Becoming An Outdoors Woman My Outdoor:

Becoming an Outdoors Woman Christine L. Thomas, 1997 Founder of the nationally acclaimed Becoming An Outdoors Woman program the author relates how she became just that an outdoors woman It s inspiration for those who already have outdoor experience and offers encouragement for those getting out for the first time Becoming an Outdoors Woman, 2012 Woman's Guide to Hunting Berdette Elaine Zastrow, 2000 A guide to hunting designed especially for women including information on safety finding a place to hunt clothing and equipment and more Wild Games Dennis Ray Cutchins, Eric Alden Eliason, 2009 Humans understand at least some of what it means to be human both literally and figuratively in reference to wild animals Our relationships with wildlife have traditionally been expressed in terms of hunting more recently these relationships have also been manifest as efforts to prevent hunting Hunting and fishing traditions are in fact under fire by critics at the same time that they are receding of their own accord perhaps becoming even more endangered than any of the pursued animals These traditions form the major focus of Wild Games a new collection of essays that looks at the folklore and culture of various hunting and fishing practices documenting the central importance of hunting to many rural societies even in modern times Editors Dennis Cutchins and Eric Eliason contend that hunters often don't perceive of themselves as separate from the wild but rather identify strongly with a natural order integrated with rather than standing apart from the fluctuation of ecosystems And they frequently don't see wild animals as set apart but understand them as food sources competitors friendly rivals and even equals Featuring contributions from a variety of distinguished scholars and writers including an essay by the noted folklorist Simon Bronner on the culture of the deer camp a fascinating account of coyote tracking by Eric Eliason and an examination of the role of gender in outdoor life by Diane Humphrey Lueck this book shows how the traditions of hunting and fishing tend to bind hunter and prey into ancient patterns that often defy contemporary culture Book Jacket Why Am I Invisible? Elizabeth Anne Wilkens, 2020-11-08 Our perception is that hunters and anglers are men In reality women have fished and hunted for centuries By reviewing history looking at data and leveraging more than sixty years of experience as a hunter and angler the author tackles false perceptions and sets the stage for change She discusses proven processes for encouraging lasting change and provides activities that connect educate and empower women The goal is to create inclusive fishing and hunting communities where everyone feels valued and valuable Arkansas Wildlife, 1998 Outdoor Illinois, 2011 The Palgrave International Handbook of Women and Outdoor Learning Tonia Gray, Denise Mitten, 2018-05-12 This Handbook serves as a starting point for critical analysis and discourse about the status of women in outdoor learning environments OLEs Women choose to participate actively in outdoors careers many believing the profession is a level playing field and that it offers alternatives to traditional sporting activities They enter outdoor learning primarily on the strength of their enthusiasm for leading and teaching in natural environments and assume the field is inclusive rewarding excellence regardless of age gender socioeconomic status disability or ethnicity However both research and collective experiences in OLEs suggest that many women feel invisible relegated marginalized and undervalued In response to this marginalization this Handbook celebrates the richness of knowledge and practices of women practitioners in OLEs Women scholars and practitioners from numerous fields such as experiential outdoor education adventure education adventure therapy and gender studies explore the implications of their research and practice using poignant examples within their own disciplines These insights emerge from similar life experiences as women and outdoor leaders in the 1970s to the present Social inequalities still abound in OLEs and the Handbook ensures that the contributions of women are highlighted as well as the work that needs to be done to make these spaces inclusive Global in perspective and capacious in content this one stop volume is an indispensable reference resource for a diverse range of academics including students and researchers in the fields of education psychology sociology gender studies geography and environment studies as well as the many outdoors fields

Confession David Carpenter,2010-04-03 A Hunter s Confession tells the story of hunting in David Carpenter s life including the reasons he once loved it and the reasons he no longer pursues it When he was a boy Carpenter and his father and brother would head out along the side roads and into the prairie marshlands searching for duck grouse and partridge As a young man he began skulking around the bushes with his hunting buddies and trudging through groves of larch alpine fir and willow in search of elk Later hunting became a form of therapy a way to ward off melancholy and depression In the end as a result of a dramatic experience after shooting a grouse Carpenter gave up hunting for good Winding through this personal narrative is Carpenter s exploration of the history of hunting subsistence hunting versus hunting for sport trophy hunting and the meaning of the hunt for those who have written about it most eloquently Are wild creatures somehow our property How is the sport hunter different from the hunter who must kill game to survive Is there some sort of bridge that might connect aboriginal hunters to non aboriginal hunters Why do many hunters feel most fully alive when they Arizona Wildlife
