FAO has supported member countries to carry out their national agricultural censuses since 1945 through the development and dissemination of international standards concepts definitions and methodologies as well as technical assistance In 2015 FAO published Volume 1 of the World Programme for the Census of Agriculture 2020 WCA 2020 Programme concepts and definitions the tenth decennial programme that provides guidelines for implementation of national agricultural censuses in the 2016 2025 decade Volume 1 deals with the methodological and conceptual aspects of the census of agriculture In addition to the use of international standards the proper conduct of an agricultural census also depends on adequate planning implementation use of resources and quality assurance throughout all stages of the census In light of this Volume 2 of WCA 2020 Operational guidelines has been designed to guide national census practitioners responsible for conducting the agricultural census It deals with the practical steps involved in actually conducting an agricultural census in the field Volume 2 is a revised and updated edition of Conducting Agricultural Censuses and Surveys published by FAO in 1996 The revision is opportune not only in view of the recent publication of the new census programme and methodology but also in view of the substantial changes witnessed in the census technological environment over the last two decades The availability of digital mobile and more affordable tools for data capture geo positioning remote sensing imaging digital archiving and online dissemination have provided new cost effective alternatives to traditional ways of conducting the agricultural census The 1969 Agricultural Data Book for the Far East and Oceania Francis S. Urban, Kathryn Hulen Wylie, Thomas A. Vankai, United States. Dept. of Agriculture. Economic Research Service. Europe and Soviet Union Branch, 1971 Agriculture Fact Book , 2001 Social Survey Methods Paul Nichols, 1991-01-01 Social Survey Methods is a readable guide to selecting and implementing an appropriate affordable research method Designed for those without a formal training in statistics it includes advice on design of survey forms interview methods and statistical analysis of results Transforming Agrarian Economies Thomas P. Tomich, Peter Kilby, Bruce F. Johnston, 2018-05-31 The world's 58 poorest countries are diverse in many respects but they share the characteristic of a labor force overwhelmingly dependent on agriculture Challenging the assumption that mass poverty and chronic hunger are insoluble problems this book systematically explores the multiple aspects of economic development in these countries which are home to 60 percent of the world's population The authors offer a broad based development strategy to raise incomes through agricultural productivity growth and expanded rural employment They present rich new information on the rural informal sector and on agriculture industry interactions and they analyze the impact of macroeconomic and social policies on the rural economy Policy instruments aimed at bringing about broad based development are carefully assessed from fiscal policy to development of new seeds and farm implements The book includes detailed case studies of countries that have seized or missed development opportunities Comparison of the successful economic transformations of Japan and the United States shows how key ideas which the authors call strategic notions have enabled policymakers to act with foresight Analyses of strategic choices in China the Soviet Union Taiwan Mexico Kenya and Tanzania also show how development strategies that emerge from the real world political economy reflect a mix of individual interests and strategic notions Using the Agricultural, Environmental, and Food Literature Barbara S. Hutchinson,Antoinette Paris-Greider,2002-07-17 This text discusses a wide range of print and electronic media to locate hard to find documents navigate poorly indexed subjects and investigate specific research topics and subcategories It includes a chapter on grey and extension literature covering technical reports and international issues
