Disaster Mental Health: Around the World and Across Time, An Issue of Psychiatric Clinics Craig L. Katz, Anand

Pandya,2013-09-25 Disasters Looking beyond their acute impact to how they affect communities in the years that follow is the focus of discussion in this issue of Psychiatric Clinics Reviews of cases of well known disasters such as 9 11 the 2004 South Asian tsunami Hurricane Katrina the Haiti earthquake of 2010 the 3 11 11 triple disaster in Northern Japan and others are presented from the perspective of local experts who have been asked to take a long view of what they learned and may still be learning from their post disaster experiences that mental health professionals faced with future disasters should know World renown experts in disaster psychiatry and global psychiatry Craig Katz and Anand Pandya lead this publication

Voyage Through Time: Walks Of Life To The Nobel Prize Ahmed H Zewail,2003-04-15 From a beginning in an Egyptian delta town and the port of Alexandria to the scenic vistas of sunny southern California Ahmed Zewail takes us on a voyage through time his own life and the split second world of the femtosecond In this endearing expos of his life and work until his receipt of the Nobel Prize in 1999 he draws lessons from his life story so far and he meditates on the impact which the revolution in science has had on our modern world in both developed and developing countries What makes the book enchanting and engaging is Zewail s emphasis on the human dimension and his unique ability to paint the journey of Life and Science with insightful analogies and ingenious metaphors But this inspiring book goes far beyond the usual province of an autobiography Zewail integrates the two worlds he equally belongs to Egypt and America and despite differences he emphasizes the confluence of the two cultures the East and the West He rejects the view that the current state of the world is due to a clash of civilizations or a conflict of religions and suggests a concrete course of action for the world of the have nots The book ends with his road map for a partnership between developed and developing worlds Throughout the book Zewail takes on the mantle of philosopher historian and even political and economic adviser

Voyage Through Time Ahmed H. Zewail,2002 From a beginning in an Egyptian delta town and the port of Alexandria to the scenic vistas of sunny southern California Ahmed Zewail takes us on a voyage through time his own life and the split second world of the femtosecond In this endearing expos of his life and work until his receipt of the Nobel Prize in 1999 he draws lessons from his life story so far and he meditates on the impact which the revolution in science has had on our modern world in both developed and developing countries

