Aroma Terrapin:

Aroma Terrapin Thomas D. Lisk, 2003 These poems half identify and half create inward experiences the elusive atmospheres of dreams About the poet Thomas David Lisk s poetry fiction and essays have appeared in many little magazines and newspapers He holds a PhD from Rice University He serves as Professor of English at North Carolina State University

The Culinarians David S. Shields, 2017-10-26 A first ever history of the nation s foundational culinarians the chefs caterers and restaurateurs who made cooking an art Marcie Cohen Ferris author of The Edible South In this encyclopedic history of the rise of professional cooking in America the 175 biographies include the legendary Julien founder in 1793 of America s first restaurant Boston s Restorator and Louis Diat and Oscar of the Waldorf the men most responsible for keeping the ideal of fine dining alive between the World Wars Though many of the gastronomic pioneers gathered here are less well known their diverse influence on American dining should not be overlooked plus their stories are truly entertaining We meet an African American oyster dealer who became the Congressional caterer and thus a powerful broker of political patronage a French chef who was a culinary savant of vegetables and drove the rise of California cuisine in the 1870s and a rotund Philadelphia confectioner who prevailed in a culinary contest with a rival in New York by staging what many believed to be the greatest American meal of the nineteenth century He later grew wealthy selling ice cream to the masses Shields also introduces us to a French chef who brought haute cuisine to wealthy prospectors and a black restaurateur who hosted a reconciliation dinner for black and white citizens at the close of the Civil War in Charleston Altogether The Culinarians is a delightful compendium of charcuterie makers pastry pipers caterers railroad chefs and cooking school matrons not to mention drunks temperance converts and gangsters who all had a hand in creating the first age of American fine dining and its legacy of conviviality and innovation that continues today

Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey, 2025-05 Georgia s Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state s oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J Frey This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology agriculture transportation communication and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens Most of the recipes are previously unpublished waiting in archives to be rediscovered Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful For the first time Georgians have a list of the state s early cookbooks and its cooking experts Readers will learn where to find Georgia s oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites literally and figuratively for a taste of Georgia s past
