M. Forster, 2016-01-13 In Santa Croce with No Baedeker It was pleasant to wake up in Florence to open the eyes upon a bright bare room with a floor of red tiles which look clean though they are not with a painted ceiling whereon pink griffins and blue amorini sport in a forest of yellow violins and bassoons It was pleasant too to fling wide the windows pinching the fingers in unfamiliar fastenings to lean out into sunshine with beautiful hills and trees and marble churches opposite and close below the Arno gurgling against the embankment of the road Over the river men were at work with spades and sieves on the sandy foreshore and on the river was a boat also diligently employed for some mysterious end An electric tram came rushing underneath the window No one was inside it except one tourist but its platforms were overflowing with Italians who preferred to stand Children tried to hang on behind and the conductor with no malice spat in their faces to make them let go Then soldiers appeared good looking undersized men wearing each a knapsack covered with mangy fur and a great coat which had been cut for some larger soldier Beside them walked officers looking foolish and fierce and before them went little boys turning somersaults in time with the band The tramcar became entangled in their ranks and moved on painfully like a caterpillar in a swarm of ants One of the little boys fell down and some white bullocks came out of an archway Indeed if it had not been for the good advice of an old man who was selling button hooks the road might never have got clear Over such trivialities as these many a valuable hour may slip away and the traveller who has gone to Italy to study the tactile values of Giotto or the corruption of the Papacy may return remembering nothing but the blue sky and the men and women who live under it So it was as well that

Miss Bartlett should tap and come in and having commented on Lucy's leaving the door unlocked and on her leaning out of the window before she was fully dressed should urge her to hasten herself or the best of the day would be gone By the time Lucy was ready her cousin had done her breakfast and was listening to the clever lady among the crumbs

A Room with a View Edward Morgan Forster, 2023-09-14 E M Forster's A Room With A View is a novel that explores the themes of class love and freedom in early 20th century England The story follows the journey of Lucy Honeychurch a young woman who struggles to find her place in society and reconcile her desires with the expectations of her family and friends The novel begins with Lucy and her older cousin Charlotte Bartlett traveling to Italy for a vacation While there they meet a group of eccentric and unconventional characters including the free spirited Mr Emerson and his son George Lucy is initially drawn to George's passionate and independent nature but she is conflicted by her loyalty to her fiancé Cecil Vyse a wealthy and conventional man who represents the expectations of her social class As Lucy navigates her feelings for George and her obligations to Cecil she is forced to confront the limitations of her own upbringing and the societal constraints that dictate her choices Throughout the novel Forster uses vivid descriptions of the Italian landscape and the characters' interactions with each other to explore these themes and highlight the contrast between the repressive social norms of England and the liberating influence of Italy Ultimately Lucy must choose between following her heart and conforming to societal expectations In doing so she must confront the consequences of her decisions and come to terms with the reality of her own desires and limitations A Room With A View is a beautifully written novel that offers a nuanced exploration of the complexities of love class and freedom Through its vivid characters and evocative descriptions it invites readers to consider their own relationships and the ways in which societal expectations shape our choices and identities

A Room With a View (Diversion Classics) E.M. Forster, 2016-05-24 Featuring an appendix of discussion questions the Diversion Classics edition is ideal for use in book groups and classrooms Lucy Honeychurch journeys from England to Italy on holiday hoping to broaden her world but it's not the beauty of Florence that she falls in love with No trapped in a hotel populated by nothing but fellow Britons it's hard for Lucy to experience Italy at all To make matters worse the room with the view she was promised isn't available Overhearing her dismay a father and son duo offer to switch rooms with her It is a generous gesture met with revulsion from Lucy's suffocating chaperone for to accept would put them in a compromising position and be a major social gaffe Touched by the kindness of it and for the first time in her life questioning the barriers of her social standing Lucy develops a fondness for the two uncouth gentlemen In fact George Emerson younger of the two might be the only spot of joy Lucy has in Florence No sooner does Lucy find herself falling for George who values her mind and spirit when she is whisked away to Rome There she meets Cecil Vyse who though domineering pompous and snide matches her social standing and proposes Lucy thinking she is making the most practical choice is ready to settle for Cecil But when George moves closer to her and confesses his true feelings Lucy must choose between her true desires and that which she was taught was best her entire life For more classic titles like this visit www.diversionbooks.com ebooks diversion classics
