Armed Forces Of China:

The Chinese Armed Forces in the 21st Century, 1999 The debate about China and Taiwan is re emerging in the United States The accidental bombing of the Chinese Embassy in Belgrade of course put on the front burner the way that nationalistic fervor has grown in China at least some of it as a result of manipulation by the Communist Party President Lee Teng hui s comments about state to state relations between Taiwan and the mainland raised the temperature of relations across the strait and among the three concerned parties China the United States and Taiwan China threatened China postured and China ran political campaigns against the United States and Lee But the questions of military capability security policy and intent are rarely treated seriously This book is a serious look at the armed forces of China and how they will evolve China's Incomplete Military Transformation Michael S. Berkowitz, 2015-02-13 Through extensive primary source analysis and independent analysis this report seeks to answer a number of important questions regarding the state of China s armed forces The authors found that the PLA is keenly aware of its many weaknesses and is vigorously striving to correct them Although it is only natural to focus on the PLA s growing capabilities understanding the PLA s weaknesses and its self assessments is no less important The Chinese Armed Forces in the 21st Century Larry M. Chinese Army Building in the Era of Jiang Zemin Andrew Scobell, 2000 To many in the United States China looms large and threatening This monograph attempts to answer through an analysis of China's defense establishment under the leadership of Jiang Zemin questions such as What are the national security and national military goals of China's leaders What strategies are Chinese leaders considering in pursuit of these goals What is the likelihood that these goals will be attained It assesses the political and economic determinants of China's effort to modernize its armed forces Four possible strategies are outlined 1 playing the superpower game 2 playing to its strengths 3 changing the rules of the game or 4 don't play that game The factors that will determine the selection of a strategy are examined The most likely strategy is identified and its outcome evaluated Lastly the implications of the study for the U.S. defense community are addressed

Shaping China's Security Environment Andrew Scobell, Larry M. Wortzel, 2006 The contributions contained herein address the role of the Chinese military in shaping its country's security environment Of course the PLA itself is shaped and molded by both domestic and foreign influences In the first decade of the 21st century the PLA is not a central actor in China's foreign policy the way it was just a few decades ago Nevertheless the significance of the PLA must be understood The military remains a player that seeks to play a role and influence China's policy towards such countries and regions as the United States Japan the Koreas Southeast Asia South Asia and of course Taiwan It is important not to overlook that in times of crisis or conflict the role and influence of the PLA rise significantly

History of China's Military Dr. R K Sahay, 2016-09-01 The recorded military history of China extends from about 2200 BC to the present day This history can be divided into the military history of China before 1911 when a revolution overthrew the imperial state and the period of the Republic of China Army and the People's Liberation Army Although traditional Chinese Confucian philosophy favored peaceful political solutions and showed contempt for brute military force the military was influential in most Chinese states Chinese pioneered the use of crossbows advanced metallurgical standardization for arms and armor early gunpowder weapons and other advanced weapons but also adopted nomadic cavalry and Western military technology The book deeply highlights the Military History of China and its strategies

The Armed Forces of China You Ji, 1999-12-03 At present perceptions of China's military power owe as much to the Korean war as they do to cool analysis of force structure and offensive capacity Yet as the emerging economic superpower in Asia China must play an ever growing part in the future of that region and the world The Armed Forces of China presents a straightforward description of

