Goldstein, 1997-11-03 Tensions over the Tibet Question the political status of Tibet are escalating every day The Dalai Lama has gained broad international sympathy in his appeals for autonomy from China yet the Chinese government maintains a hard line position against it What is the history of the conflict Can the two sides come to an acceptable compromise In this thoughtful analysis distinguished professor and longtime Tibet analyst Melvyn C Goldstein presents a balanced and accessible view of the conflict and a proposal for the future Tibet s political fortunes have undergone numerous vicissitudes since the fifth Dalai Lama first ascended to political power in Tibet in 1642 In this century a forty year period of de facto independence following the fall of the Qing dynasty in 1911 ended abruptly when the Chinese Communists forcibly incorporated Tibet into their new state and began the series of changes that destroyed much of Tibet s traditional social cultural and economic system After the death of Mao in 1976 the rise to power of Deng Xiaoping quickly produced a change in attitude in Beijing and a major initiative to negotiate with the Dalai Lama to solve the conflict This failed With the death of Deng Xiaoping the future of Tibet is more uncertain than ever and Goldstein argues that the conflict could easily erupt into violence Drawing upon his deep knowledge of the Tibetan culture and people Goldstein takes us through the history of Tibet concentrating on the political and cultural negotiations over the status of Tibet from the turn of the century to the present He describes the role of Tibet in Chinese politics the feeble and conflicting responses of foreign governments overtures and rebuffs on both sides and the nationalistic emotions that are inextricably entwined in the political debate Ultimately he presents a plan for a reasoned compromise identifying key aspects of the conflict and appealing to the United States to play an active diplomatic role Clearly written and carefully argued this book will become the definitive source for anyone seeking an understanding of the Tibet Question during this dangerous turning point in its turbulent history

The Disempowered Development of Tibet in China Andrew Martin Fischer, 2013-12-20 Series Studies in Modern Tibetan Culture Lexington Books Weatherhead East Asian Institute Columbia University Since the central government of China started major campaigns for western development in the mid 1990s the economies of the Tibetan areas in Western China have grown rapidly and living standards have improved However grievances and protests have also intensified as dramatically evidenced by the protests that spread across most Tibetan areas in spring 2008 and by the more recent wave of self immolation protests that started in 2011 This book offers a detailed and careful exploration of this synergy between development and conflict in Tibet from the mid 1990s onwards when rapid economic growth has occurred in tandem with a particularly assimilationist approach of integrating Tibet into China Fischer argues that the intensified economic integration of Tibet into regional and national development strategies on these assimilationist terms within a context of continued political disempowerment and through the massive channeling of subsidies through Han Chinese dominated entities based outside the Tibetan areas has accentuated various dynamics of subordination and marginalization faced by Tibetans of all social strata Whether or not these dynamics are intended to be discriminatory they effectively accentuate the discriminatory assimilationist and disempowering characteristics of development even while producing considerable improvements in the material consumption of local Tibetans In particular strong cultural linguistic and political biases intensify ethnically exclusionary dynamics among middle and upper strata of the Tibetan labor force which is problematic considering the rapid shift of Tibetans out of agriculture and towards the highly subsidy dependent sectors of the economy especially in urban areas The combination of these disempowering dynamics with the sheer speed of dislocating and disembedding social change provides important insights into recent tensions given that it has accentuated insecurity while restricting the ability of Tibetan communities to adapt in autonomous and self determined ways The study represents one of the only macro level and systemic analyses of its kind in the scholarship on Tibet based on accessible economic analysis and extensive interdisciplinary fieldwork It also carries much interest for those interested in China and in the interactions between development inequality exclusion and conflict more generally Tibet, Lamplight Unto a Darkened World - the American Delusion a Parody of Life Patrick Mahoney, 2008-08-28 Michener meets Grisham on a mountain top in Tibet hooked up by Hermann Hesse Chronicling the adventures of a modern day Siddhartha this Historical fiction novel is a parable with a heart
