Backing Into Heaven:

At Heaven's Edge Andrea Jo Rodgers, 2015-10-01 Veteran EMT Andrea Rodgers has helped hundreds of people in their most vulnerable moments. Some of the victims faced their mortality head on and cried out to God for help. Many experienced fleeting but life-changing connections with their first responders. Often these crises became unexpected sources of inspiration. Now Rodgers shares brief real-life stories of heroic courage in the face of fear. In times of intense suffering, she has repeatedly witnessed signs of God's quiet intervention and healing presence. A man is resuscitated after Rodgers was able to repair a defibrillator with her teeth. Several bystanders help rescue a young girl who is accidentally buried alive in sand. Rodgers also experienced some lighthearted moments, including the time she arrived at the scene of a crime only to find herself in the middle of a mystery dinner theater. Experience the miracles, the life and death drama as you look at life from heaven's edge.

Knocking on Heaven's Door Katy Butler, 2013-09-10 In Knocking on Heaven's Door, award-winning journalist Katy Butler describes in vivid and poetic prose what happened to her family as her parents were moved from a ripe and vigorous old age toward a long and protracted phase of dying. After suffering a stroke at age 78, Butler's father, Jeffrey, a retired professor, was left entirely dependent on the care of his wife. Butler's mother, six years later, with a heartbeat managed by a pacemaker put in by an unthinking cardiologist, Jeff's body had outlived his brain, and his wife was exhausted, sick, and depleted from nearly a decade of full-time caregiving. When Butler and her mother appeal to doctors, ethicists, and lawyers for help getting the pacemaker turned off, allowing Jeff a natural, painless death rather than the extended, diminished life provided by the pacemaker, they are seen as monsters. Knocking on Heaven's Door documents the rebellion brewing against a broken and morally adrift medical system that has morphed from saving lives to prolonging dying. Butler shows how our culture turns to technology to solve the spiritual problem of death and how we are ignorant of the ancient and modern realities of dying. Knocking on Heaven's Door is a profoundly moving, expertly researched meditation that will serve as a map for the 78 million baby boomers caring for elderly parents facing a medical system that robs death of its sacredness and intensifies its suffering.

In Heaven's Eyes Debra Clarke, 2020-08-10 Set in the sweeping mountains of North Carolina and on the haunting, rugged coast of Maine, a powerful story portraying Satan's desire to destroy lives and God's unfailing faithfulness to restore those lives. Two Women, Two Children, Two Tragedies. A youthful indiscretion produced a child who now seeks the mother he never knew. An adult indiscretion resulted in a child who will never know her dying mother. One born out of wedlock, one born out of adultery. Can this family, torn apart years ago, find hope as they now converge again? In this passionate debut, Debra A. Clarke delivers a poignant story filled with the hope of faith. From tragedy and heartbreak, Debra shows the miracle of forgiveness and the power of God's love. She has three children and lives in the mountains of Virginia with her husband.
