of Black males Yolanda Sealey Ruiz Ph D Assistant Professor of English Education Teachers College Columbia University New Visions encapsulates the spirit of African American males who are separated by generations yet bound by a collective struggle against social injustice and a desire for success Dr Hucks invokes a reverence for historical oppression an awareness of present day opportunities and barriers and a visionary path for future generations of Black men Ivory A Toldson Ph D Editor in Chief The Journal of Negro Education Associate Professor Counseling Psychology Program Howard University

Grandad's Story Albert Turnbull,2013-03 Selected diary entries and family album of Gateshead man Albert Turnbull including engaging details of life in pre war England HSC Standard English Barry Spurr,Lloyd Cameron,2009 This guide contains comprehensive summary and discussion of all 44 prescribed texts in the HSC Standard English course plus a list of key issues to consider in each chapter related to the relevant syllabus area helpful advice on how to read different types of texts plot outlines character discussion and interpretations The Creation of Half-Broken People Siphiwe Gloria Ndlovu,2024-09-01 Showcasing African Gothic at its finest this hypnotic novel tangles together classic texts of madness and female rebellion alongside elements of the jingoistic novels of Victorian adventurer H Rider Haggard The result is an extraordinary reinvention of colonial and patriarchal perspectives The unnamed narrator spins a web back through a century of colonial possession political spiritual and mental to imagine the stories of conquest and captivity control and disruption from the perspective of the women and men half broken by the stigmas attached to race and mental illness Equally half broken are those dehumanised by their insane greed for dominion and treasure With trademark compassion and complexity Siphiwe Gloria Ndlovu balances the humanity of her characters against the cruelty of empire making for a spellbinding and literally haunting account of love and magic Arthur's Home Magazine ,1886 Not the Whole Story Lea Caragata,Judit Alcalde,2014-04-18 Not the Whole Story is a compilation of sixteen stories narrated by single mothers in their own way and about their own lives Each story is unique but the same issues appear again and again Abuse parenting as single mothers challenges in the labour market mental health and addictions issues a scarcity of quality childcare immigration and status vulnerability struggles with custody and poverty these factors combined with a lack of support contribute to their continued struggles The themes that recur across stories illustrate that the issues the women face are not just about individual struggle they demonstrate that major issues in Canada s social system have been neglected in public policy In order for these issues to be addressed we need to challenge the flawed public policies and the negative discourse that continue to marginalize single mothers in terms of the opportunities in their own lives and in terms of how they are understood by other Canadians The first person narratives of the struggles and issues faced by low income single mothers provide narrative richness and are augmented by introductory and concluding chapters that draw the narrative themes together and offer overarching discussion and analysis