Chinese Civil-Military Relations Nan Li, 2010-04-05 This new book addresses three key issues: What has changed in Chinese civil-military relations? What can account for changes? And what are the implications for Chinese security policy and strategic behaviour? It tackles these questions by sharply assessing civil-military dynamics in elite politics, such dynamics in national security and arms control policy, relations between commanders and political commissars, relations between the PLA and society, civil-military dynamics regarding defence economics and logistics, and such dynamics regarding dual-use technologies and defence industry. These analyses build into the central theme that the emphasis of Chinese civil-military relations is shifting from politics to military tasks. This is an extremely important new development by a nation many predict to become a super power in the twenty-first century. This is therefore essential reading for all students and scholars of strategic and security studies, Chinese studies and international relations. The Chinese Military System Harvey W Nelsen, 1981-05-05 Handbook on the Chinese Armed Forces United States. The People's Liberation Army and Contingency Planning in China Andrew Scobell, Arthur S. Ding, Phillip Charles Saunders, Scott Harold, 2015 How will China use its increasing military capabilities in the future? China faces a complicated security environment with a wide range of internal and external threats. Rapidly expanding international interests are creating demands for the People's Liberation Army (PLA) to conduct new missions ranging from protecting Chinese shipping from Somali pirates to evacuating citizens from Libya. The most recent Chinese defense white paper states that the armed forces must make serious preparations to cope with the most complex and difficult scenarios so as to ensure proper responses at any time and under any circumstances. Based on a conference co-sponsored by Taiwan's Council of Advanced Policy Studies, RAND, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and National Defense University, this book brings together leading experts from the United States and Taiwan to examine how the PLA prepares for a range of domestic border and maritime contingencies. The book includes chapters on how the PLA domestic security forces and the civilian government conduct contingency planning and how military commanders can draw upon national-level military assets and mobilize civilian resources to execute their plans. Substantive chapters assess PLA planning for potential domestic contingencies such as suppressing internal unrest, border contingencies involving India, Myanmar, North Korea, Afghanistan, and Central Asia, and maritime contingencies in both the near and the far seas. Authors also examine PLA preparations and performance in disaster relief, counterpiracy, and noncombatant evacuation operations. Improving PLA capabilities are giving Chinese leaders new options to respond to domestic and international crises, but the PLA still has significant limitations in projecting and sustaining power, especially in contested environments. Back cover Chinese Military Modernization and Force Development Anthony H. Cordesman, Ashley Hess, Nicholas S. Yarosh, 2013-10-22 China's military development has become a key focus of US security policy as well as that of virtually all Asia Pacific states This report from the CSIS Burke Chair in Strategy examines trends in Chinese strategy military spending and military forces based on Chinese defense white papers and other official Chinese sources US reporting by the Department of Defense and other defense agencies and other government sources including Japanese and Korean defense white papers and the International Monetary Fund The analysis also draws on the work of experts outside of government various research centers and nongovernmental organizations

Shaping China's Security Environment Andrew Scobell, Larry M. Wortzel, 2006 The contributions contained herein address the role of the Chinese military in shaping its country's security environment Of course the PLA itself is shaped and molded by both domestic and foreign influences In the first decade of the 21st century the PLA is not a central actor in China's foreign policy the way it was just a few decades ago Nevertheless the significance of the PLA must be understood The military remains a player that seeks to play a role and influence China's policy towards such countries and regions as the United States Japan the Koreas Southeast Asia South Asia and of course Taiwan It is important not to overlook that in times of crisis or conflict the role and influence of the PLA rise significantly

China's Use of Military Force Andrew Scobell, 2003-09-08 In this unique study of China's militarism Andrew Scobell examines the use of military force abroad as in Korea 1950 Vietnam 1979 and the Taiwan Strait 1995 1996 and domestically as during the Cultural Revolution of the late 1960s and in the 1989 military crackdown in Tiananmen Square Debunking the view that China has become increasingly belligerent in recent years because of the growing influence of soldiers Scobell concludes that China's strategic culture has remained unchanged for decades Nevertheless the author uncovers the existence of a Cult of Defense in Chinese strategic culture The author warns that this Cult of Defense disposes Chinese leaders to rationalize all military deployment as defensive while changes in the People's Liberation Army's doctrine and capabilities over the past two decades suggest that China's twenty first century leaders may use military force more readily than their predecessors

The "people" in the PLA, 2008 As part of its larger reform effort to modernize and transform its military into a technologically sophisticated force the PLA has implemented a number of measures aimed at training up a new type officer for its modernized forces one capable of operating effectively in a technologically advanced informationalized environment Foreword

The Chinese People's Liberation Army since 1949 Benjamin Lai, 2012-11-20 The Chinese People's Liberation Army PLA is the largest army in the world China is predicted to be on the brink of overtaking the USA as the world's largest economy and China's military capabilities and global ambitions are the single greatest long term pre occupation of Western governments The PLA has progressed steadily if slowly since its creation in 1949 from a mass army of unsophisticated infantry limited to human wave tactics into a highly sophisticated force with wide capabilities More recent reforms 1989 to the 2010s have been made possible by massive economic liberalization and have seen not only the modernization of all the armed forces but the beginnings of global outreach even including Chinese participation in UN peace keeping missions to Africa the Middle East
