Basic Concepts Of Poetics:

Basic Concepts of Poetics Emil Staiger, 2010-11-01 Poetics Aristotle, 2006-09 Shakespeare's Lyricized Drama Aleksandŭr Shurbanov, 2010 This book explores Shakespeare's poetic drama as a blend of the dramatic and the lyrical Through a series of minute textual analyses it traces the gradual integration of the two modes from Love's Labour's Lost to Hamlet and the other mature tragedies How this combination is effected in its details is a question that can help us understand better the specificity of Shakespeare's innovative work for the theater and the power of its impact

Oral Epic Traditions in China and Beyond Chao Gejin, 2021-12-30 This volume is the masterpiece of Chao Gejin one of the best known Chinese scholars of epic studies during the last several decades between the 20th and 21st centuries The discussion ranges from Homeric and Indo European epics to renewed discoveries of age old African and Asian epics The author details developments in research from Parry and Lord's work on Homeric epics and Serbo Croatian oral poetry to his own research on the Mongol heroic epic The book traces the formation of theoretical systems such as Oral Formulaic Theory Ethnopoetics and Performance Theory and ends with the author's explorations of the 20th century Mongolian singer Arimpil's singing of his native epic poetry By combining China's theoretical concerns in verbal art and Western theories in folklore Chao illustrates the nature and feature of oral epic in many ways and is heading for constructing an oral poetics in a broader sense Students and scholars of epic studies literature folklore and anthropology will find this an essential reference

Chinese Narrative Poetry Dore Jesse Levy, 1988 Chinese Narrative Poetry brings a new perspective to some of China's best loved and most influential poems including Ts'ai Yen's Poem of Affliction Po Chu-yi's Song of Everlasting Sorrow and Wei Chuang's recently discovered Song of the Lady of Ch'in Composed in the shih form during the Late Han Six Dynasties and Tang periods these poems stand out as masterworks of narrative art Yet paradoxically their narrative qualities have been little recognized or explored in either traditional Chinese or modern Western scholarship The reason for this neglect is that Western literary traditions acknowledge their origins in epic poetry and thus take narrative for granted but the Chinese tradition is fundamentally based on lyric and does not admit of a separate category for narrative poetry Drawing on both classical Chinese critical works and the most recent Western contributions to the theory of narrative Levy shows how narrative elements developed out of the lyrical conventions of shih In doing so she accomplishes a double purpose guiding the modern reader to an understanding of the nature of narrative in Chinese poetry and shedding light on the ways in which Chinese poets adapted the devices of lyric to the needs of a completely different expressive mode Students of Chinese literature will welcome this pathbreaking study but Chinese Narrative Poetry will interest other scholars as well because it addresses questions of crucial importance for literary theory and comparative literature particularly the central issue of the applicability of Western critical concepts to non Western literature and culture

The Poetics of Alfarabi and Avicenna S. Kemal, 2021-09-20 This book is an important and original study of medieval Arabic theories of poetics It examines the commentaries on Aristotle's Poetics by Alfarabi and Avicenna placing them fully in the context of the Arabic development of Aristotle's logical theory In this the author breaks new ground showing how the philosophers justified the logical and moral power of poetics discourse Its concern for philosophical issues in the Classical Arabic tradition distinguishes this book from other studies of literary theory

The Heritage of Traditional Malay

Literature V.I. Braginsky, 2022-06-20 Traditional literature or the deed of the reed pen as it was called by its creators is not only the most valuable part of the cultural heritage of the Malay people but also a shared legacy of Malaysia Indonesia Singapore and Brunei Malay culture during its heyday saw the entire Universe as a piece of literature written by the Creator with the Sublime Pen on the Guarded Tablet Literature was not just the creation of a scribe but a scribe himself imprinting words on the sheet of memory and thus shaping human personality This book the first comprehensive survey of traditional Malay literature in English since 1939 embraces more than a millennium of Malay letters from the vague data of the seventh century up to the early beginnings of the modern literatures in the late nineteenth century The long path trodden by traditional Malay literature is viewed in historical and theoretical perspectives as a development of integral system caused by cultural and religious changes primarily by gradual Islamization This changing system considered in the entirety of its genres and works is seen both externally and internally from the point of view of modern scholarship and through the examination of indigenous concepts of literary creativity poetics and aesthetics The book not only represents an original study based on a specific historico theoretical approach but it is also a complete reference work and an indispensable manual for students

Language, Literature & Meaning John Odmark, 1980-01-01 The essays in this two volume anthology provide the reader with an overview of current Czech Polish and Hungarian research in language literature and meaning as well as some new perspectives on the major theoretical contributions of Roman Ingarden Georg Lukacs and Jan Mukařovský For the most part the emphasis is on Poetics and Literary Theory however in some of the essays the focus shifts to such related disciplines as Aesthetics Linguistics and Semiotics The heterogeneity of this collection reflects the broad spectrum of interests and approaches to problems of theory being pursued at present in Poland Hungary and Czechoslovakia Much of the work being done in these countries remains relatively unknown outside of Eastern Europe This anthology is an attempt to rectify this situation and make better known the nature and extent of research which promises new insights into a whole range of phenomena in language literature and culture

