Eterno, Cliff Roberson, 2017-08-09 The Detective's Handbook details the vital information law enforcement officers need to know to become better detectives Since all essential aspects of detective work cannot be covered in a single volume the editors have selected 20 of the most critical issues detectives face in their day to day work and present them in separate chapters Using a The Politics of the Commercial Determinants of Health Eduardo Gomez, Angela Carriedo, 2024-12-31 Understanding the international and domestic politics of the commercial determinants of health is a new area of scholarly inquiry Perhaps more than ever the political science policy and public health community needs to better understand the complex political contexts shaping the rise and policy influence of the commercial industry ranging from tobacco to alcohol agribusiness and food products Initial efforts to address the commercial sector's political and policy involvement emerged with the corporate political activity literature which mainly focused on the tobacco industry's efforts to shape noncommunicable disease NCD policy Over the years public health practitioners nutrition and social scientists have built upon this existing literature to expand beyond the tobacco industry looking for example at food and nutrition and alcohol policy in several upper and lower middle income countries With the arrival of several innovative NCD policies throughout the world such as soda taxes and food warning labels coupled with increased international attention through multilateral agencies like the World Health Organization we have now reached a critical juncture in scholarly interest and attention to this topic

Forty-Sixth Report of Session 2013-14 - HC 83-xli Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: European Scrutiny Committee, 2014-04-25

HC 825 - Effectiveness of the Committee in 2012-13 Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee, 2014 In order to monitor the effectiveness of its Reports the Home Affairs Committee maintains a colour coded grid of its recommendations Recommendations are coded green if in its view the Government has accepted them red if they have been rejected and yellow if they have been partially accepted or if the Government has undertaken to give them further consideration This Report covers the Committee's work in the 2012 13 Session The Committee will use the grid to inform its choice of inquiries over the course of the Parliament returning to earlier recommendations where it appears that there may be some merit in doing so but avoiding reduplication of earlier work where it appears unlikely to prove beneficial

Drugs, Crime and Public Health Alex Stevens, 2010-10-04 Drugs Crime and Public Health provides an accessible but critical discussion of recent policy on illicit drugs Using a comparative approach centred on the UK but with insights and complementary data gathered from the USA and other countries it argues that problematic drug use can only be understood in the social context in which it takes place Organised Crime, Financial Crime, and Criminal Justice Dan Jasinski, Amber Phillips, Ed Johnston, 2023-05-15

Organised crime and financial crime are pressing global problems increasingly recognised as policy priorities both by national governments and international bodies and corporations This proudly interdisciplinary collection is built on the premise that these topics are too often artificially separated both in scholarship and the classroom Bringing together scholars from law the social sciences and the humanities this book showcases a diverse range of perspectives on these complex and compelling global issues and the criminal justice challenges that they pose The themes discussed include legal theory and procedure regulation and enforcement prevention and punishment media representation and perception Readers are encouraged to think outside traditional disciplinary bounds and form their own connections and conclusions inspired by the juxtaposition of perspectives rarely seen together in the same volume The Malaŵi Law Reports ,1995 Felony Laws of the 50 States and the District of Columbia ,1986 Corruption in South Africa's liberal democratic context F. P. Kruger, Ben J. de Klerk, Gert Breed, H.J.C. Pieterse, J.M. Vorster, Rudy A. Denton, Friedrich Wilhelm De Wet, 2016-12-31 This collected work written primarily by practical theologians reflects on the phenomenon of corruption in the liberal democracy of post apartheid South Africa Liberal democracy has considerable salience in the contemporary world Not only is it the form that many of the world's most powerful and influential nations approve of but it is a political system that has been tried and used by many developing countries South Africa is described as predominantly Christian and in such a context corruption should not be expected However it is strongly prevalent and undermines the values of both democracy and Christianity Not only does corruption promote a general lack of trust in institutions and leadership but it stimulates a perpetual culture of corruption that invades all spheres of life The book suggests strategies for redressing the current culture of corruption Although the chapters represent different perspectives the shared objective is to emphasise that corruption is unethical as well as to describe and explain why it is taking place and how the situation should appear The explanation focuses on the negative consequence of corruption it does not respect human dignity or the otherness of others it exacerbates poverty it weakens religious values and norms and it is not conducive to social cohesion in the country The authors also share the theological premise that God is present in this world In the kingdom of God believers are encouraged to participate in the clean up process which includes combating the phenomenon of corruption Crime, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice in Europe Hans-Jörg Albrecht, André Klip, 2013-02-15 This unique collection of essays celebrates the twentieth anniversary of the seminal journal the European Journal of Crime Criminal Law and Criminal Justice as well as the outstanding and uninterrupted work over that period of its founding Editor in Chief Professor Cyrille Fijnaut The volume consists of a selection of some of the most ground breaking articles published over the past twenty years covering the three areas of focus of the journal problems of crime developments in criminal law and changes in criminal justice It thus explores such diverse issues as the problems of crime in Central and Eastern Europe after the disappearance of the Soviet Union and the collapse of Yugoslavia the allocation of criminal law power in the European Union police cooperation in the border areas of the Member States the criminalization of white collar crime the establishment of European police services and of a European Public Prosecutor's Office new forms of criminal justice cooperation between the Member States and many others The journal's unique multidisciplinary approach and its commitment to offer insights from a wide variety of European countries and language areas ensure that a varied range of perspectives are offered on the topics discussed The result is an enlightening and highly readable anthology shedding light on the extraordinary developments that have taken place in the area of crime and punishment in Europe USAID Highlights, 1988 America's Insatiable Demand for Drugs

United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, 2017 The War on Drugs and the Global Colour Line Kojo Koram, 2019-03-20 The War on Drugs has led to millions of people dead displaced and incarcerated Disproportionately enforced on oppressed races international drug prohibition has reinforced the colour line across the globe While laws prohibiting the production sale and use of particular drugs are presented as politically neutral and objective this collection reveals the racist impact of the War on Drugs across multiple continents and in numerous situations From racialised drugs policing at festivals in the UK to the necropolitical wars in Juarez Mexico and from the exchange of drug policing programs between the United States and Israel to the management of black bodies in Brazil this collection proves that the regulation of drugs and race is an international and intentional disaster Pushing forward the debate and activism led by groups such as Black Lives Matter and calling for radical changes in drug policy legislation and prison reform both nationally and internationally this collection cuts deep and rings true for all people fighting racism today

House of Commons - Home Affairs Committee: Drugs: New Psychoactive Substances and Prescription Drugs - HC 819 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2013-12-20 We are facing an epidemic of psychoactive substances in the UK with deaths increasing by 79% in the last year New versions of these legal highs are being produced at the rate of at least one a week yet it has taken the Government a year to produce five pages of guidance on the use of alternative legislation This slow response to the crisis may have led to more deaths Those who sell these killer substances need to be held responsible New laws should be enacted to put the onus on them Especially at this time of year young people need to take care about what substances they consume so their health and lives are not put at risk Quick turn around mobile testing units should be utilised at festivals in order to facilitate the removal of potentially harmful or illegal substances from the site immediately and more specific education on psychoactive substances should be given in school and colleges There are also currently 1.5 million people addicted to prescription drugs in the UK The abuse of these types of substances is taking place in the shadows and its extent is still unquantified Local GPs need to report their suspicious and collate information to illuminate this problem Medical Royal Colleges should establish a joint working group to examine whether local health teams are effectively communicating concerns around individuals visiting multiple practices to request specific drugs
