Altar Call The Origins And Present Usage:

The Altar Call David Malcolm Bennett, 2000 The Altar Call David Bennett, 2000 The Altar Call is a thorough examination of the public invitation practice within Christian evangelism In addition to giving a comprehensive historical background that spans three continents The Altar Call also poses the following question If John Wesley George Whitefield and Jonathan Edwards are regarded as the great figures of modern evangelicalism why did none of these important leaders practice the invitation system that became so important in so many later evangelical groups This important study will be of interest to both religious scholars and lay people who are curious about the antecedents development and current use of the altar call The Altar Call David Bennett, Eleanor Curtain, 2000-12 This book shows words and sentences featuring the letter F and ends with an alliterative poem as an example of the different sounds the same letter can make Worship in an Age of Anxiety J. Michael Jordan, 2024-06-04 Too often in the history of Christian worship evangelical leaders have sought to manipulate anxiety to spur repentance J Michael Jordan challenges this utilitarian approach offering a practical theology of worship within a healing framework that rather than manipulating anxiety acknowledges accepts and offers it to God Missionary of Reconciliation Alfred Olwa, 2013-11-30 Missionary of Reconciliation The Role of the Doctrine of Reconciliation in the Preaching of Festo Kivengere of Uganda 1971 1988 Alfred Olwa Sydney Australia In the period 1971 1988 the Christian doctrine of reconciliation was central to Festo Kivengere s preaching in Uganda and beyond This doctrine so gripped Kivengere that it shaped his attitude to life to others and even to his enemies He exhorted his audiences to be reconciled with God and then with their fellow human beings as part of God s remedy for a broken world In his preaching Kivengere depicts Jesus as a missionary of reconciliation who brings a fresh and alternative life characterized by the reconciling love and peace from God He preached the Christian doctrine of reconciliation into a Uganda where Christians lived under the horrors of Amin s rule and its aftermath According to Kivengere the world changes through the preaching of the reconciliation centered in Jesus Christ Theologies of the American Revivalists Robert W. Caldwell, 2017-03-04 Robert Caldwell traces the fascinating story of American revival theologies during the Great Awakenings examining the particular convictions underlying these conversions to faith Caldwell offers a reconsideration of the theologies of important figures and movements giving fresh insight into what it meant to become a Christian during this age in America s religious history A Call to Resurgence Mark Driscoll, 2013-11-05 It s tempting to believe that the Christian faith is alive and well in our country today Our politicians talk about God Our mega churches are filled Christian schools dot our landscape Brace yourself It s an illusion Believe it or not only 8 percent of Americans profess and practice true evangelical Christian faith There are more left handed people than evangelical Christians in America In this book Mark Driscoll delivers a wake up call for every believer We are living in a post Christian culture a culture fundamentally at odds with faith in Jesus This is good and bad news The good news is that God is still working redeeming people from this spiritual wasteland and inspiring a resurgence of faithful believers The bad news is that many believers just don't get it They continue to gather exclusively into insular tribes lobbing e bombs at each other in cyberspace Mark's book is a clarion call for Christians It's time to get to work We can only do this if we unite around Jesus and the essentials found in his Word while at the same time appreciating the distinctives within each Christian tribe Mark shows us how to do just that This isn't the time to wait or debate Join the resurgence

The Gospel in Christian Traditions Ted A Campbell, 2008-12-11 Throughout the history of Christianity there have been theological disputes that caused fissures among the faithful There were the major ruptures of the Great Schism of 1054 and the Protestant Reformation Since the Reformation though there has been an eruption of new denominations The World Christian Database now list over 9000 worldwide And new denominations are created every day often when a group splits off from an established church because of a dispute over doctrine or leadership With such a proliferation of denominations could there possibly be one core Christian message that all churches share That's the question that Ted Campbell sets out to answer in this book He begins his examination of Christian doctrine where it started in the gospels He then shows how the gospel has been received and professed by Christian communities through the centuries from the first proto Orthodox Christian communities right through the modern evangelical Pentecostal and ecumenical movements Campbell shows that despite all the divisions there is indeed a single unifying core of the faith that all Christians share In the process he offers a brief well written and acceptable history of Christian doctrine that will be ideal for courses in the history of Christian thought

The Serious Business of Worship Melanie Ross, Simon Jones, 2010-03-17 The study of liturgy has received criticism from scholars and practitioners alike the academic discipline of liturgiology has been compared to the hobby of stamp collection and proponents for liturgical renewal argue that worship must be made more accessible and relevant Bryan Spinks has been an important moderating voice in this discussion reminding both academic and ecclesial communities that Christ is made known in the liturgical riches of the past as well as in contemporary forms of the present Inspired by Spinks work this volume brings together biblical historical and theological scholars to discuss the theme of continuity and change in worship Its historical range begins with the early church extends through the Reformation and concludes with a discussion of issues facing contemporary liturgical reform In recognition of the fact that Professor Spinks work has been widely influential in both Europe and the United States the editors have solicited liturgical perspectives from scholars with international reputations on sides of the Atlantic

Catherine Booth John Read, 2014-01-30 Catherine Booth's achievements as a revivalist social reformer champion of women's rights and with her husband William Booth co founder of the Salvation Army were widely recognized in her lifetime However Catherine Booth's life and work has since been largely neglected This neglect has extended to her theological ideas even though they were critical to the formation of Salvationism the spirituality of the movement she cofounded This book examines the implicit theology that undergirds Catherine Booth's Salvationist spirituality and reveals the ethical concerns at the heart of her soteriology and the integral relationship between the social and evangelical aspects of Christian mission in her thought Catherine Booth emerges as a significant figure from the Victorian era a British theologian and church leader with a rare if not unique intellectual and theological perspective that of a woman

