On the Edge of a Dream: A South Texas Story Mary Mijares, 2005-04-29 font face Verdana font size 2 On the Edge of a Dream is a story about my grandparents journey by train from Sabinas Hidalgo Nuevo Leon Mexico to Nuevo Laredo Tamaulipas Mexico Laredo Texas and on to South Texas to claim a home in America They courageously faced the unknown seeking to make a better life for their families here in the United States believing they had greater opportunities to realize their dreams Dad was seven years old at that time As he grew older he faced greater challenges in achieving these opportunities It was my dad's dream of writing a book about his family's struggles to make their American dream a reality that inspired me to write this book After arriving in South Texas my grandparents first had to find work in order to make a living for their families They weren't afraid of work They were unskilled workers so they found work in farms or ranches working with cattle horses or plowing in the fields When cotton harvesting season came they weren't afraid of picking cotton though it was hard backbreaking work to say nothing of carrying large cotton sacks on their shoulders My paternal grandfather died on January 1 1921 when my dad the oldest child was almost thirteen years old leaving Grandma a widow with five children Grandma faced this challenge by working as a housekeeper for the farm owners Dad found what hard work was at the early age of thirteen years When he was not working in the fields in the hot and humid Texas climate he worked in the dairy farms When I was two years old my maternal grandparents returned to Mexico when they found that Mexico had land grants for those wishing to return home Quite possibly they decided they wanted to own their piece of land to farm it in order to make more money My mom s two oldest brothers stayed in America and raised their families in South Texas Hard work was not the only thing my parents faced They also had to learn a new language if they wanted to understand their employers Learning the English language was hard Surrounded by Spanish speaking family member it was easier to speak Spanish to them instead of speaking English Eventually Dad learned enough English to make himself understood Another challenge my grandparents faced was a lack of education which would have made life easier and maybe more profitable They only had the minimal education they could get in Mexico but they taught their children to read and write in Spanish Though my parents were very young when they journeyed to America they lived in farms far from schools Since they had no transportation to get to school they could not attend even if they wanted to do so They saw the importance of an education early in their lives because they were unable to get that education themselves In 1930 my parents met and married Two years later I was born in Gregory Texas while my brother was born two years after me and my younger sister seven years after my brother My parents never lost sight of what an education could do By the time we were old enough to begin school they did everything possible to get us there Also by then transportation was available Busses took us to and from school Mom and Dad made sure we had what we needed to be successful students Getting our college degrees after we graduated was an almost impossible dream Dad did not make much so when I graduated I could only afford to go to business school It was much later when I earned my Bachelor of Arts and Master s of Arts degrees My younger sister and my brother both received Bachelor of Science degrees My dad s dream of writing to tell of his family s journey to America inspired me to write this book It took boldness to travel to a new country strength to make a living by performing backbreaking work and

Pineau,2003-01-01 A cyclone inexorably sweeps Eliette into her past in this novel about the wayward violence of love and nature in Guadeloupe In Macadam Dreams the celebrated Creole writer Gis_ le Pineau cunningly unveils the two cataclysms that have devastated Eliette s life first the cyclone of 1928 when she was only eight years old and now Hurricane Hugo whose destruction shatters the elaborate defenses the old woman has built around the sorrows and madness of her life in the small accursed town of Savane Mulet As Hugo unleashes its fury a final blow frees Eliette s repressed memories of madness isolation and loss and of the grievous failure of a prophecy that promised her a child A story of self discovery Macadam Dreams speaks eloquently of the violence and poverty endured by women of this island nation violence every bit as devastating and seemingly inescapable as the perpetually returning cyclone Viewed by many as a canonical author in the Creole movement in Francophone literature Pineau has created an extraordinary work that is recognized as a masterpiece of French Caribbean literature economic status Consider this as a report from my own listening post It contains actual interviews with people and excerpts from newspapers magazines books and the Internet My intention was to depict my own personal life and my family s and write about