Along the Way Kent C. Gilmore, 1999-01-01 American Book Publishing Record, 2000 Nevzorov Haute Ecole Equine Anthology Vol.7, The Relational Horse Gala Argent, Jeannette Vaught, 2022-04-19 Human horse relationships take the central place in this edited collection examining the horse's perspective by asking How are human equine relationships communicated enacted understood encouraged and restricted The contributors apply varied disciplinary methods as they emphasize comprehending horses not solely in terms of their functional uses but also as impactful participants in relationships whether more or less equally By exploring the who of horses The Relational Horse offers a better understanding of horses lived experiences and interests within the worlds they share with humans and a way forward for human equine studies that more equitably represents the horse in those shared worlds Nexus: into the Past and Other Stories Mike Baron, 2015-12-29 Nexus is back and this time the galactic judge jury and executioner is stalking history's most dangerous killer Clayborn across time itself But when justice comes at an enormous personal cost to Nexus himself can the Merc's chosen champion still do what's right Collecting Nexus Into the Past Nexus Bad Moon Rising Nexus Infestation and Nexus The Insect Under the Stone from Dark Horse Presents 12 15 23 26 and 29 34 The Psychology of the Human-Animal Bond Christopher Blazina, Güler Boyraz, David Shen-Miller, 2011-06-22 There have been dramatic increases in the financial emotional and psychological investment in pets over the past four decades The increasing importance of animal companions in people's lives has resulted in growing emphasis on the human animal bond within academic literature This book introduces practicing and emerging professionals to vital subject matter concerning this growing specialty area by providing an essential framework and information through which to consider the unique contextual backdrop of the human animal bond Such contexts include a wide array of themes including issues of attachment and loss success and frustration with making and sustaining connections world views regarding animal ethics familial history of neglect or abuse and cultural dynamics that speak to the order of things between mankind and nature Adopting a contextual stance will aid mental health professionals in appreciating why and how this connection has become a significant part of everyday life for many As with any other important clinical dynamic training and preparation are needed to gain competence for professional practice and research To this end an ensemble of international experts across the fields of psychology and mental health explore topics that will help both new and established clinicians increase and understanding of the various ways the human animal bond manifests itself Perspectives from beyond the scope of psychology and mental health such as anthropology philosophy literature religion and history are included to provide a sampling of the significant contexts in which the human animal bond is established What brings these divergent topics together in a meaningful way is their relevance and centrality to the contextual bonds that underlie the human animal connection This text will be a valuable resource that provides opportunities to deepen one's expertise in understanding the psychology of the human animal bond Anthologies of British Poetry

,2021-11-22 From Tottel's Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re-creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web The Human-Nature Relationship in Ted Hughes' Animal Imageries. A Case Study of "The Jaguar" ,2022-08-31 Case Study from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1-3 University of Kassel language English abstract Animals have played a major role in literature for thousands of years At first animals were used to underline religious or allegorical significance in literary texts Aesop's Fables for example are about talking animals and plants and often convey a moral message at the end These fables have served as guidelines for people for almost three thousand years In modern times Ted Hughes is considered one of the most influential English poets of the second half of the twentieth century particularly due to the impressive animal imageries he created Hughes writing career started in 1957 when his collection of 40 poems named The Haw in the Rain was published On Beckett, On! Jean-Michel Rabaté,Laurel Garver,2025-06-10 This collection of essays was born from a wish to show to a wider audience how exciting and productive Samuel Beckett scholarship has become at a time when there are more essays and books written about Beckett than about any key modernist authors like Joyce and Woolf This volume contains numerous essays on Beckett that the Journal of Modern Literature has published in the last decade Their enduring quality proves that Beckett's oeuvre has maintained its appeal today because it attracts original scholars who are also interested in issues like philosophy psychoanalysis ethics contemporary history and literary theory The Museum at the End of the World Alexia Bloch,Laurel Kendall,2016-05-06 A little over a century ago the American Museum of Natural History launched its ambitious Jesup North Pacific Expedition to learn more about the peoples inhabiting the remote easternmost extension of Siberia and the northwest coast of North America In The Museum at the End of the World Encounters in the Russian Far East anthropologists Alexia Bloch and Laurel Kendall tell the story of their journey through this same part of the world in 1998 retracing the old expedition as they link the expedition legacy of artifacts photographs and archival material from the museum in New York to the present day descendants of its subjects Contrasting the time of the Jesup expedition with their own travel the authors reveal a physical and cultural landscape that was profoundly shaken over the past century first by Soviet control and then by that empire's unraveling The Museum at the End of the World is not the story of a heroic adventure but rather a series of conversations about Siberian culture with museum workers, native scholars, performers and artisans and a great variety of ordinary people. They reveal a strong concern about past legacies, cultural preservation and their uncertain future as they struggle to reinvent themselves. The authors' combination of travelers' curiosity and professional inquiry provide a compelling portrait of life in the Russian Far East and a meditation on the fate of culture and tradition in the face of hard economic times and sudden autonomy after decades of state control.

