Husak,2010 This volume

collects 17 of Douglas Husak's influential essays in criminal law theory. The essays span Husak's original and provocative contributions to the major topics in the field including the grounds of criminal liability, the significance of culpability, the role of defences and the justification of punishment. The volume includes an extended introduction by the author drawing together the themes of his work and exploring the goals of criminal theory. Together the essays present a desert-based analysis of issues in criminal theory that rejects the consequentialist approach more familiar among legal scholars. The foremost concern of these essays is to ensure that the principles and doctrines of the criminal law preserve justice and do not sacrifice individuals for the common welfare. Engagingly written, the essays are accessible to non-specialists and represent an excellent introduction to current issues and debates in the theory of criminal law. Truck Safety United States.

Government Accountability Office, 2006 Dishonest Behavior: From Theory to Practice Guy Hochman, Shahar Ayal, Dan Ariely, 2016-11-17 The rapidly growing field of behavioral ethics shows that dishonest acts are highly prevalent in all walks of life from corruption among politicians through flagrant cases of doping in sports to everyday slips and misdemeanors of ordinary people who nevertheless perceive themselves as highly moral. When considered cumulatively, these seemingly innocuous and ordinary unethical behaviors cause considerable societal damage and add up to billions of dollars annually. Research in behavioral ethics has made tremendous advances in characterizing many contextual and social factors that promote or hinder dishonesty. These findings have prompted the development of interventions to curb dishonesty and to help individuals become more committed to ethical standards. The current e-book includes studies that test and advance current theory and deepen our understanding of the cognitive and physiological processes underlying dishonest behavior, discuss possible implications of findings in behavioral ethics research for real-life situations, document dishonest behavior in the field, and/or directly examines interventions to reduce it. Paying the Tab Philip J. Cook, 2016-05-31 What drug provides Americans with the greatest pleasure and the greatest pain? The answer hands down is alcohol. The pain comes not only from drunk driving and lost lives but also addiction, family strife, crime, violence, poor health, and squandered human potential. Young and old drinkers and abstainers alike all are affected. Every American is paying for alcohol abuse. Paying the Tab, the first comprehensive analysis of this complex policy issue, calls for broadening our approach to curbing destructive drinking. Over the last few decades, efforts to reduce the societal costs, curbing youth drinking, and cracking down on drunk driving have been somewhat effective but woefully incomplete. In fact, American policymakers have ignored the influence of the supply side of the equation. Beer and liquor are far cheaper and more readily available today than in the 1950s and 1960s. Philip Cook's well-researched and engaging account chronicles the history of our attempts to legislate morality, the overlooked lessons from Prohibition, and the rise of Alcoholics Anonymous. He provides a thorough account of the scientific evidence that has accumulated over the last twenty-five years of economic and public health research, which demonstrates that higher alcohol excise taxes and other supply restrictions are effective and underutilized policy tools that can cut abuse.

while preserving the pleasures of moderate consumption Paying the Tab makes a powerful case for a policy course correction Alcohol is too cheap and it s costing all of us Can Gun Control Work? James B. Jacobs,2004 Few schisms in American life run as deep or as wide as the divide between gun rights and gun control advocates where the debate is largely defined by forceful rhetoric rather than substantive analysis This text explores the gun control options of the most heavily armed democracy in the world Experimental Evaluation of Sobriety Checkpoint Programs J. W. Stuster,1995 American Journal of Criminal Law ,1989 A Criminologist's Life Cheryl Lero Jonson,Travis C.
