Creating The Conditions For Classroom Improvement A Handbook Of Staff Development Activities:

Creating the Conditions for School Improvement Mel Ainscow, John Beresford, Alma Harris, David Hopkins, Geoff Southworth, Mel West, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2001 This is the second edition of this school's improvement handbook of staff development activities by the IQEA Improving Education for All project This book is not about what changes should be introduced into a school but rather about creating the conditions for supporting those changes which schools or individuals believe should be introduced To be effective at managing change schools and teachers need to modify the internal conditions of the school at the same time as introducing changes in teaching or curriculum The book therefore provides ideas and materials to help colleagues in school to create such conditions and suggests a strategic approach

Creating the Conditions for School Improvement Mel Ainscow, 1994 This work is intended for senior and classroom teachers and others concerned with improving the quality of education in schools Based on the approach of the Cambridge Improving the Quality of Education for All Project IQEA the handbook offers readings activities and proformas

Creating the Conditions for School Improvement Mel Ainscow, David Hopkins, 1994

Creating the Conditions for Classroom Improvement David Hopkins, 2013-10-28 First published in 1998 The research practice and staff development activities in this book have come out of the Improving the Quality of Education for All project IQEA which emphasises the importance of enhancing internal conditions in schools by building upon existing good practice Materials developed to promote school level conditions have already been described in a companion volume Creating Conditions for School Improvement It is however necessary to modify the conditions with the classroom as well as those at the level of the school if school improvement strategies are to have their full impact on student achievement This book articulates a complimentary set of classroom conditions and gives INSET providers the activity materials to implement them

Creating the Conditions for Teaching and Learning David Hopkins, Alma Harris, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2001 This handbook arising out of IQEA project Improving the Quality of Education for All focuses on a basic repertoire of teaching and learning strategies and a series of activities designed to help teachers extend and deepen their range of teaching skills The authors set out for CPD tutors ways of bringing research evidence and critical self reflection to bear on practice in the pursuit of confident teaching and effective learning The goal is to locate and unleash the full potential of individual teachers through evidence selection and variety rather than to impose pre determined notions or models of teaching and learning regardless of the relevance to particular groups of students and their teachers

Improving the Quality of Education for All David Hopkins, 2015-12-08 The Improving the Quality of Education for All IQEA school improvement project has over the last ten years reduced and evaluated a model of development that strengthens the school's ability to provide high quality education for all its pupils by building on existing good practice The schools within the IQEA network have also provided the setting for a long term investigation into the processes of school change and the enhancement of student achievement This book provides many practical staff development activities and gives examples of specific changes which have taken place in IQEA schools relating both to the progress of students and the professional development of their teachers These training activities and examples demonstrate that improving the quality of education has many facets not all of which can be measured and translated into league tables
