Featuring a wide range of topics such as higher education, instructional design, and language learning, this book is ideal for academicians, teachers, administrators, instructional designers, curriculum developers, researchers, and students in the fields of linguistics, anthropology, sociology, educational policy, and discourse analysis. Talking Cancer, 2009 Applied Linguistics and Materials Development Brian Tomlinson, 2013-01-31 Applies applied linguistic theories to the development of materials for language learning to add new depth to the field. The Routledge Handbook of Discourse Analysis Michael Handford, James Paul Gee, 2013-06-17 Approaches to discourse analysis Register and genre Developments in spoken discourse Educational applications Institutional applications Identity culture and discourse Exploring Identity Across Language and Culture Alex Panicacci, 2021-11-23 This book explores the ways in which migrants experience today's multilingual and multicultural society, informs language use and processing, behavioural patterns, and perceptions of self-identity. Drawing on survey data from hundreds of Italian migrants living in English-speaking countries in conjunction with more focused interviews, this volume unpacks reciprocal influences between linguistic, cultural, and psychological variables to shed light on how migrants emotionally engage with the local and heritage dimensions across public and private spaces. Visualising the impact of a constant shifting of linguistic and cultural practices can enhance our understanding of migration experiences, foreign language acquisition, language processing, and socialisation, inclusion, integration, social dynamics, acculturation, tendencies, and cross-cultural communication patterns. Overall, this book appeals to students and scholars interested in gaining nuanced insights into the linguistic, cultural, and psychological underpinnings of migration experiences in such disciplines as sociolinguistics, cultural studies, and social psychology. Drinking from the Same Well Lydia F.