Why Left Behind Should Be Left Behind David Malcolm Bennett, 2004-12 The Left Behind books have swept across the world but is their message biblical This easy to read book shows that there is a truer way to understand God's word

A Coat of Many Colors Walter Conser, 2006-09-04 While religious diversity is often considered a recent phenomenon in America the Cape Fear region of southeastern North Carolina has been a diverse community since the area was first settled Early on the region and the port city of Wilmington were more urban than the rest of the state and thus provided people with opportunities seldom found in other parts of North Carolina This area drew residents from many ethnic backgrounds and the men and women who settled there became an integral part of the region's culture Set against the backdrop of national and southern religious experience A Coat of Many Colors examines issues of religious diversity and regional identity in the Cape Fear area Author Walter H Conser Jr draws on a broad range of sources including congregational records sermon texts liturgy newspaper accounts family memoirs and technological developments to explore the evolution of religious life in this area Beginning with the story of prehistoric Native Americans and continuing through an examination of life at the end of twentieth century Conser tracks the development of the various religions denominations and ethnic groups that call the Cape Fear region home From early Native American traditions to the establishment of the first churches cathedrals synagogues mosques and temples A Coat of Many Colors offers a comprehensive view of the religious and ethnic diversity that have characterized Cape Fear throughout its history Through the lens of regional history Conser explores how this area's rich religious and racial diversity can be seen as a microcosm for the South and he examines the ways in which religion can affect such diverse aspects of life as architecture and race relations

Regeneration, Revival, and Creation Chris Chun, Kyle C. Strobel, 2020-07-06 Jonathan Edwards 1703-58 is considered one of the greatest theologians and philosophers of evangelicalism who also served as a pastor missionary and revival leader By underscoring Regeneration Revival and Creation in Edwards's thought this volume uniquely captures the need to delve into Edwards's theological and philosophical rationale for the revivals alongside key questions concerning the historical context and Edwards's standing in his own tradition This book gathers the work of scholars working in the areas of historical systematic and analytic theology church history psychology and biology It contains papers presented at the inaugural conference of the Jonathan Edwards Center at Gateway Seminary JEC West Bringing together some of the leading authorities as well as up and coming Edwards scholars working today this collection advances the questions of regeneration revival and creation in fresh new ways With contributions from Adriaan Neele Douglas Sweeney Chris Woznicki Obbie Tyler Todd Peter Jung Michael Haykin Ryan J Martin Mark Rogers Allen Yeh Oliver Crisp Walter Schultz John Shouse Rob Boss Lisanne Winslow and Robert Caldwell

No Quick Fix Andrew David Naselli, 2017-08-30 Every Christian struggles with sin and wants to be victorious in the fight Higher life theology also known as Keswick theology offers a quick fix for this struggle It teaches that there are two categories of Christians those who are merely saved and those who have really surrendered to Christ Those who have Jesus as their Savior alone and those who have him as their Master as well If Christians can simply let go and let God they can be free of struggling with sin and brought to that higher level of spiritual life What could be wrong with that A lot it turns out In No Quick Fix a shorter and more accessible version of his book Let Go and Let God Naselli critiques higher life theology from a biblical perspective He shows that it leads not to freedom but to frustration because it promises something it has no power to deliver Along the way he tells the story of where higher life theology came from describes its characteristics and compares it to what the Bible really says about how we overcome sin and become more like Christ Under the Big Top Josh McMullen,2015

This book examines the immensely popular turn of the twentieth century big tent revivals By showing how these revivals combined the Protestant ethic of salvation with the emerging consumer ethos McMullen sheds light on the way in which the United States became the most consumer driven and yet one of the most religious societies in the western world

Methodist History ,2002 The General David Malcolm Bennett,2003 The General David Malco Bennett,2003-12 Examines the founding and development of The Salvation Army as a major evangelistic agency in Victorian Britain and beyond and introduces his amazing family and a host of intriguing characters that served under the Army s banner along with the tragic death of Catherine Global Revival Robert J. Nyhuis,2025-02-20 In 1902 one of history s most statistically significant revivals was led by three American evangelists R A Torrey Charles Alexander and W E Geil It quickly spread internationally after beginning in Melbourne Australia where a staggering 8 642 conversions were recorded in just four weeks This largely untold story chronicles the beginning of the twentieth century s great awakening better known for its later impact in Wales and at Azusa Street Los Angeles By comparison with the later ministry of Billy Graham Global Revival identifies key elements that remain central to all revivals today It also includes rare letters from D L Moody and Charles Spurgeon details of the unique Spots method of evangelism insights into a decade long weekly prayer meeting the origin of the various versions of Alexander s famous revival hymn book and full transcripts of selected sermons This unique case study of revival s triumphs and pitfalls makes an important contribution to the study of evangelistic mission and will energize and equip groups and individuals alike Global Revival also provides helpful study questions to stimulate discussion in small groups or classes keen to see fresh expressions of revival today America's Pastor Grant Wacker,2014-11-07 More than a conventional biography Grant Wacker s interpretive study deepens our understanding of why Billy Graham has mattered so much to so many and how his uncanny ability to appropriate trends in the wider culture allowed him to transform his born again theology into a moral vocabulary capturing the aspirations and fears of average Americans
