High Status Jean-Pascal Daloz, 2022-09-01 This book is an unprecedented effort to compare representations and practices of social distinction worldwide and over the centuries. It is based on years of observation in many countries and on the consultation of more than 2 500 multi disciplinary publications dealing directly or indirectly with this theme. In two previous theoretical volumes on the topic The Sociology of Elite Distinction and Rethinking Social Distinction welcomed as major breakthroughs, Jean Pascal Daloz has established himself as the foremost scholar of symbolic social superiority from a comparative perspective. After having rigorously shown the limits of the main analytical frameworks available and outlined a much more inductive approach, his new empirical book continues this intellectual journey. Taking into consideration all sorts of cases and patterns of meaning, it offers an impressive synthesis demonstrating how diverse the expressions of high status can be. This comparative work is intended to be a crucial reference point and an important source of inspiration for researchers and students across many fields.

Churnjeet Mahn recounts the women's first hand experiences of the sites and sights of antiquity, analyzing travel accounts by archaeologists, ethnographers, journalists, and tourists to chart women's renderings of Modern Greece through a series of discursive lenses. Mahn's offers insights into the importance of the Murray and Baedeker guidebooks, how knowledge of Greece and Classical Studies were used to justify colonial rule of India at the same time that Agnes Smith Lewis and Jane Ellen Harrison used Greece as a symbol of women's emancipation. The A to Z of the Fashion Industry Francesca Sterlacci, Joanne Arbuckle, 2009-10-26 The history of clothing begins with the origin of man, and fashionable dress can be traced as far back as 25 000 years ago. Recent scientific explorations have uncovered graves in northern Russia with skeletons covered in beads made of mammoth ivory that once adorned clothing made of animal skin. The Ancient Egyptians, Greeks, and Romans each made major contributions to fashion's legacy from their textile innovations, unique clothing designs, and their early use of accessories, cosmetics, and jewelry. During the Middle Ages, fashion trends emerged as trade and commerce thrived, allowing the merchant class to afford to emulate the fashions worn by royals However it is widely believed that fashion didn't become an industry until the industrial and commercial revolution during the latter part of the 18th century Since then the industry has grown exponentially Today fashion is one of the biggest businesses in the world with hundreds of billions of dollars in turnover and employing tens of millions of workers It is both a profession an industry and in the eyes of many an art The A to Z of the Fashion Industry examines the origins and history of this billion dollar industry This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced entries on designers models couture houses significant articles of apparel and fabrics trade unions and the international trade organizations

The Victorian House Judith Flanders, 2003 A middle class home circa 1850 of the sort that many people live in today is the focus of Judith Flanders book The Victorian age is both recent and unimaginably distant In the most prosperous and technologically advanced nation in the world people carried slops up and down stairs buried meat in fresh earth to prevent mould forming wrung sheets out in boiling water with their bare hands This drudgery was routinely performed by the parents of people still living but the knowledge of it has passed as if it had never been Running water stoves flush lavatories even lavatory paper arrived slowly throughout the century and most were luxuries available only to the prosperous