Modernist Aesthetics in Taiwanese Poetry since the 1950s Chung-to Au, 2008-05-31 Much of the previous scholarship on Taiwanese modernist poetry easily falls into ideological arguments This book participates in the development of an alternative approach to understanding Taiwanese modernist poetry Dr Au's approach emphasizes the diversity and intensity of experiences of place and placelessness in the work of five poets Lomen Luo Fu Rong Zi Yu Guangzhong and Zheng Chouyu The phenomenon of placelessness is a problem in all modernity and so modern aesthetics is an outgrowth of modern society's sense of placelessness This book not only shows how place becomes placelessness but also analyses Taiwanese modernist poets' responses to the phenomenon of placelessness Four kinds of places are examined namely the house the city homeland and an imagined literary community in this work The result is both refreshing and original

Mikhail Bakhtin Gary Saul Morson, Caryl Emerson, 1990 Books about thinkers require a kind of unity that their thought may not possess This cautionary statement is especially applicable to Mikhail Bakhtin whose intellectual development displays a diversity of insights that cannot be easily integrated or accurately described in terms of a single overriding concern Indeed in a career spanning some sixty years he experienced both dramatic and gradual changes in his thinking returned to abandoned insights that he then developed in unexpected ways and worked through new ideas only loosely related to his earlier concerns Small wonder then that Bakhtin should have speculated on the relations among received notions of biography unity innovation and the creative process Unity with respect not only to individuals but also to art culture and the world generally is usually understood as conformity to an underlying structure or an overarching scheme Bakhtin believed that this idea of unity contradicts the possibility of true creativity For if everything conforms to a preexisting pattern then genuine development is reduced to mere discovery to a mere uncovering of something that in a strong sense is already there And yet Bakhtin accepted that some concept of unity was essential Without it the world ceases to make sense and creativity again disappears this time replaced by the purely aleatory There would again be no possibility of anything meaningfully new The grim truth of these two extremes was expressed well by Borges an inescapable labyrinth could consist of an infinite number of turns or of no turns at all Bakhtin attempted to rethink the concept of unity in order to allow for the possibility of genuine creativity The goal in his words was a nonmonologic unity in which real change or surprisingness is an essential component of the creative process As it happens such change was characteristic of Bakhtin's own thought which seems to have developed by continually diverging from his initial intentions Although it would not necessarily follow that the development of Bakhtin's thought corresponded to his ideas about unity and creativity we believe that in this case his ideas on nonmonologic unity are useful in understanding his own thought as well as that of other thinkers whose careers are comparably varied and productive

An Anthology of Modern Arabic Poetry Mounah A. Khouri, Hamid Algar, 2023-11-10 This bilingual anthology is the first attempt to present a substantial collection of contemporary Arabic poetry in the English language It acquaints the English speaking reader with the modern development of one of the world's major poetic traditions and affords insight into the contemporary cultural situation of the Arab peoples English translations of Arabic poetry have suffered from aspirations to geographic completeness of representation and excessive concern with the Neo Classicist school The present anthology regards poetic quality as the primary criterion of selection and displays an emphatic interest in the poets of free verse It presents three successive generations the Syro Americans the Egyptian modernist and the poets of free verse movement linked together by a progressive shift from emphasis on form to emphasis on content and form a relatively detached portrayal of the outside world to a concern with the expression of individual experience Numerous contemporary poets make their first appearance in English some of them having written pieces specially for this anthology It is hoped that the bilingual character of the anthology will suit it for use by students of Arabic literature At the same time the book is intended for a wider readership with general poetic and literary interests An important criterion in composing the anthology was the viability of a poem in its English translation as a piece of literature as well as the excellence of its Arabic original if the translators have been successful in applying this criterion the anthology should afford much aesthetic pleasure The work should be of considerable interest also to students of comparative literature as it demonstrates the influence on modern Arab letters of several Western poets notably Eliot Yeats and Pound This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 Philip Sidney and the Poetics of Renaissance Cosmopolitanism Robert E. Stillman, 2016-04-22 Celebrations of literary fictions as autonomous worlds appeared first in the Renaissance and were occasioned paradoxically by their power to remedy the ills of history Robert E Stillman explores this paradox in relation to Philip Sidney s Defence of Poesy the first Renaissance text to argue for the preeminence of poetry as an autonomous form of knowledge in the public domain Offering a fresh interpretation of Sidney s celebration of fiction making Stillman locates the origins of his poetics inside a neglected historical community the intellectual elite associated with Philip Melanchthon leader of the German Reformation after Luther the so called Philippists As a challenge to traditional Anglo centric scholarship his study demonstrates how Sidney s education by Continental Philippists enabled him to dignify fiction making as a compelling form of public discourse compelling because of its promotion of powerful new concepts about reading and writing its ecumenical piety and its political ambition to secure through natural law from universal Ideas freedom from the tyranny of confessional warfare Intellectually ambitious and wide ranging this study draws together various elements of contemporary scholarship in literary religious and political history in order to afford a broader understanding of the Defence and the cultural context inside which Sidney produced both his poetry and his poetics Poetic Maneuvers Charlotte Melin, 2003 The first English language study of the German author and critic Hans Magnus Enzensberger
