City In Architecture Recent Works Of Rocco Design Limited:

The City in Architecture Rocco Design (Firm), 2002 Rocco Yim's work is recognised internationally as being among the most cutting edge in Asia today. This is the first book on their work and because of the extraordinary erudite quality of Rocco Yim's architecture the publishers are certain they will read it. The Condition of Chinese Architecture Pier Alessio Rizzardi, Zhang Hankun, 2018 In China 1% of the world's architects have to design 50% of all the buildings and must do so for 15% of the profit. This extreme situation in which architects have to operate design and build creates the theoretical basis for The Condition of Chinese Architecture. In addition to interviewing the critical voices of contemporary Chinese architecture the authors report the nowadays reality of the country the architectural evolution since the first contacts with the West in 1582 and the issues affecting its contemporary practice. The result is a groundbreaking cumulative reckoning teased out through layers of personal accounts and cross disciplinary research drawing on architecture aesthetics philosophy politics and society. 2018 TCA Think Tank thinktank.com The Condition of Chinese Architecture Pier Alessio Rizzardi, Zhang Hankun. Tall Buildings of China Georges Binder, 2015-07-31 This breathtaking new book compiled by tall buildings specialist Georges Binder showcases more than 100 of the tallest buildings in China across more than 25 cities including those towering over the megacities of Beijing, Shanghai and emerging supercities such as Chengdu, Guangzhou and Tianjin. Georges Binder summarises the history of the Chinese tall building landscape from the 1930s to the present day and features the best in contemporary design including emerging architectural trends showcasing each project with beautiful imagery and detailed plans. The book also delves into the hard architectural statistics and buildings features with gritty detail. These skyscrapers are a fitting symbol of China's new found prosperity, ambition and architectural flair.

Procuring Innovative Architecture Leon van Schaik, Geoffrey London, 2010-05-12 The case studies in this book describe how clients' promotion of innovative communities of practice has led to important collections of architectural works. The book provides an assessment of the effectiveness of their approaches. Architects and clients will understand what to look for as they construct their careers and their portfolios with innovation as a goal. It is taken for granted nowadays that supporting innovative architecture benefits society. In countries as diverse as Austria, Australia, Belgium, England, Japan, South East Asia, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland and the USA, retailers, institutions, local and regional government and transport authorities have established substantial bodies of work by new and emerging architects. This book looks at what their goals are and how they have achieved them Is it possible to promote sustainable communities of innovative practice through such patronage Can innovation be kick started by importing visionary works
