Becoming Children Of God Johns Gospel And Radical Discipleship:

Becoming Children of God Wes Howard-Brook, 2003-10-21 Becoming Children of God offers a fresh and original commentary on the Gospel of John as a narrative inviting readers both in the evangelist's time and our own to a radical commitment to follow Jesus from within a spirit-filled community. This reading is grounded in a poetics of biblical narrative that balances attention to historical, ideological, and aesthetic aspects of John's Gospel while highlighting its relevance for today. By committing himself to a close analysis of the text as symbolic action, Howard Brook makes it clear how John's Gospel fairly bristles with references to societal conditions that demand a direct response. Throughout the commentary, his close attention to literary structure as well as social background yields new insights into the often obscure message of the Fourth Gospel. Preaching John's Gospel: The World It Imagines, Feminist Companion to John Amy-Jill Levine, Marianne Blickenstaff, 2003-01-01 V 2 studies includes some that seek to locate the cumulative effect of all the stories concerning women; these lead to general suggestions concerning both the evangelist's view of gender and the role of women in the Johannine community. Also, Christological language and theological categories in search for an alternative to the androcentrism and exclusivity theologians typically associate with the Fourth Gospel. Highlights of specific scenes: e.g. crucifixion, appearance to Mary Magdalene, to interrogate the function of feminine imagery, the implications of particularly troublesome verses, the cultural appropriations of the narratives from back cover. Fortress Introduction to the Gospels, Second Edition Mark Allan Powell, 2019-10-01 With clarity and verve, Mark Allen Powell introduces the beginning student to the contents and structure of the Gospels, their distinctive characteristics, and their major themes. An introductory chapter surveys the political, religious, and social world of the Gospels; methods of approaching early Christian texts; the genre of the Gospels; and the religious character of these writings. This second edition has been updated to take fuller account of different theories regarding the Gospels, with new chapters on the historical Jesus and on gospel literature not included in our New Testament, and with a pleasing new format. Special features include illustrations and more than two dozen special topics.

The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear. The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches, each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News. While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching, they often do not know where to begin. Who are the best representatives of a given approach? How do the different methods relate to one another? How has the preaching scene changed in recent years? In The Web of Preaching, Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching. Surveying the most important current theories of preaching, he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own. The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture, narrative, and the role of preaching in worship. A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another, and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching. This book is a follow-up to Eslinger's earlier A New

Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987 The Gospel of John and Christian Theology Richard Bauckham, Carl Mosser, 2008-02-25 The essays were first presented in 2003 as papers at the first St Andrews Conference on Scripture and Theology held at the University of St Andrews Scotland P x Love, Loss, and Abjection Melanie Baffes, 2016-06-03 This study explores the premise that the experience of being born from above in John's Gospel can be seen as mirroring the development of human subjectivity particularly as understood through the psychoanalytic work of Julia Kristeva It draws specifically on Kristeva's theory of how the human self subject takes shape in infancy her contention that subjectivity is a work in progress and her insistence on abjection as a catalyst for developing selfhood Examining the story of Mary of Bethany as narrated in John 11 12 through this lens this analysis seeks to better understand the concept of new birth and how it relates to being fully human Thomas - Love as Strong as Death Dennis Sylva, 2013-02-14 Thomas appears only four times in John's Gospel yet despite this he is crucially important in understanding the function of the Johannine message Dennis Sylva provides the first major study which examines the paradox that Thomas is both opposed to a dominant theme in the Fourth Gospel the eternal life that is a gift to Jesus followers and yet is in support of Jesus himself Thomas appears to have a foot on both sides of the Johannine dualistic divide He seems to be existentially at home on one side and yet ideologically at home on the other No other character in John's Gospel so tenaciously hold on to companionship with Jesus while just as resolutely distancing himself from Jesus central teaching Thomas breaks down the barriers between the disciples those who walk in the light and the world those who walk in the darkness that John takes pains to establish Sylva's new work demonstrates the importance of Thomas in fully understanding the message of the Fourth Gospel Designs for the Church in the Gospel of John R. Alan Culpepper, 2021-07-16 The essays in this volume which span four decades represent sustained reflection on the historical setting narrative devices and theology of the Gospel of John Methodologically the essays develop a narrative critical approach to the Gospel producing insights that have implications for historical and theological issues Thematically many of the essays explore the Gospel's ecclesiology especially its vision for the church and its mission As a collection this volume provides an introduction to the Fourth Gospel analyses of major issues including John's anti Judaism relationship to 1 John irony imagery creation ethics evil and eschatology and in depth exploration of key texts especially John 1 1 18 2 20 4 35 38 5 1 18 5 21 30 10 1 18 12 12 15 13 1 20 19 16 30 20 19 23 and chapter 21 The Sheep of the Fold Edward W. Klink III, 2007-08-02 The last generation of gospel scholarship has considered the reconstruction and analysis of the audience behind the gospels as paradigmatic The key hermeneutical template for reading the gospels has been the quest for the community that each gospel represents This scholarly consensus regarding the audience of the gospels has been reconsidered Using as a test case one of the most entrenched gospels Edward Klink explores the evidence for the audience behind the Gospel of John This study challenges the prevailing gospel paradigm by examining the community construct and its functional potential in early Christianity the appropriation of a gospel text and J L Martyn's two level reading of John and the implied reader located within the narrative The study concludes by proposing a more appropriate audience model for reading John as well as some implications for the function of the gospel in early Christianity Re-presenting the Johannine Community Yak-hwee Tan, 2008 Re Presenting the Johannine Community A Postcolonial Perspective explores the characterization of the Johannine community in the Farewell Discourse of the Fourth Gospel from a postcolonial perspective The community is scrutinized with the lens of an integrated literary rhetorical and ideological postcolonial approach The disciples emerge as both the Self insofar as they resist an imperial reality represented by the world and the Other with respect to Jesus and the Father As such far from immutable and bland the Johannine community is portrayed as chameleonic and engaged in an emerging strategy of resistance Book Jacket

