The Making of the Bible

Konrad Schmid, Jens Schröter, 2021-10-29 The authoritative new account of the Bible's origins illuminating the 1 600 year tradition that shaped the Christian and Jewish holy books as millions know them today The Bible as we know it today is best understood as a process one that begins in the tenth century BCE In this revelatory account a world renowned scholar of Hebrew scripture joins a foremost authority on the New Testament to write a new biography of the Book of Books reconstructing Jewish and Christian scriptural histories as well as the underappreciated contest between them from which the Bible arose Recent scholarship has overturned popular assumptions about Israel's past suggesting for instance that the five books of the Torah were written not by Moses but during the reign of Josiah centuries later The sources of the Gospels are also under scrutiny Konrad Schmid and Jens Schröter reveal the long transformative journeys of these and other texts en route to inclusion in the holy books The New Testament the authors show did not develop in the wake of an Old Testament set in stone Rather the two evolved in parallel in conversation with each other ensuring a continuing mutual influence of Jewish and Christian traditions Indeed Schmid and Schröter argue that Judaism may not have survived had it not been reshaped in competition with early Christianity A remarkable synthesis of the latest Old and New Testament scholarship The Making of the Bible is the most comprehensive history yet told of the world's best known literature revealing its buried lessons and secrets
