Dreams Of Adventure Deeds Of Empire:

Dreams of Adventure Trisha ALEXANDER,1980 Dreams Adv Deeds Emp Martin Green,1979-06-21 In this brilliant and daring volume second in a three part work on the decline and fall of imperialism in the western mind Martin Green examines the great tradition of adventure tales in English literature those works which as he puts it Englishmen have for two centuries read themselves to sleep with at night From Defoe to Conrad and Kipling he shows that the questing conquest seeking imagination shaped by imperialism betrays buried obsessions with love and redemption especially in relation to the dark skinned people central to all these tales In making visible to us the richness and complexity of the works so long referred to and so often faintly disapproved of as boys books Green not only restores them to their rightful place as important literature but demonstrates how from the very first Westerners experienced a fateful doubleness of mind and heart toward their own imperial dominion Publisher Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer,2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women s writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance Frontiers in the Gilded Age Andrew Offenburger,2019-06-25 The surprising connections between the American frontier and empire in southern Africa and the people who participated in both This book begins in an era when romantic notions of American frontiers overlapped with Gilded Age extractive capitalism In the late nineteenth century the U S Mexican borderlands constituted one stop of many where Americans chased capitalist dreams beyond the United States Crisscrossing the American West southern Africa and northern Mexico Andrew Offenburger examines how these frontier spaces could glitter with grandiose visions expose the flawed and immoral strategies of profiteers and yet reveal the capacity for resistance and resilience that indigenous people summoned when threatened Linking together a series of stories about Boer exiles who settled in Mexico a global network of protestant missionaries and adventurers involved in the parallel displacements of indigenous peoples in Rhodesia and the Yaqui Indians in Mexico Offenburger situates the borderlands of the Mexican North and the American Southwest within a global system bound by common actors who interpreted their lives through a shared frontier ideology International Encyclopedia of Men and Masculinities , An Energy Field More Intense Than War Michael True,1995-11-01 American history abounds with a rich tradition of literature dealing with nonviolence In a work that spans from the seventeenth century to the present Michael True brings to light the strong but long neglected strain in American culture nonviolence as an active response to conflicts and divisiveness In identifying writings about action for social change he distinguishes literary works from peace advocacy and nonviolence and relates them to broad currents of United States history The Quakers of the 1680s and abolitionists of the 1850s the sanctuary Movement and Plowshares of the 1980s novelists from Nathaniel Hawthorne to Norman Mailer and poets from Walt Whitman to Denise Levertov all have written powerful works on nonviolent action Through this literature the author explores the beauty of an important theme in American literature At a time when people face widespread injustice True reminds us that nonviolence holds a significant place in our country's history Writing the Colonial Adventure Robert Dixon,1995 This book explores imperial ideology through the narrative themes of popular texts A Talent(ed) Digger ,2022-05-20 Anna Rutherford has been the most dynamic ambassador of Australian culture in Europe More than any other single person she has been instrumental in spreading interest in Commonwealth and post colonial studies Wherever she has been in the world she has brought people together in friendship and intellectual endeavour This volume ranges widely over the areas Anna has promoted as teacher editor and publisher Outrageous Fortune Joe Cleary,2007 Did Ireland produce a more radical and ambitious literature in the straitened circumstances of the first half of the twentieth century than it has managed to do since it began to modernize and become more affluent from the 1960s onwards Has Irish modernism ceded place to a prevailing naturalism that seems gritty and tough minded but that is aesthetically conservative and politically self thwarted Does the fixation with de Valera's Ireland in recent narrative represent a necessary settling of accounts with a dark abusive history or is it indicative of a worrying inability on the part of Irish artists and intellectuals to respond to the very different predicaments of the post Cold War world These are some of the questions addressed in Outrageous Fortune Scanning literature theatre film and music Joe Cleary probes the connections between capital culture and criticism in modern Ireland He includes readings of James Joyce and the Irish modernists the naturalists Patrick Kavanagh John McGahern and Edna O'Brien and comments too on what he terms the neo naturalism of Marina Carr Patrick McCabe and Martin McDonagh He concludes with a provocative analysis of the cultural achievement of the Pogues The Nation in British Literature and Culture Andrew Murphy,2023-08-10 The Nation and British Literature and Culture charts the emergence of Britain as a political social and cultural construct examining the manner in which its constituent elements were brought together through a process of amalgamation and conquest The fashioning of the nation through literature and culture is examined as well as counter narratives that have sought to call national orthodoxies into question Specific topics explored include the emergence of a distinctively national literature in the early modern period the impact of French Revolution on conceptions of Britishness portrayals of empire in popular and literary fiction popular music and national imagining the marginalisation and oppression of particular communities within the nation The volume concludes by asking what implications an extended set of contemporary crises have for the ongoing survival both of the United Kingdom both as a political unit and as a literary and cultural point of identity

