Becketts Dying Words The Clarendon Lectures 199:

Beckett's Dying Words Christopher Ricks,1995 The Poetry of Clare, Hopkins, Thomas, and Gurney Andrew Hodgson,2019-12-31 This book attends to four poets John Clare Gerard Manley Hopkins Edward Thomas and Ivor Gurney whose poems are remarkable for their personal directness and distinctiveness It shows how their writing conveys a potentially individual quality of feeling perception and experience each poet responds with unusual commitment to the Romantic idea of art as personal expression The book looks closely at the vitality and intricacy of the poets language the personal candour of their subject matter and their sense obdurate but persuasive of their own strangeness As it traces the tact and imagination with which each of the four writers realises the possibilities of individualism in lyric it affirms the vibrancy of their contributions to nineteenth and twentieth century poetry The Practice of Reading Derek Alspop,Chris Walsh,1999-04-19

The Practice of Reading is a lucid and lively examination of the art of interpreting the novel in the context of recent developments in literary theory and criticism Believing that reading is or should be a pleasurable creative activity the authors analyse a range of seven novels from the eighteenth century to the present focusing upon the experiential dimensions of the reading process What is the role of the reader What happens when a novel is read How far does meaning depend on the reader and how far on the text These and other related questions are explored in readings of novels as diverse as Tristram Shandy Pride and Prejudice Great Expectations Daniel Deronda A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man Beckett s Trilogy and Possession In its insistence upon a return to the practice of close reading the book represents a timely intervention in current literary debates An accessible informative and above all stimulating text for all university and college students of literature

Stevie Smith R. Huk,2004-12-10 In this first book length study of Stevie Smith Romana Huk reassesses the work of this major twentieth century woman writer as emerging not only from the practices of female literary modernism but also from within the tumultuous cultural context of mid century Europe Huk considers both the poems and the novels in the light of their cultural and literary context Amongst the work treated here is Smith s rarely discussed trilogy of novels Novel on Yellow Paper Over the Frontier and The Holiday The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
