Drydens Dualities:

Dryden's Dualities Ruth Salvaggio, 1983 This study of Dryden's dualities suggests that the double structures we find in his work go deeper than the superficial dialectic of his language The liveliest parts of Dryden's works are those where divisions become most extreme where he can exploit their poetic possibilities Dryden's Final Poetic Mode Cedric D. Reverand II, 2016-11-11 Two months before he died Dryden published a collection of verse translations and original poetry Fables Ancient and Modern the work for which he was most admired throughout the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Cedric Reverand argues that Fables which has for the most part escaped modern scrutiny embodies a purposeful subversive strategy and constitutes a new poetic mode that emerged when the laureate public spokesman for king and country lost his official post and became an outcast a minority voice In Dryden's Final Poetic Mode Reverand focuses on Dryden's characteristic concerns love and war power and kingship the heroic code the Christian ideal tracing how Dryden assembles informing ideals and yet dissolves them as well By examining Dryden's treatment of familiar issues Reverand demonstrates that this final poetic mode is not discontinuous with the earlier poetry but is a further development a reevaluation of the principles that sustained the poet throughout his career Fables expresses Dryden's personal experience dealing with a changed and changing world With the values he cherished crumbling he is trapped into trying to reconcile the irreconcilable His book reveals the fragility of various systems of value and the futility of discovering abiding ideals in a universe of perpetual flux but it also reveals a poet who actively pursues meaning rather than surrendering to despair It is this attempt to accommodate to a changing subversive world that Reverand asserts is the impulse behind Fables and the central issue of Dryden's life in the 1690s Dryden's Final Poetic Mode will interest students and scholars of seventeenth and eighteenth century British literature

Forming the Critical Mind James Engell, 1989 James Engell has prepared the first broad treatment of eighteenth and early nineteenth century British criticism to appear in a generation presenting the views of scores of writers on a variety of questions many of which remain live issues today While offering major reevaluations of Dryden Hume and Johnson Engell demonstrates that eighteenth century criticism cannot be represented by just a few major critics or by generalizations about Augustan taste neoclassical rules or common sense He presents a complex and highly varied body of theoretical writing and practical application by dozens of critics including Rymer Addison Welsted Ramsay Hurd Gerard Newbery Campbell Blair Beattie Jeffrey and Hazlitt He also analyzes the continued relevance of their critical work drawing connections with modern writers such as Eliot Frye Saussure Barthes Culler Bakhtin and Lévi Strauss Engell concludes with a stimulating essay on the nature and function of the critical process itself For students and scholars conversant with modern critical theory Forming the Critical Mind will offer some surprising and interesting comparisons

Dualities Habib Ajrout, 2000 Otherworldly John Dryden Jack M. Armistead, 2016-05-13 Reminding readers of John Dryden's persistent use of occult rhetoric Jack M. Armistead argues that Dryden's otherworldliness involves more than

Christian apologetics biblical typology or intermittent borrowings from the supernatural materials in classical literature Rather it manifests throughout his career in occult materials drawn from many traditions including but going well beyond the standard classical and Christian ones As Armistead shows Dryden s practice of juxtaposing pre and post scientific treatments of such occult topics as alchemy astrology and demonology pervades many of his poems and plays In its engagement with works such as The Indian Queen Annus Mirabilis All for Love and Absalom and Achitophel among many others Otherworldly John Dryden not only enhances our understanding of Dryden s works but also tracks the writer s attitudes about Providence and the ability of the poet to perceive a hidden design in earthly events The Just and the Lively Michael Werth Gelber,2002 Recognition is often considered a means to de escalate conflicts and promote peaceful social interactions This volume explores the forms that social recognition and its withholding may take in asymmetric armed conflicts examining the risks and opportunities that arise when local state and transnational actors recognise misrecognise or deny recognition of armed non state actors By studying key asymmetric conflicts through the prism of recognition it offers an innovative perspective on the interactions between armed non state actors and state actors In what contexts does granting recognition to armed non state actors foster conflict transformation What happens when governments withhold recognition or label armed non state actors in ways they perceive as misrecognition The authors examine the ambivalence of recognition processes in violent conflicts and their sometimes unintended consequences The volume shows that while non recognition prevents conflict transformation the recognition of armed non state actors may produce counterproductive precedents and new modes of exclusion in intra state and transnational politics The Poetics of Conversion in Early Modern English Literature Molly Murray,2009-10-15 This book considers the poetry written by converts between Catholic and Protestant churches within post Reformation England Pietas from Vergil to Dryden James D. Garrison,2010-11-01 Criteria Of Certainty Kevin L. Cope,2021-10-21 British writers of the Restoration and eighteenth century initiated a critique of human knowledge unrivaled in both its scope and its enthusiasm Author Kevin L Cope now attempts to provide a coherent evocative account of explanatory rhetoric in early modern Britain Critics and historians Cope argues have done an admirable job of describing the details of the intellectual movements of this period but they have failed to examine the intellectual social and psychological implications of explanation itself Criteria of Certainty makes up for this shortcoming by treating explanation as a composite literary and philosophical mode as a kind of master genre governing the development of a variety of genres from pithy maxims and lyric poems to lengthy treatises and epics of explanation Cope s probing and inventive analyses of seven writers Rochester Halifax Dryden Locke Swift Pope and Smith shed new light on many major issues in both eighteenth century studies and critical theory Discussing the gradual enlargement of the claims of explanatory discourse Cope explores the problematic psychological relation between philosophizing authors and their expansionist systematizing discourse By applying the methods of recent literary criticism to philosophical texts Cope reexamines the possibility of a philosophical

