Khushboo Kar,2017-11-20 I thought he had spared me and let me go I assumed he had left I shut my eyes as I let myself sink into my chair But then I felt a gush of chilled shock on me He splashed a glass of icy chilled water on my face and slapped me until I opened my eyes Giving me a minute of rest he then tore open a packet of my drug powdered sugar on my face This is what you need to stay awake huh he said as he forcefully opened my mouth and sprinkled it in I didn t want to consume it Passing out craving for it was better than giving in for it and staying up to bear torture The powder went into my nose and entered my mouth I choked The sugar gave a kick to my body but made me feel even dizzier My body didn t understand what was happening with it My brain froze and I was lost He stepped back and pulled out another small cylindrical container It looked like my sugar He put his fingers inside and pulled out a pinch of that powder I wondered what he was up to next He started sprinkling it on the slits on my arm on my wounds It burnt like I was on fire It was salt I cried out for help but there was no one who could help me I moved vigorously but it was all in vain The more I moved the more he seasoned my scars with salt Darkness at Dawn Darrell Beebe,2008-04 The Dog Who Ate the Truffle Suzanne Carreiro,2025-09-23
