

The background of the cover is a painting. It depicts a large, multi-story castle with a red-tiled roof and several towers, situated on a high, rocky cliff. The foreground is dominated by a dense, lush forest of tall, thin trees with green foliage. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall style is that of a classical or romanticized landscape painting.

Ross G. Arthur,2014-06-17 This translation first published in 1993 presents a little known medieval romance to readers who do not know Old French or who are generally unfamiliar with the literature of the Middle Ages Probably composed between 1190 and 1220 the major interest of Amadas and Ydoine to modern readers is that its basic structure is unflinchingly conventional its plot is predictable yet charming and its social and moral attitudes reflect the context in which it was produced The poet explores how love chivalry and martial prowess can translate a would be knight into a powerful lord Its purpose is largely that of wish fulfilment for young men and as such it is highly indicative of the ethos surrounding marriage that prevailed in medieval French society Amadas et Ydoine.
