Essence of spiritualism ,2006 Eucharistic Delights. A Treatise on the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. [Translated from the Latin of “Deliciae Eucharisticae,” Etc., Forming Part of a Work Entitled “Deliciae Sacrae,” Ascribed in the Preface to M. de L., But Rather Written by G. de Landsheere, and Edited by M. de L.] Edited by ... J. Edmondson Marius de LANDSHEERE,1875 The Library of Paradise David A. Michelson,2022-09-15 Contemplative reading is a spiritual practice developed by Christian monks in sixth and seventh century Mesopotamia Mystics belonging to the Church of the East pursued a form of contemplation which moved from reading to meditation to prayer to the ecstasy of divine vision The Library of Paradise tells the story of this Syriac tradition in three phases its establishment as an ascetic practice the articulation of its theology and its maturation and spread The sixth century monastic reform of Abraham of Kashkar codified the essential place of reading in East Syrian ascetic life Once established the practice of contemplative reading received extensive theological commentary Abraham s successor Babai the Great drew upon the ascetic system of Evagrius of Pontus to explain the relationship of reading to the monk s pursuit of God Syriac monastic handbooks of the seventh century built on this Evagrian framework Enanisho of Adiabene composed an anthology called Paradise that would stand for centuries as essential reading matter for Syriac monks Dadisho of Qatar wrote a widely copied commentary on the Paradise Together these works circulated as a one volume library which offered readers a door to Paradise through contemplation The Library of Paradise is the first book length study of East Syrian contemplative reading It adapts methodological insights from prior scholarship on reading including studies on Latin lectio divina By tracing the origins of East Syrian contemplative reading this study opens the possibility for future investigation into its legacies including the tradition s long reception history in Sogdian Arabic and Ethiopic monastic libraries The Mirror of Simple Souls Marguerite Porete,2022-12-19 Dive into the profound depths of Christian spiritualism with The Mirror of Simple Souls an early 14th century work by Marguerite Porete It s exploration of Oneness with God though influential at the time of its writing was denounced by Church authorities as heretical and banned for its supposed connection to Antinomianism Since it s attribution to Porete in the 1940 s The Mirror of Simple Souls has come to be regarded as among the most important works of medieval Christian mysticism Catholicism As Musical Discourse Catherine E. Gordon,2024-11-26 Catholicism as Musical Discourse reveals the important role that French language sacred songs written primarily for women played in the evolution of the Catholic Reform over the long seventeenth century By singing sacred songs called cantiques spiritual or devotional airs reformers believed that principles of Catholicism would be easier to learn remember and affect women s behavior This book shows that various interpretations of Catholicism were not only transformed over time but also how and why Most importantly it demonstrates that sacred songs became a part of the Catholic Church s effort to mediate and shape the role of women in French society The Apocalypse Explained According to the Spiritual Sense Emanuel Swedenborg,1859 Alcohol, Violence, and Disorder in Traditional Europe A. Lynn Martin,2009-10-01 Traditional Europe had high levels of violence and of alcohol consumption both higher than they are in modern Western societies where studies demonstrate a link between violence and alcohol A Lynn Martin uses an anthropological approach to examine drinking drinking establishments violence and disorder and compares the wine producing south with the beer drinking north and Catholic France and Italy with Protestant England and explores whether alcohol consumption can also explain the violence and disorder of traditional Europe Both Catholic and Protestant moralists believed in the link and they condemned drunkenness and drinking establishments for causing violence and disorder They did not advocate complete abstinence however for alcoholic beverages had an important role in most people s diets Less appreciated by the moralists was alcohol s function as the ubiquitous social lubricant and the increasing importance of alehouses and taverns as centers of popular recreation The study utilizes both quantitative and qualitative evidence from a wide variety of sources to question the beliefs of the moralists and the assumptions of modern scholars about the role of alcohol and drinking establishments in causing violence and disorder It ends by analyzing the often conflicting regulations of local regional and national governments that attempted to ensure that their citizens had a reliable supply of good drink at a reasonable cost but also to control who drank what where when and how No other comparable book examines the relationship of alcohol to violence and disorder during this period A Treatise of Dogmatic Theology Samuel Buel,1889 Traditions of Natural Law in Medieval Philosophy Dominic Farrell,2022-07-08 Reflection on natural law reaches a highpoint during the Middle Ages Not only do Christian thinkers work out the first systematic accounts of natural law and articulate the framework for subsequent reflection the Jewish and Islamic traditions also develop their own canonical statements on the moral authority of reason vis vis divine law In the view of some they thereby articulate their own theories of natural law These various traditions of medieval reflection on natural law and their interrelation merit further study particularly since they touch upon many current philosophical concerns They grapple with the problem of ethical and religious pluralism They consider whether universally valid standards of action and social life are accessible to those who rely on reason rather than divine law In so doing they develop sophisticated accounts of many central issues in metaethics action theory jurisprudence and the philosophy of religion However do they reach a consensus about natural law or do they end up defending incommensurable ethical frameworks Do they confirm the value of arguments based on natural law or do they cast doubt on it This collection brings together contributions from various expert scholars to explore these issues and the pluralism that exists within medieval reflection on natural law It is the first one to study the relation between the natural law theories of these various traditions of medieval philosophy Jewish Islamic Byzantine and Latin Each of the first four essays surveys the natural law theory of one of the religious traditions of medieval philosophy Jewish Islamic Byzantine and Latin and its relation to the others The next four essays explore some of the alternative accounts of natural law that arise within the Latin tradition They range over St Bonaventure Peter of Tarentaise Matthew of Aquasparta John Duns Scotus and Marsilius of Padua The Ministry, Vol. 06, No. 01 Various Authors,2002-01-01 This is a special combined issue January February of The Ministry It contains a complete record of the messages given in Anaheim California during the 2001 Winter Training on the Crystallization study of Ephesians These messages are being published immediately following the training in order that they might benefit the saints participating in the many video trainings held throughout the earth Because of the specific nature of this issue the usual section of reports concerning the Lord s move throughout the earth has been omitted The burden for the twelve messages given during the 2001 Winter Training on the Crystallization study of Ephesians may be summarized by four statements 1 the dispensing of Christ is for the gradual building up of His Body and the transmitting of Christ is for the sudden raising up of God s churches 2 God s eternal intention is to head up all things in Christ the universal Head through the church which is His Body 3 the oneness of the Spirit must be kept diligently by all the believers in Christ with the transformed human virtues strengthened and enriched by and with the divine attributes and 4 as the unlimited immeasurable Christ makes His home in our hearts we are filled unto all the fullness of God the ultimate corporate expression of the Triune God The Apocalypse Explained According to the Spiritual Sense.