More Zeal Than Discretion Jimmy L. Bryan, 2008-09-01 Walter P Lane emigrated from Ireland as a young boy fought in three wars sailed the Texas coast with a privateer and traveled to California and Arizona in search of gold What drove this man who in many ways typifies the adventurers who contributed to the westward expansion in the United States during the early nineteenth century Through his mining of personal papers memoirs contemporary sources and archived collections Jimmy L Bryan Jr has produced a comprehensive portrait of the man who charged across the field at San Jacinto aided in the removal of Indians and Tejano settlers from the East Texas Redlands stormed Monterrey with the Texas Rangers during the U S Mexican War commanded a brigade of Confederate soldiers during the Civil War supported the return to white rule during the turbulent Reconstruction era and served the State of Texas in various public capacities Bryan shows how the adventurism of Lane and his comrades provided both ethos and impetus for the westward migration More Zeal than Discretion will appeal to historians and readers interested in Texas and the West the Civil War and the culture of American manhood

Men Alone Jopi Nyman, 2022-02-28 This study examines masculinity and individualism in four American novels of the 1920s and 1930s usually regarded as belonging to the genre of hard boiled fiction The novels under study are Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain They Shoot Horses Don't They by Horace McCoy and To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway In this first full length study of gender in hard boiled fiction the genre is discussed as a representation of the ideologies of masculinity and individualism Hard boiled fiction is located in its historical and cultural context and it is argued that the genre with its explicit emphasis on masculinity and masculine virtues attempts to reaffirm a masculine order The study argues that this emphasis is a counter reaction to more general changes in the gender relations of the period Indeed hard boiled fiction is argued to be an attempt to reconstruct a masculine identity based on anti modern values generally accepted in the cultural context of the genre

Gendered (Re)Visions Marion Gymnich, Kathrin Ruhl, Klaus Scheunemann, 2010-11-17 In academic as well as in public debates audiovisual media have often been accused of perpetuating gender stereotypes and of confronting viewers time and again with traditional role models and binary concepts of masculinity and femininity In recent years films television series and music videos increasingly have shown women and men who transgress the traditional gender dichotomy One of the central ideas behind this volume is the attempt to bring together explorations of gendering in different audiovisual media The contributions seek to explore in particular shifting constructions of femininity and masculinity and aim to provide further insight into the media and genre specific ways of constructing perpetuating and challenging gender concepts in audiovisual media taking into consideration the interplay of the different levels on which gendering occurs in them Thus two articles in the present volume address the processes of constructing perpetuating and challenging notions of femininity and masculinity in music videos while other contributions are dedicated to the analysis of gendering in films and or TV series