Exploring Frontiers of the Mind-Brain Relationship Alexander Moreira-Almeida, Franklin Santana Santos,2011-11-25 The conscious mind defines human existence Many consider the brain as a computer and they attempt to explain consciousness as emerging at a critical but unspecified threshold level of complex computation among neurons The brain as computer model however fails to account for phenomenal experience and portrays consciousness as an impotent after the fact epiphenomenon lacking causal power And the brain as computer concept precludes even the remotest possibility of spirituality As described throughout the history of humankind seemingly spiritual mental phenomena including transcendent states near death and out of body experiences and past life memories have in recent years been well documented and treated scientifically In addition the brain as computer approach has been challenged by advocates of quantum brain biology who are possibly able to explain scientifically nonlocal seemingly spiritual mental states Exploring Frontiers of the Mind Brain Relationship argues against the purely physical analysis of consciousness and for a balanced psychobiological approach This thought provoking volume bridges philosophy of mind with science of mind to look empirically at transcendent phenomena such as mystic states near death experiences and past life memories that have confounded scientists for decades Representing disciplines ranging from philosophy and history to neuroimaging and physics and boasting a panel of expert scientists and physicians including Andrew Newberg Peter Fenwick Stuart Hameroff Mario Beauregard Deepak Chopra and Chris Clarke the book rigorously follows several lines of inquiry into mind brain controversies challenging readers to form their own conclusions or reconsider previous ones Key coverage includes Objections to reductionistic materialism from the philosophical and the scientific tradition Phenomena and the mind brain problem The neurobiological correlates of meditation and mindfulness The quantum soul a view from physics Clinical implications of end of life experiences Mediumistic experience and the mind brain relationship Exploring Frontiers of the Mind Brain Relationship is essential reading for researchers and clinicians across many disciplines including cognitive psychology personality and social psychology the neurosciences neuropsychiatry palliative care philosophy and quantum physics This book brings together some precious observations about the fundamental mystery of the nature of consciousness It raises many questions that serve to invite each of us to be more aware of the uncertainty of our preconceptions about consciousness This book on the frontiers of mind body relationships is a scholarly embodiment of creative and open minded science C Robert Cloninger MD Wallace Renard Professor of Psychiatry Genetics and Psychology Washington University School of Medicine St Louis MO Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001 Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton,2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God s people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God s people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God s gospel then and now while calling God s people to perform their own roles in today s moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God s drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week The Theory and Practice of Institutional Transplantation M. de Jong,K. Lalenis,V.D. Mamadouh,2012-12-06 Inevitably at a panel discussion not too long ago comparing planning cultures the discussion turned on the issue of globalisation As a member of the panel this author asked those in the audience who lived and or worked in a country different from their country of origin to raise their hands About half of the audience of well over one hundred academic teachers and researchers from all comers of the world the present author included did so Next he asked who had a spouse or partner from a country different from their country of origin to also raise their hands About half of the audience the present author included raised their hands This is the soft side of globalisation The soft side of globalisation is important Exchanges personal mobility international romances multi culturalism and multi lingualism inevitably meaning non native speakers struggling to keep up with native English speakers are part of the academic scene so much so that we can hardly imagine it to be otherwise These are not entirely new phenomena but they have become ever more prominent relying on an ever more elaborate institutional infrastructure of exchange programmes international journals associations and the global conference industry It was at the AESOP Association of European Schools of Planning congress at Bmo in the Czech Republic in July 2000 that the plan for this book was hatched Handbook of the Arts in Qualitative Research ,2022 Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1994 Lists citations with abstracts for aerospace related reports obtained from world wide sources and announces documents that have recently been entered into the NASA Scientific and Technical Information Database Research in Library and Information Science Gale Fox,2018-01-21 Librarianship is one of the world s oldest and most successful professions It has survived war plague economic depression and varying social values and conditions The profession has shown an extraordinary ability to adapt to changing social and economic conditions and to adapt changing technologies to serve a variety of people with diverse interests and need A compendium of selected research studies conducted in various Library Schools The subjects such as professional development reading habits of women space planning in libraries industrial information system I T applications in decentralised planning and bibliometrics scientometrics and webometrics studies focussed on various communication media are investigated A reference book for students teachers and researchers engaged in library and information science research Toxic Humans Michael Jenkins,2024-01-18 International leadership expert Michael Jenkins shines a light on the adverse effects of dysfunctional and toxic boards and how they have the potential to destroy an organisation s culture The reader is given a set of recommendations for action to help mitigate and manage the effects Micronutrients and HIV Infection Henrik Friis,2001-09-14 Exploring the role of micronutrients in HIV this book provides a comprehensive a review of recently published human studies and intervention trials and other important epidemiology based literature It covers the history biochemistry biological functions and food sources of individual micronutrients and reviews their roles in host defense and resistance to infections in general and HIV in particular The editorial panel presents a critical analysis of how existing micronutrient interventions can be promoted expanded and modified to reduce the impact of the HIV pandemic They discuss how this information can be applied in countries where HIV is widespread and treatment unavailable Social Psychology in a Globalizing Era Girishwar Misra,Purnima Singh,2025-03-18 This volume locates social psychology in the context of contemporary societies in an increasingly globalizing world where time space and relationships are reshaped by powerful information communication and travel technologies The volume revisits the efforts thus far while commenting upon the treatment of pertinent issues in the emerging sociopolitical and academic climate of the globalized area It discusses how globalization has led to multidimensional changes in the society warranting newer ways of comprehending conceptualizing and navigating through the complexities of the emerging social world While mapping the new changes shaping contemporary discourse the book refers to the new emerging patterns of human relationships which are acquiring different shapes and meanings leading not just to restructuring but also to creating innovative ways of being and making sense of the world The volume would be useful to students and teachers of psychology applied psychology sociology social work public health gender and women studies It would also be an invaluable companion to pediatrics forensic medicine psychiatry and law enforcement authorities like police and judiciary

An Almanac of Contemporary and Comparative Judicial Restatements (ACCJR Supp. i Private Law) Oshisanya, 'lai Oshitokunbo, 2020-01-02 Private law The Rights of Refugees under International Law James C. Hathaway, 2005-09-15 This book presents the first comprehensive analysis of the human rights of refugees as set by the UN Refugee Convention In an era where States are increasingly challenging the logic of simply assimilating refugees to their own citizens questions are now being raised about whether refugees should be allowed to enjoy freedom of movement to work to access public welfare programs or to be reunited with family members Doubts have been expressed about the propriety of exempting refugees from visa and other immigration rules and whether there is a duty to admit refugees at all Hathaway links the standards of the UN Refugee Convention to key norms of international human rights law and applies his analysis to the world s most difficult protection challenges This is a critical resource for advocates judges and policymakers It will also be a pioneering scholarly work for graduate students of international and human rights law

Web Systems Design and Online Consumer Behavior Gao, Yuan, 2004-11-30 Web Systems Design and Online Consumer Behavior takes an interdisciplinary approach toward systems design in the online environment by providing an understanding of how consumers behave while shopping online and how certain system design elements may impact consumers perceptions attitude intentions and actual behavior This book contains theoretical and empirical research from expert scholars in a number of areas including communications psychology marketing and advertising and information systems This book provides an integrated look at the subject area as described above to further our understanding of the linkage among various disciplines inherently connected with one another in electronic commerce

Prehistoric Rock Art Paul G. Bahn, 2010-06-21 Prehistoric rock art is the markings paintings engravings or pecked images left on rocks or cave walls by ancient peoples In this book Paul G Bahn provides a richly illustrated overview of prehistoric rock art and cave art from around the world Summarizing the recent advances in our understanding of this extraordinary visual record he discusses new discoveries new approaches to recording and interpretation and current problems in conservation Bahn focuses in particular on current issues in the interpretation of rock art notably the shamanic interpretation that has been influential in recent years and that he refutes This book is based on the Rhind Lectures that the author delivered for the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland in 2006
