changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public

Antiquity Christopher Haas,2006-11-15 Haas explores the broad avenues and back alleys of Alexandria s neighborhoods its suburbs and waterfront and aspects of material culture that underlay Alexandrian social and intellectual life Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title Second only to Rome in the ancient world Alexandria was home to many of late antiquity s most brilliant writers philosophers and theologians among them Philo Origen Arius Athanasius Hypatia Cyril and John Philoponus Now in Alexandria in Late Antiquity Christopher Haas offers the first book to place these figures within the physical and social context of Alexandria s bustling urban milieu Because of its clear demarcation of communal boundaries Alexandria provides the modern historian with an ideal opportunity to probe the multicultural makeup of an ancient urban unit Haas explores the broad avenues and back alleys of Alexandria s neighborhoods its suburbs and waterfront and aspects of material culture that underlay Alexandrian social and intellectual life Organizing his discussion around the city s religious and ethnic blocs Jews pagans and Christians he details the fiercely competitive nature of Alexandrian social dynamics In contrast to recent scholarship which cites Alexandria as a model for peaceful coexistence within a culturally diverse community Haas finds that the diverse groups struggles for social dominance and cultural hegemony often resulted in violence and bloodshed a volatile situation frequently exacerbated by imperial intervention on one side or the other Eventually Haas concludes Alexandrian society achieved a certain stability and reintegration a process that resulted in the transformation of Alexandrian civic identity during the crucial centuries between antiquity and the Middle Ages