The Future of Decline Jed Esty, 2022-05-31 As the US becomes a second place nation can it shed the superpower nostalgia that still haunts the UK The debate over the US s fading hegemony has raged and sputtered for 50 years glutting the market with prophecies about American decline Media experts ask how fast we will fall and how much we will lose but generally ignore the fundamental question What does decline mean What is the significance in experiential and everyday terms in feelings and fantasies of living in a country past its prime Drawing on the example of post WWII Britain and looking ahead at 2020s America Jed Esty suggests that becoming a second place nation is neither disastrous as alarmists claim nor avoidable as optimists insist Contemporary declinism often masks white nostalgia and perpetuates a conservative longing for Cold War certainty But the narcissistic lure of lost greatness appeals across the political spectrum As Esty argues it resonates so widely in mainstream media because Americans have lost access to a language of national purpose beyond global supremacy It is time to shelve the shopworn fables of endless US dominance to face the multipolar world of the future and to tell new American stories The Future of Decline is a guide to finding them

Making Strangers: Outsiders, Aliens and Foreigners Abbas Maazaoui, 2019-04-05 Studies on foreignness have increased substantially over the last two decades

in response to what has been dubbed the migration refugee crisis Yet they have focused on specific areas such as regions periods ethnic groups and authors Predicated on the belief that this so called twenty first century problem is in fact as old as humanity itself this book analyzes cases based on both long term historical perspectives and current occurrences from around the world Bringing together an international group of scholars from Australia Asia Europe and North America it examines a variety of examples and strategies mostly from world literatures ranging from Spain s failed experience with consolidation as a nation state type entity during the Golden Age of Castile to Shakespeare s rhetorical subversion of the language of fear and hate to Mario Rigoni Stern s random status at the unpredictable Italian Austrian borders to Lawrence Durrell s ambivalent approach to noticing the physically visible other to the French government s ongoing criminalization of hospitality to Sandra Cisneros s attempt at straddling two countries and cultures while belonging to neither one to the illusive legal limbo of the DREAMers in the United States We are not born foreigners we are made The purpose of the book is to assert as denoted by the title this fundamental premise that is the making of strangers is the result of a deliberate and purposeful act that has social political and linguistic implications The ultimate expression of this phenomenon is the compulsive labeling of people along artificial categories such as race gender religion birthplace or nationality A corollary purpose of the book is to help shed light worldwide on one of the most pressing issues facing the world today the place of the other amid fear mongering and unabashedly contemptuous acts and rhetoric toward immigrants refugees and all those excluded within because of race gender national origin religion and ethnicity As illustrated by the examples examined in this book humans have certainly evolved in many areas dealing with the other might not have been one of those It is hoped that the book encourages reflection on how the arts and especially world literatures can help us navigate and think through the ever present crisis the place of the stranger among us

Scouting for Boys Robert Baden-Powell, 2024-05-08 A Scout is a Friend to all An amalgam of imperial myth borrowed tips on health and hygiene and object lessons in woodcraft the 1908 text of Robert Baden Powell s Scouting for Boys is the original blueprint and self instructor of the Boy Scout Movement One of the all time bestsellers in the English speaking world this primer of yarns and pictures constitutes probably the most influential manual for youth ever published Yet the book is at the same time a roughly composed hodge podge of jingoist lore and tracker legend padded with lengthy quotations from adventure fiction and Baden Powell s own autobiography and seamed through with the multiple anxieties of its time fears of degeneration concerns about masculinity and self restraint and invasion paranoia Elleke Boehmer s edition of Scouting for Boys reprints the original text and illustrations and her fine introduction investigates a book that has been cited as an authority by militarists and pacifists capitalists and environmentalists alike ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Outlandish English Subjects in the Victorian Domestic Novel T. Carens, 2005-10-19 Victorian domestic novels routinely detect a savage otherness lurking within the English state and subject Outlandish English Subjects in the Victorian Domestic Novel charts the development of this irony within evangelical and anthropological discourses and studies its emergence in the major works of Charles Dickens Charlotte Brontë Wilkie Collins and George Meredith Each of these writers disrupts the certitudes of imperial ideology by appropriating the language of ethnography and using it to describe the social domestic field Providing fresh readings of both canonical and neglected novels this original volume will be of interest to students and scholars of Nineteenth Century literature and Postcolonial studies
