Juliet Roper, The University of Waikato, New Zealand. Recent surveys of international CEOs confirm that companies increasingly see sustainability as critical to their business strategy. The rigorous academic framework for the field of sustainable business required to respond to this need is now emerging. This book presents important new work in the theory of the sustainable firm in the application of sustainability principles to key management disciplines in sustainable business in practice and in the international challenges that are critical to sustainability demands. Sustainable Business will prove invigorating for both undergraduate and graduate students on business society and sustainability themed courses. Renewable Fuels Agency 2008/09 annual report to Parliament on the renewable transport fuel obligation Renewable Fuels Agency, 2010-01-28 In 2008/09 the first year of operation the Renewable Transport Fuel Obligation (RTFO) met its objective of driving a market for biofuels in the UK. 2.7% of the UK's total road transport fuel supply was biofuel which was slightly over the Government's target of 2.5% and is more than twice the supply of biofuel in 2007/08. No obligated suppliers had to buy out of their obligations. The performance of suppliers in sourcing sustainable fuels was polarised. Whilst several companies met all three of the Government sourcing targets with fully verified data a number also performed poorly. Overall a significant improvement will be required to meet the challenges of the forthcoming EU Renewable Energy Directive. In 2008/09 there was also a 46% carbon saving against the Government target of 40%. The biofuels market has not as yet had a large impact on agriculture in the UK and although an effective driver of the market for biofuel the RTFO did not during 2008/09 drive increases in the biofuel production capacity in the UK
