Asking Mystery Michael Gelven, 2010-11-01 How do we ask the great questions What does it mean to ask so profoundly What does it mean for us to ask at all Michael Gelven confronts these questions as he explores humans as self-reflecting thinkers He recognizes two central phenomena as fundamental the recognition of our own possibility lying within our existence and the realization of our suspension between total ignorance and complete knowledge Using concrete analyses Gelven investigates the questions we ask that may seem initially unanswerable but are ultimately confronted through our own self-realization Asking becomes fundamental when we shift from relying on projected schemes such as clocks and calendars that enable answers to ordinary questions about time to an ongoing nonschematic reflection on our own existence Not only are Platonic Kantian Nietzschean and Heideggerian analyses considered but so are David's psalms Auden's poetry and Shakespeare's plays Gelven asserts that fundamental asking is essential to our being we must ask greatly first for the great explains the lesser the small does not account for the large God's Mystery Revealed Rami Issa Sawaged,