reading of literary texts opens the possibility of characterizing an age and sets a variety of genres on a common intellectual foundation Drawing on both canonical and overlooked authors he also shows how the writers of the Restoration and eighteenth century may help us to understand the immensity vitality and irresistibility of explanatory rhetoric in our own age

The Sounds of Feminist Theory Ruth Salvaggio,1999-01-01 A range of contemporary feminist critical writers are discussed Gloria Anzaldua Judith Butler Helene Cixous Rachel Blau DuPlessis Jane Flax Susan Griffin Donna Haraway Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Elaine Pagels Adrienne Rich Eve Sedgwick Joan Scott Jane Tompkins Trinh Minh ha and Patricia Williams Their investment in the oral modulations of words marks not only a provocative engagement with the incommensurability of contemporary theory but also a turn to the ambiguous and tangled qualities of language poetic literacy that generate an evocative epistemology BOOK JACKET Demarcating the Disciplines Samuel Weber,1986 Demarcating the Disciplines was first published in 1986 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions With publication of this volume Glyph begins a new stage in its existence the move from Johns Hopkins University Press to the University of Minnesota Press is accompanied by a change in focus In its first incarnation Glyph provided a forum in which established notions of reading writing and criticism could be questioned and explored Since then the greater currency of such concerns has brought with it new problems and priorities Setting aside the battles of the past the new Glyph looks ahead to confront historical issues and to address the institutional and pedagogical questions emerging from the contemporary critical landscape Each volume in the new Glyph series is organized around a specific issue The essays in this first volume explore the relations between the practice of reading and writing and the operations of the institution Though their approaches differ from one another the authors of these essays all recognize that the questions of the institution most notably the university points toward a series of constraints that define albeit negatively the possibilities for change The contributors Samuel Weber Jacques Derrida Tom Conley Malcolm Evans Ruth Salvaggio Robert Young Henry Sussman Peter Middleton David Punter and Donald Preziosi Classical Literary Careers and their Reception Philip Hardie,Helen Moore,2010-10-14 This is a wide ranging collection of essays on ancient Roman literary careers and their reception in later European literature with contributions by leading experts Starting from the three major Roman models for constructing a literary career Virgil the rota Vergiliana Horace and Ovid the volume then looks at alternative and counter models in antiquity Propertius Juvenal Cicero and Pliny A range of post antique responses to the ancient patterns is examined from Dante to Wordsworth and including Petrarch Shakespeare Milton Marvell Dryden and Goethe These chapters pose the question of the continuing relevance of ancient career models as ideas of authorship change over the centuries leading to varying engagements and disengagements with classical literary careers The volume also considers other ways of concluding or extending a literary career such as bookburning and figurative metempsychosis Rereading Aphra Behn Heidi

Hutner,1993 Aphra Behn was the first Englishwoman to earn her living from writing This collection of critical essays explores the different genres in Behn s canon including her plays criticism fiction and poetry from a wide variety of feminist theoretical approaches The Secularization of Prophecy Thomas Tracy Faville,1992 Enlightened Absence Ruth Salvaggio,1988 Enchanted Ground William Andrews Clark Memorial Library Staff,William Andrews Clark Memorial Library,University of California, Los Angeles. Woodring,James Shapiro,2007-09-07 The Columbia Anthology of British Poetry brings together the most remarkable verse written in the British Isles over the course of the past twelve centuries offering the greatest diversity of poetic voices in any anthology of its kind From Shakespeare s memorable sonnets to Keats s haunting odes to T S Eliot s meditations on the conditions of modern life the collection contains many of the best loved treasures of British poetry Longer and much celebrated poems that rarely find their way into anthologies including Pope s Rape of the Lock and Coleridge s Rime of the Ancient Mariner claim a place in this collection Queen Elizabeth I Anne Killigrew Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Felicia Hemans are among dozens of women writers renowned in their own day and now restored to their rightful prominence Scottish Welsh and Irish poets often excluded from anthologies of British poetry are here as well including such extraordinary voices as Lady Grisell Baillie Robert Burns Hugh MacDiarmid and Seamus Heaney The finest contemporary poets are fully represented also from Thom Gunn to Eavan Boland The result is an amazingly rich and wide ranging conversation among British poets that transcends the boundaries of time and place Carl Woodring and James Shapiro the team scholars who edited The Columbia History of British Poetry have written incisive introductions to the careers of the poets making this the most accessible and comprehensive anthology of British verse in print Covering the new and the ancient the classic and the rediscovered this generous volume reimagines the horizons of British poetry *Canadian Books in Print.
