Reconsidering the question posed by Cecilia Alemani, Venice Biennale 2022 curator, authors explore what would life look like without us in a world activated by things and a post humanist animism. These speculative discussions are developed in this volume in which we consider how the process and practices of going feral might materialise through and across creative investigations. Going feral is a provocative call to untame, queer and radicalize feminist thought and practice, producing more than human multispecies entanglements and processes of dynamic resistance. The chapters critically analyse processes of going feral in artworks and art practices ranging from fine art, art history and performance to architecture, video games and poetry. They consider how going feral allows audiences to form meaningful relationships with spoiled landscapes, develop human and non human communities and to reimagine the domestic and the everyday through the prism of new animism. The creative practices discussed are geographically diverse including examples from South Africa, Brazil, Ukraine, South Korea, Mexico, the Caribbean, Europe and North America. Through these wide ranging approaches and case studies, the book asks what are potential futures materialised through artworks that rethink the present as a world populated by things, a place where the sensibility of materials becomes carriers of agency. This edited volume argues that animism and ferality are vital tools for artists and creative professionals to describe and critique the increasing inequalities and continuous states of emergency that characterise late stage capitalism. The concept of going feral is a critical framework to frame contemporary issues such as environmentalism, waste and discard studies and speculate ways of decentring anthropomorphism. Sondheim in Our Time and His W. Anthony Sheppard, 2022-02-11 Sondheim in Our Time and His offers a wide ranging historical investigation of the landmark musical works and extraordinary career of Stephen Sondheim, a career which has spanned much of the history of American musical theater. The Cambridge Companion to French Literature John D. Lyons, 2016 A fresh and comprehensive account of the literature of France from medieval romances to twenty first century experimental poetry and novels. Freud, Proust and Lacan Malcolm Bowie, 1987 The views of Freud, Proust and Lacan are depicted through this staging of a series of provocative dialogues between psychological science and imaginative literature of the twentieth century.

Proust Angelo Caranfa,1990 This study confronts Proust's underlying search to explain through literature the meaning of the human self It deals with Proust's creative silence from an aesthetic philosophical point of view by comparing him with Merleau Ponty Claudel Braque Marcel St Bonaventure and St Augustine New York Herald Tribune Book Review ,1961
