Bastard Out Of Carolina Signed 6th Print:

Vertigo Louise DeSalvo, 2002-08-01 A scholar's memoir of growing up and the powerful forces that shaped her as a woman and a writer her story will inspire all women Library Journal In this honest and outspoken reflection on her childhood Louise DeSalvo explores the many ways literature saved her both emotionally and practically Born to Italian immigrants during World War II DeSalvo takes readers back to the emotional chaos of her 1950s girlhood in New Jersey growing up with her authoritative distant father her depressed mother and a sister who later committed suicide Reading and research were an anchor to her then and widened her choices about her future in ways that weren't otherwise available to girls of that era A Virginia Woolf scholar DeSalvo wrote a ground breaking study on the impact of childhood sexual abuse on the reclusive writer Here she mines her own early days and her adolescent obsession with Hitchcock's Vertigo in an attempt to give her own life's path some shape some order Publisher's Weekly said Her clarity of insight and expression make this memoir an impressive achievement and the San Francisco Chronicle proclaimed DeSalvo has one of the most refreshing feminist voices around

The Woman in the Red Dress Minrose Gwin, 2002 Graceful and impassioned The Woman in the Red Dress offers important new approaches to narratives about father daughter incest as well as stories that contaminate the myth of home as a safe space and map a geography of sexual violence victimization and survival Gwin situates her analysis of fiction such as Morrison's The Bluest Eye Alice Walker's The Color Purple Dorothy Allison's Bastard out of Carolina and Jane Smiley's A Thousand Acres within contemporary debates concerning survivor discourse theories of domestic space and issues of race and class She also explores books such as Hulme's The Bone People that enter a murky and liminal queer space in which gender itself travels and the most claustrophobic physical and social spaces can unexpectedly unhinge and open

The New Southern Girl Caren J. Town, 2015-01-24 Much has been written about America's troubled teens particularly endangered teenage girls Works like Mary Pipher's Reviving Ophelia and many others have contributed to the general perception that contemporary young women are in a state of crisis Parents educators social scientists and other concerned individuals worry that our nation's girls are losing their ambition moral direction and self esteem as they enter adolescence which can then lead them to promiscuous sex anorexia drug abuse and at the very least declining math scores In spite of evidence to the contrary in life and literature this bleak picture is seldom challenged but a good place to begin may be with recent literary representations of young women fictional and autobiographical which show proud young women who are highly focused and use their brains and good humor to work toward satisfying adult lives This book addresses the ways in which 12 women writers use their heroines stories to challenge commonly held and frequently damaging notions of adolescence femininity and regional identity The book begins with a chapter on sociological and literary theories of adolescent female development This chapter also includes theoretically informed discussions of young adult fiction and Southern literature Chapters that follow focus on adolescent heroines in the novels and autobiographies of the contemporary Southern women writers Anne Tyler

Bobbie Ann Mason Josephine Humphreys Dorothy Allison Kaye Gibbons Tina Ansa Janisse Ray and Jill McCorkle and young adult writers Katherine Paterson Mildred Taylor and Cynthia Voigt Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here E-motion Picture Magic Birgit Wolz, 2005 Like no other medium before it the popular movie presents the potential of a new power for illuminating the depth of human experience E Motion Picture Magic employs that power as a tool to increase consciousness Cinema therapy offers more perspective on life prompting the viewer to step back from his or her problems in order to feel less insecure worried or discontented Using films for self improvement allows a shift in perspective when viewed with conscious awareness The use of movies for personal growth and healing carries forward a long standing connection between storytelling and self reflection that may date back to the beginnings of spoken language The movie experience used in very specific ways can have significant benefits for those who are willing to apply themselves using E Motion Picture Magic that can be both beneficial as well as enjoyable Literary Trauma Deborah M. Horvitz, 2000-11-02 This book examines portrayals of political and psychological trauma particularly sexual trauma in the work of seven American women writers Concentrating on novels by Charlotte Perkins Gilman Pauline Hopkins Gayl Jones Leslie Marmon Silko Dorothy Allison Joyce Carol Oates and Margaret Atwood Horvitz investigates whether memories of violent and oppressive trauma can be preserved even transformed into art without reproducing that violence The book encompasses a wide range of personal and political traumas including domestic abuse incest rape imprisonment and slavery and argues that an analysis of sadomasochistic violence is our best protection against cyclical intergenerational violence a particularly timely and important subject as we think about how to stop hate crimes and other forms of political and psychic oppression Critical Condition Amy Scholder, 1993-11 Critical Condition includes Carla Kirkwood's autobiographical performance monologue about a girl sexually abused by the men in her family who becomes a feminist activist in the 70's and an artist in the 90's In impassioned poetry Wanda Coleman takes a look at the embattled lives of African Americans particularly in Los Angeles Sapphire's searing poems about race and self realization expos the fallacy of the nuclear family and the vicious cycle of domestic violence The Theory Girls performance script If You Were like the Heroine in a Country and Western song is both detailed expose and black comedy framing the relationship between Aileen Wuornos and Arlene Pralle the born again Christian who became enamored of Wuornos after her conviction within the context to Hollywood's fascination for women with guns The Queer Child, or Growing Sideways in the Twentieth Century Kathryn Bond Stockton, 2009-10-20 A study of the queer child using literary psychoanalytic and cultural theory A Desire for Women Suzanne Juhasz, 2003 Annotation An exploration of women's desire for women Popular Culture in Counseling, Psychotherapy, and Play-Based Interventions Lawrence C. characters in both countries Helen Barolini delineates the major concerns of all thinking American ethnics This is no less true today as this republication restores Umbertina to a reading public newly attuned to the complexities of cultural inheritance and identity The Philadelphia Inquirer Books in Print ,1994 The Advocate ,1997-09-16 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Television Ratings System United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation,1997 New York Magazine ,1997-02-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Realism's Others Eva Aldea,Geoffrey Baker,2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction's treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,2006-06-21
