Poulton,2017-01-30 The book of Genesis is considered by some people to be inspired truthful and sacred Others think of it as a fairy story and wonder why people still believe such an ancient book Genesis for Ordinary People doesn t shy away from the questions that go through people s minds as they read the first book in the Bible Are there reasons it is trustworthy In addressing these questions Paul Poulton follows the intriguing thread that runs through the entire book of Genesis He takes a good look at the story s wonderful and flawed people and beings inviting readers to gaze into the garden of Eden to witness the reality of what actually happened there He follows the storyline of Genesis but often looks back adding a fresh perspective to Adam and Eve s enthralling lives A fascinating picture emerges as the layers of Genesis accumulate The

Israel God's Timepiece Christine

Thomas, 2018-03-06 The Vision of Numbers 17 and the Star of David is a revelation of the heart of God for all humanity. The revelation gives a biblical account of the history of Israel and the call of Abraham by God to father a new nation. The land was covenanted to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob by God as an everlasting inheritance to his Seed. Through Abraham's son Jacob, the Seed of the woman of Genesis 3:15 would be born. The Seed, Jesus Christ, would be a blessing both spiritually and physically to all humanity. He would bring redemption to all people. The revelation gives deep insight into the Passover and the Exodus from Egypt and introduces the seven Feasts of the Lord, which outline God's Eternal Plan for all humanity from chaos to eternity. The revelation focuses on Israel, God's chosen people, and Timepiece in the earth and points to why Israel is the most hotly contested piece of land in the earth. The reason for the conflicts in the Middle East today and why Jerusalem, Israel's Capital City, is the most fought-over piece of real estate in the world. Jerusalem has been sought after by all major religions: Jews, Muslims, and Christians, for thousands and thousands of years. God was espoused to Israel, and she became his wife. She was unfaithful to Him and had to be punished for her disobedience, idolatry, and unfaithfulness to God; therefore, she was uprooted from the land of promise and dispersed to many nations of the world. After two thousand years, Israel is back in the land and became a nation on May 14th, 1948, fulfilling The Fig Tree Prophecy, which ushers in the time the Bible calls the Last Days or the time of Jacob's trouble. Therefore, the revelation points to our soon-coming King, Jesus Christ. He is near, even at the door. He will reign in The Capital City, Jerusalem; it is God's resting place for all eternity. It is the Lord's inheritance where He will reign in Majesty. It is in this future City that all believers of the House that Christ is building will live and reign with Him. Our home, the New Jerusalem, will descend from heaven to this great land, and Christ will reign with both Jews and Gentiles in that City forever and ever. It is God's will for all people from every nation, country, tribe, and culture to be saved; this is God's heart for all people and humanity's only hope, salvation, in Jesus Christ. Deuteronomy 4:6 Says: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Women in Fundamentalism Maxine L. Margolis, 2019-10-10 Women in Fundamentalism examines the striking similarities in three extreme fundamentalist religious communities in their views about and treatment of women. Whether Christian, Jewish, or Muslim, the fundamentalist offshoots of these religions subject women to myriad restrictions in their daily lives. All three seek to maintain male control over women's bodies, women's activities, and the people with whom women associate. The three also share common ideologies about women's true nature and proper place. The specific cases covered in this text are: 1. Mormon polygamists, specifically the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (FLDS) who live in Utah, Arizona, Texas, and isolated enclaves in Canada and Mexico; 2. the Satmar Hasidim of Williamsburg, Brooklyn; Kiryas Joel, a town in Orange County, New York, and several settlements in Israel; and 3. an extreme brand of Islam practiced by the Pashtun ethnic group of Afghanistan and neighboring areas of Pakistan. This book effectively bridges the disciplines of women's studies, religion, and anthropology, making it a valuable resource for professors and students seeking new qualitative and quantitative material on women's positions in various religious traditions We think

What We Eat Seth Daniel Kunin, 2004-10-05 In We Think What We Eat Seth Kunin presents both an appreciation and critique of Professor Mary Douglas's classical work on Israelite food rules. He places her arguments into the context of related anthropological approaches and suggests a new interpretation of the food rules system based on a rigorous application of structuralist theory. Kunin then goes on to extend this analysis to other areas of Israelite culture. Through detailed analysis of texts from Genesis, Exodus, and Judges, he demonstrates that the same structural pattern found in the first section in respect of ritual is also characteristic of the mythological material. This section of the book also takes up the issue of structural transformation. It examines the processes found as the myths move from the Israelite context to that of the rabbis, the authors of the New Testament, and of the Book of Mormon. The arguments presented demonstrate that as the myths move from culture to culture diachronically and geographically while the same mythological elements are retained, they are restructured and organized based on the structural needs of the new cultural context. Kunin is also interested in issues of structuralist theory. Thus, he addresses issues related to the processes of structural transformation, suggesting processes that lead to changes in structural emphasis and those relating to more significant transformations. This is volume 412 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament Supplement series.

The Sword of Destruction Jesse Kaiser, 2025-06-26 A compilation of inspired writings to destroy all false beliefs, vanquishing all strange beasts of the depths, returning holiness unto the sons of man. In which, by God, I, Jesse Kaiser, was commanded to forage and temper. This book defines a clear picture of the body of God, who he is, and where he reigns, and those who populate the houses thereof, the body of him. The judges over them, being the heads of the houses thereof. There being only one truth and light, only one Son, Jesus Christ, that came of God, being the firstborn of the church, and an in-depth explanation of his Atonement for us, the parting of the way of the body for the blood pass over. The significance of the accomplishments of Jesus Christ at the Garden of Gethsemane and the Hill of Cumorah, as well as the Holy Ghost, an messenger of truth, liken a white dove. The three of which are separate personages united in one purpose, that purpose being the will of God, which is to bring to pass the immortality and eternal life of man, being the purpose of God unto man. Of which I go into further detail of the differences of the two immortality and eternal life in the book. Topics as well delve into the metaphysics of the universe as it is in the heavens, so it is on the earth, being the macrocosm and microcosm analogy. Dualism of the spirit body and the flesh body of light and of darkness, of which was and which was created. Unwind string theory and all its straights and loops that form the bigger tapestry with the revelations in this tome.
