Therapeutic Nursing Dawn Freshwater,2002-09-10 I found the book to be fascinating and so thought provoking that it made me consider more carefully the text and prose to really understand what the author said It is skilfully written very readable and has implications for a wide range of people such as the undergraduate practitioner lecturer and researcher Accident and Emergency Nursing Gaining self awareness is a vital aspect of professional development for all who work in the caring professions In nursing especially the ability to evaluate oneself affects all areas of practice including direct patient care working relationships with colleagues and maintaining one's own well being in the often pressured environment of health care This is an innovative text which explores the ways in which self awareness can be used as a practical tool for continuing professional development and practice improvement Divided into three parts the book examines the role of the nurse as therapeutic practitioner reflective learner and reflexive researcher For all those wishing to develop their skills as autonomous reflective accountable practitioners this book will be an inspiring read It will be of immense use to those who teach and supervise nurses at all levels

Care Aesthetics James Thompson, 2022-07-19 What if the work of a nurse physio or homecare worker was designated an art so that the qualities of the experiences they create became understood as aesthetic qualities What if the interactions created by artists directors dancers or workshop facilitators were understood as works of care Care Aesthetics is the first full length book to explore these questions and examine the work of carer artists and artist carers to make the case for the importance of valuing and supporting aesthetically caring relations across multiple aspects of our lives Theoretically and practically the book outlines the implications of care aesthetics for the socially engaged arts field and health and social care and for acts of aesthetic care in the everyday Part 1 of the book outlines the approaches to aesthetics and to care theory that are necessary to make and defend the concept of care aesthetics Part 2 then tests this through practice examining socially engaged arts and health and social care through its lens It makes the case for careful art exploring the implications of care aesthetics for participatory or applied arts Then it argues for artful care and how an aesthetic orientation to care practices might challenge some of the inadequacies of contemporary care This is a vital paradigm shifting book for anyone engaged with socially engaged arts or social and health care practices on an academic or professional level
