Craft Of Religious Studies:

The Craft of Religious Studies Jon R. Stone, 2014-01-14 A collection of essays by distinguished scholars in the academic study of religion The Craft of Religious Studies represents the variety of research and analytical methods that researchers employ when examining religious phenomena whether personally or socially expressed Autobiographical in cast this collection points to diversity of approaches in the academic study of religion and highlights the interdisciplinary nature of the field While the ways scholars approach the study of religion in human culture vary the common ground among them as seen in these fourteen contributions remains their quest for understanding more so than the paths toward understanding they have chosen The Craft of Religious Studies NA NA, 2016-04-30 Unlike other humanistic disciplines the academic study of religion must contend with a phenomenon that touches every dimension of human experience For scholars so engaged the study of religion often becomes a cross cultural as well as a necessarily interdisciplinary endeavor In this collection of original essays Jon R Stone has brought together the intellectual autobiographies of fourteen senior scholars all with national or international reputations in their respective fields each of whom reflects upon his or her own theoretical assumptions and methodological approaches to the study of religion Taken together these essays represent the variety of research methods and interpretive rigor mature scholars bring to the task of examining religious phenomena religious actions religious movements and religious ideas
