Christianity in Bakhtin Ruth Coates, 1999-02-13 The work of the great Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin has been examined from a wide variety of literary and theoretical perspectives None of the many studies of Bakhtin begins to do justice however to the Christian dimension of his work Christianity in Bakhtin for the first time fills this important gap Having established the strong presence of a Christian framework in his early philosophical essays Ruth Coates explores the way in which Christian motifs though suppressed continue to find expression in the work of Bakhtin's period of exile and re emerge in texts written during the time of his rehabilitation Particular attention is paid to the themes of Creation Fall Incarnation and Christian love operating within metaphors of silence and exile

Arnett, 2008 This volume occasions a dialogue between major authors in the field who engage in a conversation on cosmopolitanism and provinciality from a communication ethics perspective There is no consensus on what constitutes communication ethics cosmopolitanism or provinciality the task is more modest and diverse and began with contributors being asked what the bias of their work suggests or offers for understanding the theme Communication Ethics Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality Rather than responding authoritatively each essay acknowledges the contributor's own work This book offers no answers but invites a conversation that is more akin to a beginning a joining an admission that there is more than me us or my kind of people theory or wisdom The book will be an excellent resource for instructors and for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in communication Bakhtin: Carnival and Other Subjects David Shepherd, 2021-11-01 A Pedagogy of Possibility Kay Halasek, 1999 The author reconceives composition studies from a Bakhtinian perspective focusing on both the discipline's theoretical assumptions and its pedagogies Halasek explores the implications of Bakhtin's work and provides a model of scholarship balanced between practice and theory Prophetic Polyphony Peter A. Theoretical Texts Peter Ekegren, 2002-01-04 Since the structuralist debates of the 1970s the field of textual analysis has largely remained the preserve of literary theorists. Social scientists while accepting that observation is theory laden have tended to take the meaning of texts as given and to explain differences of interpretation either in terms of ignorance or bias. In this important contribution to methodological debate Peter Ekegren uses developments within literary criticism, philosophy and critical theory to reclaim this study for the social sciences and to illuminate the ways in which different readings of a single text are created and defended.

Towards a New Material Aesthetics Alastair Renfrew, 2006 Set in the context of the various materialist approaches to literary aesthetics that emerged in the twentieth century Renfrew's study presents a new synthesis of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 and his circle. Russian Formalism and elements of the official ideology of the early Soviet period. The book's central aim in offering such a synthesis is to negotiate the poles of postmodernist subjectivism and traditional materialism around which much current literary and critical theory has stagnated and as the title suggests to point the way towards a newly conceived material basis for textual and literary analysis.

Handbook of Phenomenology and Medicine S. Kay Toombs, 2012-12-06 As the fields of philosophy of medicine and bioethics have developed in the United States the philosophical perspective of phenomenology has been largely ignored. Yet the central conviction that informs this volume is that phenomenology provides extraordinary insights into many of the issues that are directly addressed within the world of medicine. Such issues include the nature of medicine itself, the distinction between immediate experience and scientific conceptualization, the nature of the body and the implications of embodiment in the realm of clinical practice, the meaning of health, illness and disease, the problem of intersubjectivity particularly with respect to achieving successful communication with another, the complexity of decision making in the clinical context and in the realm of medical ethics, the possibility of empathic understanding, the theory and method of clinical practice and the essential characteristics of the therapeutic relationship, i.e. the relationship between the sick person and the one who professes to help. Some of the authors who have contributed to this volume are philosophers, some are engaged in other academic disciplines and several are practicing healthcare professionals.

The Last Soviet Avant-Garde Graham Roberts, 1997-06-05 A comprehensive study of the OBERIU group of avant-garde Soviet writers.

Late Soviet Culture Thomas Lahusen, Gene Kuperman, 1993 As the Soviet Union dissolved so did the visions of past and future that informed Soviet culture. With Dystopia left behind and Utopia forsaken where do the writers, artists and critics who once inhabited them stand? In an advancing present answers editor Thomas Lahusen. Just what that present might be in literature and film, criticism and theory, philosophy and psychoanalysis and in the politics that somehow speaks to all of these is the subject of this collection of essays. Leading scholars from the former Soviet Union and the West gather here to consider the fate of the people and institutions that constituted Soviet culture. Whether the speculative glance goes back to czarist Russia or Soviet Freudianism to the history of aesthetics or the sociology of cinema in the 1930s or forward to the market, Stalinism, one writer predicts or the open text of history another advocates a sense of immediacy or history in the making animates this volume Will social and cultural institutions now develop organically the authors ask or is the society faced with the prospect of even more radical reforms Does the present rupture mark the real moment of Russia's encounter with modernity The options explored by literary historians film scholars novelists and political scientists make this book a heady tour of cultural possibilities An expanded version of a special issue of South Atlantic Quarterly Spring 1991 with seven new essays Late Soviet Culture will stimulate scholar and general reader alike Contributors Katerina Clark Paul Debreczeny Evgeny Dobrenko Mikhail Epstein Renata Galtseva Helena Goscilo Michael Holquist Boris Kagarlitsky Mikhail Kuraev Thomas Lahusen Valery Leibin Sidney Monas Valery Podoroga Donald Raleigh Irina Rodnyanskaya Maya Turovskaya The Ethics of Nonfiction George H. Jensen, 2023-10-23 This book explores issues of identity ethics and epistemology that arise around the writing and reception of creative nonfiction It examines a range of different nonfiction forms including the personal essay and memoir and ethical questions that arise in relation to them such as truth claims the confessional mode counter narratives Drawing on the ideas of Bakhtin Nietzsche and Foucault examples from creative nonfiction writers such as Strayed and Knausgaard and the founding principles of the originators of the genre Seneca Augustine and Montaigne George Jensen argues that a limited conception of nonfiction leads to a limited view of its ethics Writing about the truth in an authentic way is more important than ever before and essential to this is the creation of the ethical subject Shakespeare, St Paul, and Dramatic Emancipation Randall Martin, 2025-09-04 Shakespeare St Paul and Dramatic Emancipation Disability Gender Race Ecology breaks new ground by revealing the playwright's dramatic reinvention of early modern Pauline texts and paratexts in a wide range of plays Their common thread is Pauline allusive characters who resist political social and or physical subjection and aspire with mixed degrees of failure and success to emancipated lives of fulfilled being and belonging Historically contextualized case studies of Henry VI Part Three and Richard III Twelfth Night The Comedy of Errors Pericles The Winter's Tale The Tempest and King John explore desires for freedom on authorial and theatrical as well as thematic levels They seek out new critical directions by bringing post typological and postsecular Pauline Shakespeare into conversation with contemporary theories of disability gender race and ecocriticism A further original feature of the book is intertextual attention to parallel critical approaches to St Paul by several early modern women writers Shakespeare St Paul and Dramatic Emancipation rediscovers a polyvocal complex and emancipatory Paul as a significant career long resource for the playwright's innovative characterization and dramaturgy Shapes of Openness Matthew Leone, 2010-01-08 Bakhtin and Lawrence share remarkable affinities Bakhtinian dialogism is effectively a philosophy of potentiality and Lawrence or at least the Lawrence who authored Women in Love may well be its High Priest Both thinkers address questions of unity newness and the creative process In this study they enter into complementary genuinely Bakhtinian dialogue one in which The word in language is half someone else's One surprising result of this comparative examination is that some prevalent deeply
