Resources in Education, 1998-05 Teaching Critical Thinking in Psychology Dana S. Dunn, Jane S. Halonen, Randolph A. Smith, 2009-01-30. Teaching Critical Thinking in Psychology features current scholarship on effectively teaching critical thinking skills at all levels of psychology. Offers novel, nontraditional approaches to teaching critical thinking, including strategies, tactics, diversity issues, service learning, and the use of case studies. Provides new course delivery formats by which faculty can create online course materials to foster critical thinking within a diverse student audience. Places specific emphasis on how to both teach and assess critical thinking in the classroom, as well as issues of wider program assessment. Discusses ways to use critical thinking in courses ranging from introductory level to upper level, including statistics and research methods courses, cognitive psychology, and capstone offerings. Books in Print, 1981 Leader's Guide for Primary Source Readings in World Religions Patrick Tiernan, 2009. Studying world religions is an intellectual challenge coupled with an emotional endeavor to grow in sensitivity to the mystery of human nature. Teaching world religions requires an openness to new languages, cultures, and beliefs. By exploring the history of dialogue, students can begin to appreciate the unique contributions of each tradition without forgoing their own. Primary Source Readings in World Religions introduces your students to foundational texts of many of the world's main religions. This leader's guide brings you the expertise of a veteran world religions teacher who not only provides helpful insight into the readings but also lends the wisdom gained from years of guiding young people in deepening their understanding of different faith traditions. The leader's guide provides you with continuity and variety. Each chapter includes these elements: summaries of the primary source readings from the student book, an activity to help you guide students through each of the readings, additional activities to further explore the issues, suggestions for prayer related to the chapter topic, action ideas related to the chapter topic. Research in Education
