The Complete Father Michael O. Weiner, Les Paul Gallo-Silver, 2019-01-03 Fatherhood is a foundational human endeavor steeped in the history of familial and societal development Every father has within himself the makings of a complete parent in terms of his sense of fulfillment Are you the type of father that you truly want to be Do you feel secure in your decision making Do you sense that you come across as too strict at times or too lenient Can you be playful and spontaneous when you want to be Are you comfortable with having those difficult conversations Drawing on Carl Jung s theories this book discusses several father archetypes presenting a positive view of fatherhood that emphasizes its manifestations and benefits in childrens lives rather than the difficulties and struggles of parenting

Jungian Psychology in Perspective Mary Ann Mattoon,1985

The Unconscious and Its Narratives Zvi Giora,1992-07 Dreams often appear as remarkably coherent narratives How does the mind organize the unconscious into the narrative forms exhibited by dreams literary inspiration and neuroses Although the discovery of the unconscious is undeniably Freud s most crucial contribution to psychology one that forms the cornerstone of psychoanalysis the unconscious and its narrative tendencies remain largely a mystery despite years of investigation We still wonder about the meaning and origin of the stories told in our sleep In The Unconscious and Its Narratives Professor Zvi Giora gives insight into the narrative elements of the unconscious by applying ideas gained from recent developments in cognitive psychology To gain an understanding of unconscious narratives Giora carefully considers the merits and limits as well as the major achievements and contradictions of Freudian theory

The Quick Theory Reference Guide Karin Jordan,2007 Since the beginning of the concepts of family therapy mental health professionals have known that the family the system is a powerful source of support for change or a powerful force for resistance to change Some professionals work with individuals some with families and some with groups However all work with the context of the systems family group community country etc Students especially beginning students are overwhelmed and confused at the variety of approaches to working with clients Many programs introduce students to individual as well as systems concepts in the course of training Students need assistance in learning this variety of theories They need to be able to compare and contrast theories and techniques to determine when and where to utilise the best skills in order to facilitate client change Dr Karin Jordan has compiled a comprehensive text that enables the students to discover each theory as it is presented in its purist form The text is accessible yet the content provides comprehensive knowledge of each theory Dr Jordan has brought together the master educators and clinicians in our fields to write about their particular expertise

Personology Irving E. Alexander,1990 How can we know what another human being is like in some meaningful dynamic way Can we distill the signature like features of an individual personality What is the relationship between personal experience and our attempts to describe the person who has that experience This work by a highly respected senior psychologist is an effort to answer these questions Irving E Alexander presents a case for considering the personal narrative of a human life as the most compelling aspect of that life to be decoded and understood In part a critique of an exclusive reliance on general theories about the development of personality and ways of knowing based primarily on comparison with others Personology is illustrated with material drawn from the lives personal writings and theories of Freud Jung and Sullivan Alexander develops new insights into the lives of these men and offers methods and guidelines for investigating and teaching personology and psychobiography
