Becoming a Mediator Peter Lovenheim, 2002-03-07 Most mediators feel that helping people end conflicts is special work and they are sustained by rewards beyond money praise or fame But with no obvious career path and no prescribed courses to take or degrees to earn how does one become a mediator Whatever your background whether in law social work teaching psychology business homemaking or parenting you can become a mediator and find a satisfying career says Peter Lovenheim Becoming a Mediator shows you how offering a practical nuts and bolts guide to breaking into the field and a no nonsense approach to the reality of current professional opportunities Drawing from the experiences of actual mediators as well as from his own many years of work as an attorney and mediator Lovenheim not only provides a vital resource but also conveys the sense of mission mediators feel for this emerging new profession
