Alghazali And The Ismailis A Debate On Reason And Authority In Medieval Islam:

Al-Ghazali and the Ismailis Farouk Mitha, 2001-11-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Al Ghazali 1058 1111 CE is arguably one of the most influential thinkers in the history of Islam and his writings have received greater scholarly attention in the West than those of any other Muslim scholar This study explores an important dimension of his thought that has not yet been fully examined namely his polemical engagement with the Ismailis of the Fatimid and early Alamut periods Al Ghazali s debate with the Ismailis constitutes an important chapter in the history of Muslim thought and this book also explores the wider intellectual and political significance of this encounter and especially the light it sheds on the central tensions and questions of the age in which al Ghazali lived Al-Ghazali and the Ismailis Farouk Mitha, Institute of Ismaili Studies, 2001-11-22 Al Ghazali is arguably one of the most influential thinkers in the history of Islam and his writings have received greater scholarly attention in the West than those of any other Muslim scholar This study explores an important dimension of his thought that has not yet been fully examined namely his polemical engagement with the Ismailis of the Fatimid and early Alamut periods Published in association with The Institute of Ismaili Studies

Al-Ghazali and the Ismailis Farouk Mitha, 2001 Al Ghazali is arguably one of the most influential thinkers in the history of Islam and his writings have received greater scholarly attention in the West than those of any other Muslim scholar This study explores an important dimension of his thought that has not yet been fully examined namely his polemical engagement with the Ismailis of the Fatimid and early Alamut periods Publisher description The ^ACaliph and the Imam Toby Matthiesen, 2023-03-09 No sectarian division has had a more momentous impact than that between the two dominant branches of Islam Widely considered the world s leading expert on the subject Toby Matthiesen offers the full story of the Sunni Shia split delving down to its roots in the early days of Islam and following it to the present day and its effect on current events not just in the Middle East but globally Fifty Key Figures in Islam Roy Jackson, 2006-09-27 The perfect resource for those wishing to learn more about the Muslim culture its people and its teachings Fifty Key Figures in Islam explores the lives and thoughts of fifty influential individuals in Islam and surveys a heritage that spans 1 500 years Covering key figures such as the Prophet Muhammad Suleiman the Magnificent and El Hajj Malik El Shabazz Malcolm X the entry for each figure includes biographical details a presentation and analysis of their main ideas an account of their impact and influence within and if appropriate beyond the Islamic tradition list of major works and additional reading Fully cross referenced for ease of use this clearly presented work is ideal for those interested in or studying the area and could not have come at a more fascinating time in history for Islam Esoteric Traditions in Islamic Thought Leonard Lewisohn, 2024-09-12 The notion of esoteric knowledge is one of the pillars of Islamic intellectual tradition Though most visible in Sufism it also dominated the first three and a half centuries of Shi ite thought In this rich anthology Leonard Lewisohn explores Islamic esotericism through the works of eleven authors who flourished in Persia Central Asia and Asia Minor from the eleventh to the nineteenth centuries He presents excerpts from each text in translation accompanying these with introductions to the author's life works and thought In the course of his erudite and enlightening commentary he explores the common ground of esoteric thought and terminology revealing a unity of perspective among Muslim thinkers Christian-Muslim Relations.

