Specters of Violence in a Colonial Context Adrian Muckle, 2012-04-30 During 1917-1918 war ravaged the hill country north of New Caledonia's main island the Grande terre Occurring sixty-four years after France's 1853 annexation of New Caledonia and in the midst of the Great War of 1914-1918 the conflict was known by the mid-twentieth century as the last of the kanak revolts It represented to many until the events of the 1980s the final pacification of Kanak the indigenous people of New Caledonia Specters of Violence in a Colonial Context is the first comprehensive history of the 1917-1918 war which involved the French army European settlers and Kanak In three parts it addresses the events leading to the outbreak of war how those involved explained their role in the fighting and how the war has since been represented It explores the dynamics of fear violence and warfare in a colonial setting that was both European and Melanesian in character In the face of a colonial historiography and memory that has downplayed consistently the war's significance this history ultimately reevaluates the causes and scale of the war while explaining the local contexts in which decisions were taken by the various protagonists The author draws on a rich and largely unexploited colonial archive that includes administrative dossiers detailing the repression the correspondence of missionaries and indigenous Protestant teachers living in the region the records of the judicial investigation that followed the war and the reports on the post-war trial of seventy-eight rebels Specters of Violence in a Colonial Context will be warmly received by researchers and students of Pacific history and anthropology Its broader audience will include those interested in the reverberations of World War I in the colonies and the nature of colonial colonized interaction Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, 1827 The Museum of Foreign

Literature, Science and Art Robert Walsh, Eliakim Littell, John Jay Smith, 1827 Museum of Foreign Literature and Science Robert Walsh, Eliakim Littell, John Jay Smith, 1827 Contented among Strangers Linda Schelbitzki Pickle, 2023-11-20 German Americans make up one of the largest ethnic groups in the United States yet their very success at assimilating has also made them one of the least visible Contented among Strangers examines the central role German-speaking women in rural areas of the Midwest played in preserving their ethnic and cultural identity Even while living far from their original homelands these women applied traditional European patterns of rural family life and values to their new homes in Illinois Iowa Kansas Missouri and Nebraska As a result they were more content with their modest lives than were their Anglo-American counterparts Through personal recollections including interesting diary material translated by the author church and community documents and migration and census data Pickle reveals the diversity and richness of the women's experiences Unsettling Narratives George Dalbo, 2025-03-21 Genocide education has become increasingly popular and prevalent in the United States over the past decade However genocide is all too often taught as something that occurred in the past or is happening far away What does it mean to teach about genocide in a settler colonial nation state that has yet to fully reckon with its violent past Unsettling Narratives Teaching About Genocide in a Settler Space examines how high school students and their teacher navigated learning and teaching about genocide and mass violence in the context of a semester long comparative genocide and human rights elective course in rural south central Wisconsin Specifically how students and their teacher individually and collectively navigated the difficult knowledge of learning about settler colonialism the genocide of Indigenous peoples in the United States during the nineteenth century the legacies of genocide and mass violence at the intersections of U S and Indigenous societies during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and the enduring legacies of white supremacy and settlerness It reveals the complexities limits and possibilities of teaching and learning about genocide in the contemporary United States Algeria, the Topography and History, Political, Social, and Natural, of French Africa John Reynell Morell, 1854 Algeria John Reynell Morell, 1854 Algeria: the Topography and History ... of French Africa John Reynell Morell, 1854 Elberfeld Poor Law System Great Britain. Local Government Board, 1888 The Specter of Salem Gretchen A. Adams, 2008-11-15 In The Specter of Salem Gretchen A Adams reveals the many ways that the Salem witch trials loomed over the American collective memory from the Revolution to the Civil War and beyond Schoolbooks in the 1790s for example evoked the episode to demonstrate the new nation's progress from a disorderly and brutal past to a rational present while critics of new religious movements in the 1830s cast them as a return to Salem era fanaticism and during the Civil War southerners evoked witch burning to criticize Union tactics Shedding new light on the many varied American invocations of Salem Adams ultimately illuminates the function of collective memories in the life of a nation Imaginative and thoughtful Thought provoking informative and convincingly presented The Specter of Salem is an often spellbinding mix of politics cultural history and public historiography New England Quarterly This well researched book forgoing the usual heft of scholarly studies is not another interpretation of the Salem trials but an important major work within the scholarly literature on the witch hunt linking the hysteria of the period to the evolving history of the American nation A required acquisition for academic libraries Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2009 Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament, 1871 Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament. House of Representatives, 1871 "The" Fortnightly Review, 1888 The Fortnightly, 1888 The French in Algiers, 1855 Crusades in Africa. And A Five Months Captivity Among the Arabs Clemens Lamping, 1848 The French in Algiers. 1. The Soldier of the Foreign Legion. [By C. L.] 2. The Prisoners of Abd-el-Kader.