my own story based upon personal experiences but also to describe certain mores attitudes customs and cultures of various people in Philippine and American society as I see or interpret them trying not to offend or annoy My observations may not jibe with some people s cultural make up political conviction religious beliefs personal experience sensitivity and interpretation of certain issues and things but such is life I know that no matter where I stand and wherever I go it s always my opinion against any others and I have lots of opinions that can cause obvious negative reactions in the simplest of minds The world is full of cuckoos and we even admire some of them depending on who you ask When it comes to some very burning questions the first casualty is truth since there s a big difference between knowing the real story and the story we re told The historical events and lore that I have used as backdrop are based upon factual records and are of common knowledge in the Philippines and in the United States but people inject their own spin opinion hypocrisy dogma self righteousness politics pandering feeling insight and experience into certain circumstances as I did I have tried to be as truthful and transparent as possible in my own light You can scoff at me but I have no political agenda and I m not a conspiracy theorist I am just that I am I m not rewriting history but trying to give history its true light and history is fickle In my defense I quote the philosopher Voltaire I disapprove of what you say but I will defend to the death your right to say it I also have to show my credentials as Filipino so as to be able to tell Filipino jokes and not get in trouble in consideration that this is my swan song I have lived in these United States since 1968 been drafted to the conflict in Vietnam worked long and hard in my profession have family traveled far now retired and have seen so much of the American society that I almost think of myself as a native On this note I beg for tolerance      Figaro ,1893      The Gospel watchman ,1884      The Golden Dream Gerry Faust,Steve Love,2002-10-01 Gerry Faust won more hearts than games He came to Notre Dame as the high school coach from Cincinnati s Moeller High School such a perfect fit for Notre Dame that it seemed almost too good to be true It was Faust admits his mistakes which include the manner in which he put together his first coaching staff changing Notre Dame s offense even feeling sorry for himself      Dream World Belinda Weston Gulley,2011-02-10 I grew large yet I shrunk small I rose up yet I shrunk down low I knew this feeling well I was entering the dream world I stood outside of the cave of a thousand eyes and I began to feel rain pouring down on me I lifted my hand and looked at it and it was then that I realized I was not being covered with rain drops I was being covered with blood and this blood was that of my people that was shed during the battle to keep our homeland The legendary battle of the removal of the Cherokee known as the Trail of Tears Although I stand as one spirit I have lived many lifetimes Past meets present and present meets the past I entered the dream world hoping to find the answer and knowing I had fought many battles with the evil one and it always begins the same way by entering the dream world where my spirit guide Nonauma awaits for the past and the present to merge and become stronger stronger for the battle between good and evil The dream world is universal all beings go there but there are those few who stay longer sometimes hours sometimes days yet have only closed their eyes for a moment Morning Star and Olivia posses this gift and although they are two separate people they have one thing in common they share the same spirit Morning Star is Olivia s past life and Olivia is Morning Stars future life Together they must battle an angry entity simply called the evil one The evil one will do anything to capture and keep the girls gift of sight With this power he can rule many people therefore making it easier to cause chaos and disaster The evil one controls the bees and snakes and he uses them all to try and get an upper hand on the girls He is much like the coyote full of trickery But there is one rule that even he must follow and that is he can not take this gift away from either girl they must give it to him out of their own free will Both girls are born with a marking upon their palm a perfect medicine wheel and this mark holds the key that can destroy the evil one Who is the dream and who is the dreamer Well that is for you the reader to decide Although the girls are from different eras their battle has not changed The dream world is mystical and magical and it is a place with no boundaries At times it is hard for both girls to know whether they are in the good dream world or the world of bad dreams where the evil one lurks waiting for the right time to deceive the girls Their battles are legendary amongst Morning Stars people but in Olivia s world she stands alone isolated within the truth and it is only in the dream world that she finds freedom to use her gift without any worries of being different