A Bibliographical History. Volume 3 (1050-1200), 2011-03-21 Christian Muslim Relations a Bibliographical History 3 CMR3 is the third part of a general history of relations between the faiths Covering the period from 1050 to 1200 it comprises a series of introductory essays together with the main body of more than one hundred detailed entries on all the works by Christians and Muslims about and against one another that are known from this period These entries provide biographical details of the authors where known descriptions and assessments of the works themselves and complete accounts of manuscripts editions translations and studies The result of collaboration between leading scholars in the field CMR3 is an indispensable basis for research in all elements of the history of Christian Muslim relations The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies Clinton Bennett, 2015-01-15 The Bloomsbury Companion to Islamic Studies is a comprehensive single volume reference guide to Islam and research in this area A team of leading international scholars Muslim and non Muslim cover important aspects of study in the field providing readers with a complete and accessible source of information to the wide range of methodologies and theoretical principles involved Presenting Islam as a variegated tradition key essays from the contributors demonstrate how it is subject to different interpretations with no single version privileged In this volume Islam is treated as a lived experience not only as theoretical ideal and textual tradition Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including a substantial A Z of key terms and concepts chronology and a detailed list of resources this is the essential reference guide for anyone working in Islamic Studies Back cover Shari'a & Constitutional Reform in Indonesia Nadirsyah Hosen, 2007 This book focuses on constitutional reform in Indonesia 1999 2002 from the perspective of shari'a The study reveals one possible picture of how Islam and constitutionalism can co exist in the same vision not without risk of tension but with the possibility of success Islam, Authoritarianism, and Underdevelopment Ahmet T. Kuru, 2019-08 Analyzes Muslim countries contemporary problems particularly violence authoritarianism and underdevelopment comparing their historical levels of development with Western Europe Islam and Higher Education Marodsilton Muborakshoeva, 2013 This book explores the different concepts of a university and the way they shape practice in Muslim contexts with a particular focus on the Islamic republic of Pakistan Higher education in Muslim contexts is often criticised for being incapable either of contributing to the socio cultural and civilisational developments of society or of doing research and producing knowledge of a high standard While the international organisations accuse universities of not helping the societies to become knowledge based and to compete at the global level some Muslim scholars call for the creation of authentic Islamic educational structures that would as they think solve the problems of higher education The Politics of Muslim Intellectual Discourse in the West Dilyana Mincheva, 2016-01-15 This book is a case study in the literary psychoanalytic and theological encounters between diasporic Muslim intellectuals and secular western modernity It centres on the simultaneous search for the possibility of both a reformation of Islamic fundamentalism and a transformation of the exclusionary limitations of western public institutions With roots in original research in the fields of comparative religion and cultural studies and drawing on sources in English French and Arabic the author introduces and elaborates the concept of Western Islamic public sphere This concept defines what is at stake in the formative play of public representations where traditionalist foundations and modernist adaptations meet clash and produce discourse around their common disequilibrium The Western Islamic public sphere which is secular but not secularist and which is Islamic but not Islamist within which a critical Islamic intellectual universe can unfold deals hermeneutically with texts and politically with lived practices It emerges from within the arc of two alternative conflicting yet equally dismissive suspicions defined by a view that critical Islam is the new imperial rhetoric of hegemonic orientalism and the opposite view that critical Islam is just fundamentalism camouflaged in liberal rhetoric This innovative and original scholarly apparatus offers a third view one that arises in its practice from ethical commitment to intellectual engagement creativity and imagination as a portal to the open horizons of conflictual history

A Saleh Nicolai Sinai Roberto Tottoli Early Orientalism Ivan Kalmar, 2013-06-17 The history of western notions about Islam is of obvious scholarly as well as popular interest today This book investigates Christian images of the Muslim Middle East focusing on the period from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment when the nature of divine as well as human power was under particularly intense debate in the West Ivan Kalmar explores how the controversial notion of submission to ultimate authority has in the western world been discussed with reference to Islam's alleged recommendation to obey unquestioningly a merciless Allah in heaven and a despotic government on earth He discusses how Abrahamic faiths Christianity and Judaism as much as Islam demand devotion to a sublime power with the faith that this power loves and cares for us a concept that brings with it the fear that on the contrary this power only toys with us for its own enjoyment For such a power Kalmar borrows Slavoj Žižek's term obscene father He discusses how this describes exactly the western image of the Oriental despot Allah in heaven and the various sultans emirs and ayatollahs on earth and how these despotic personalities of imagined Muslim society function as a projection from the West on to the Muslim Orient of an existential anxiety about sublime power Making accessible academic debates on the history of Christian perceptions of Islam and on Islam and the West this book is an important addition to the existing literature in the areas of Islamic studies religious history and philosophy