The Critic, 1896 The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1896 The Speaker, 1898 Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose Małgorzata Poks, 2023-07-28 Decolonial Animal Ethics in Linda Hogan's Poetry and Prose is a plea for an urgent redefinition of human-animal relations on the basis of a nonanthropocentric animal ethic embraced by premodern Indigenous communities but depreciated by coloniality. Without decolonial revisions of animal subjectivity and personhood, the animal genocide can never truly stop. It is also a close reading of Linda Hogan's poetry and prose in search of the coordinates of a decolonized animal ethic which would foster interspecies becoming. Having defined the recurring tropes, motifs and attitudes that underpin Hogan's treatment of nonhuman animals, the book moves on to trace the way she depicts the human-animal bond, especially in the face of the destructive anthropogenic impact. The major questions guiding the analysis of Hogan's oeuvre are as follows: who are the animals we share our earthly lives with; what can they teach us about ourselves; how can animals guide us toward more sustainable futures; and what are the conditions of possibility of an interspecies human-animal thriving. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Indigenous Studies, Decolonial Studies, Animal Studies, Ecocriticism, Anthropocene Studies as well as readers of Linda Hogan's literary works.

Critic and Literary World Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1896 Interpretation And Explanation In The Study Of Animal Behavior Ph.D., Marc Bekoff, 2021-11-28 People have long been fascinated not just by the behaviour of non-human animals but by the problem of how this behaviour is to be interpreted and explained. This is one of two volumes of original essays on the cognitive and emotional dimensions of non-human minds and the relationship of natural minds to behaviour. The essays also address questions concerning the meaning and significance of consciousness, animal intelligence, awareness and emotions, behavioural plasticity, flexibility and constraints on understanding animal minds and the structure of explanation in the study of behaviour.

The Nation, 1897 Sound Pedagogy Colleen Renihan, John Spilker, Trudi Wright, 2024-02-06 Music education today requires an approach rooted in care and kindness that coexists alongside the dismantling of systems that fail to serve our communities in higher education. But as the essayists in Sound

Pedagogy show the structural aspects of music study in higher education present obstacles to caring and kindness like the entrenched master student model a neoliberal individualist and competitive mindset and classical music's white patriarchal roots The editors of this volume curate essays that use a broad definition of care pedagogy one informed by interdisciplinary scholarship and aimed at providing practical strategies for bringing transformative learning and engaged pedagogies to music classrooms The contributors draw from personal experience to address issues including radical kindness through universal design listening to non human musicality public musicology as a forum for social justice discourse and radical approaches to teaching about race through music Contributors Molly M Breckling William A Everett Kate Galloway Sara Haefeli Eric Hung Stephanie Jensen Moulton Mark Katz Nathan A Langfitt Matteo Magarotto Mary Natvig Frederick A Peterbark Laura Moore Pruett Colleen Renihan Amanda Christina Soto John Spilker Reba A Wissner and Trudi Wright

The Great Animal Orchestra Bernie Krause, 2012-03-19 A passionate amalgam of science and autobiography that will leave you hearing and seeing nature as never before New York Times Book Review Musician and naturalist Bernie Krause is one of the world's leading experts in natural sound and he's spent his life discovering and recording nature's rich chorus Searching far beyond our modern world's honking horns and buzzing machinery he has sought out the truly wild places that remain where natural soundscapes exist virtually unchanged from when the earliest humans first inhabited the earth Krause shares fascinating insight into how deeply animals rely on their aural habitat to survive and the damaging effects of extraneous noise on the delicate balance between predator and prey But natural soundscapes aren't vital only to the animal kingdom Krause explores how the myriad voices and rhythms of the natural world formed a basis from which our own musical expression emerged From snapping shrimp popping viruses and the songs of humpback whales whose voices if unimpeded could circle the earth in hours to cracking glaciers bubbling streams and the roar of intense storms from melody singing birds to the organlike drone of wind blowing over reeds the sounds Krause has experienced and describes are like no others And from recording jaguars at night in the Amazon rain forest to encountering mountain gorillas in Africa's Virunga Mountains Krause offers an intense and intensely personal narrative of the planet's deep and connected natural sounds and rhythm The Great Animal Orchestra is the story of one man's pursuit of natural music in its purest form and an impassioned case for the conservation of one of our most overlooked natural resources the music of the wild