The Green Good News T. Wilson Dickinson, 2019-12-11 When was the last time that we heard some good news For those tuned in to the ecological crisis and the daily chronicle of injustice the declaration of good news might seem synonymous with denial and avoidance The gospel of Jesus Christ helps us to face the suffering of the world and live in love and hope The only catch is it requires that we change It is only by losing our consumeristic profit seeking and isolated lives that we may save them The Green Good News finds a fresh take on the Gospels painting a picture of Jesus as a humorous and subversive teacher an organizer of alternative communities and food economies as a healer of bodies and relationships and as a prophet who sought to overturn an empire and restore a more just and joyful way of life Christ teaches and incarnates a vision for sustainable life and provides practices that mark the path toward it By exploring this always inspiring sustainable gospel we can find ways to transform our lives communities and even creation Reading with a Passion Jeffrey

Staley, 2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people's life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family's five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico Using Tony Hillerman's popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories Staley investigates how his cross cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction medieval passion plays cultural anthropology rhetorical studies and autobiographical reflection Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John A Faith

Not Worth Fighting For Tripp York, Justin Bronson Barringer, 2012-05-17 In A Faith Not Worth Fighting For editors Justin Bronson Barringer and Tripp York have assembled a number of essays by pastors activists and scholars in order to address the common questions and objections leveled against the Christian practice of nonviolence Assuming that the command to love one's enemies is at the heart of the Gospel these writers carefully faithfully and no doubt provocatively attempt to explain why the nonviolent path of Jesus is an integral aspect of Christian discipleship By addressing misconceptions about

Christian pacifism as well as real life violent situations this book will surely challenge the reader's basic understanding of what it means to be a follower of Jesus

Unveiling Empire Wes Howard-Brook, Anthony Gwyther, 1999 Confused by end of the world readings or put off by the dense and mysterious imagery many readers hesitate to explore the Book of Revelation Unveiling Empire offers a new entree into this troubling and controversial book of the Bible by examining the roots and social purposes of apocalyptic literature and Revelations own use of traditional imagery In this way the authors provide readers with the tools for deciphering the texts message and its urgent applications for Christians today living amidst a new kind of empire

Gift Upon Gift Sherri Brown, 2010-08-11 This study builds upon recent scholarship exploring the significance of the Old Testament covenant metaphor in the Johannine writings By examining the Gospel of John as a whole through a narrative lens and focusing on several key dialogues the author sheds light on the dialogical nature of the revelatory process and the central role of covenant for the Fourth Evangelist Also incorporating recent scholarship that suggests the evangelist understood himself to be writing Scripture based upon fulfillment language present in summary statements across the Gospel and demonstrating a relationship between the Fourth Gospel and ancient drama that renders speech as action this work attempts to construct a new paradigm for reading John against the background of the Old Testament covenant metaphor The claim is twofold the Johannine story of Jesus Christ is a carefully crafted literary treatise theologically underpinned by discourse on covenant and Scripture and the Fourth Evangelist provides catechesis to a believing community on the nature of its faith in the God of Israel's ongoing covenant with the created order By grasping the theological fabric of the evangelist the richness of the dialogue and imagery of his Gospel is allowed to have its full voice in terms of covenant fulfillment and the ongoing commitment of God to a believing people

The Gospel of the Beloved Disciple Herman C. Waetjen, 2014-05-22 There is a general consensus that the Fourth Gospel underwent two editions But in contrast to all previous efforts to reconstruct these two editions on the basis of source and redaction criticism Waetjen maintains that these two editions essentially overlap without far reaching changes Chapter 1-20 originated within the Jewish community of Alexandria and were addressed to Jews in order to persuade them to believe into Jesus as the Messiah the Son of God The second edition originated when chapter 21 was added and certain revisions were made in chapters 1-20 by an editor in the Christian community of Ephesus in order to present the Gospel to Gentile Christians and perhaps attendantly to legitimate it for canonization Waetjen examines John's gospel by engaging in a close reading of various units of the Gospel from the perspective of a two level drama that presents two narrative worlds within the literary structure of the Gospel Out of his readings of the texts one of the major and provocative conclusions Waetjen draws is that Lazarus is the Beloved Disciple of Jesus in chapters 1-20 John the son of Zebedee is intimated to play the role of the Beloved Disciple not only in chapter 21 but throughout the Gospel In other words the editor of chapter 21 has concluded that John based on the title that the gospel already bears is the Beloved Disciple and project that backwards from chapter 21 throughout the previous 20 chapters Waetjen's thorough scholarship and his attention to detail in his original readings challenge traditional readings of John's Gospel providing fresh insights into the Gospel

Unveiling Empire Wes Howard-Brook, Anthony Gwyther, 1999 Confused by end of the world readings or put off by the dense and mysterious imagery many readers hesitate to explore the Book of Revelation Unveiling Empire offers a new entrance into this troubling and controversial book of the Bible by examining the roots and social purposes of apocalyptic literature and Revelation's own use of traditional imagery In this way the authors provide readers with the tools for deciphering the text's message and its urgent applications for Christians today living amidst a new kind of empire