Contemporary Icons of Nonviolence Anna Hamling, 2019-10-16 2019 marked notable anniversaries for two of the most widely recognised icons of the philosophy of nonviolence representing seventy years since the birth of Dr Martin Luther King Jr and the 150th anniversary of the birth of Mahatma Gandhi Both brought significant constructive and far reaching social and political change to the world This volume offers an innovative perspective placing them their beliefs and theories within the chronology of the tradition of nonviolence beginning with Lev Nikolaevich Tolstoy and encompassing the likes of scar Romero Nelson Mandela Abdul Ghaffar Khan and Highness Prince Karim Aga Khan This collection of essays explores diverse understandings of the concepts of nonviolence in a philosophical and religious context It also highlights the application of the techniques of nonviolence in the 21st century

The Beast in Sheep's Clothing Lindsey, David Michael, 2005 Curricular and Architectural Encounters with W.G. Sebald Teresa Strong-Wilson, Ricardo L. Castro, Warren Crichlow, Amarou Yoder, 2022-12-30 This book engages with the writings of W G Sebald mediated by perspectives drawn from curriculum and architecture to explore the theme of unsettling complacency and confront difficult knowledge around trauma discrimination and destruction Moving beyond overly instrumentalist and reductive approaches the authors combine disciplines in a scholarly fashion to encourage readers to stretch their understandings of currere The chapters exemplify important timely and complicated conversations centred on ethical response and responsibility in order to imagine a more just and aesthetically experienced world In the analysis of BILDUNG as human formation the book illuminates the pertinent lessons to be learned from the works of Sebald and provokes further investigations into the questions of memory grief and limits of language Through its juxtaposition of curriculum and architecture and using the prose of Sebald as a prism the book revitalizes questions about education and ethics probes the unsettling of complacency and enables conversation around difficult knowledge and ethical responsibility as well as offering hope and resolve An important intervention in standard approaches to understanding currere this book provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum architectural education and practice studies memory studies narrative research Sebaldian studies and educational philosophy The Ismailis in the Middle Ages Shafique N.

Virani,2007-04-19 None of that people should be spared not even the babe in its cradle With these chilling words the Mongol warlord Genghis Khan declared his intention to destroy the Ismailis one of the most intellectually and politically significant Muslim communities of medieval Islamdom The massacres that followed convinced observers that this powerful voice of Shi i Islam had been forever silenced Little was heard of these people for centuries until their recent and dramatic emergence from obscurity Today they exist as a dynamic and thriving community established in over twenty five countries Yet the interval between what appeared to have been their total annihilation and their modern seemingly phoenix like renaissance has remained shrouded in mystery Drawing on an astonishing array of sources gathered from many countries around the globe The Ismailis in the Middle Ages A History of Survival A Search for Salvation is a richly nuanced and compelling study of the murkiest portion of this era In probing the period from the dark days when the Ismaili fortresses in Iran fell before the marauding Mongol hordes to the emergence at Anjudan of the Ismaili Imams who provided a spiritual centre to a scattered community this work explores the motivations passions and presumptions of historical actors With penetrating insight Shafique N Virani examines the rich esoteric thought that animated the Ismailis and enabled them to persevere A work of remarkable erudition this landmark book is essential reading for scholars of Islamic history and spirituality Shi ism and Iran Both specialists and informed lay readers will take pleasure not only in its scholarly perception but in its lively anecdotes quotations of delightful poetry and gripping narrative style This is an extraordinary book of historical beauty and spiritual vision Islam and Muslim Resistance to Modernity in Turkey Gokhan Bacik,2019-08-24 This book explores how traditional

Sunni Muslim conceptions have informed or shaped Islamization strategies in contemporary Turkey In particular the author proposes to examine the teaching curriculum of the Ministry of Education which oversees Turkish public religious education the activities and teachings of Diyanet the constitutional organ responsible for managing all religious affairs and the ideas and activities of three Muslim religious groups currently operating in Turkey The monograph explains how the interpretation and practice of Islam affects various situations in the Muslim world and analyzes the concept of nature in Islam which has been an indivisible component of Islamic tradition since the beginning
