A Robber A Robber:

A Robbery Committed, And Restitution Made, Both To God And Man Ebenezer Erskine, 199? IT is abundantly plain that there are several passages in this psalm applied unto Christ in the Scriptures of the New Testament particularly that in the 9th verse of the psalm The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up We find it applied to Christ John 2 17 and likewise that immediately following The reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me Romans 15 3 so likewise in the 21st verse They gave me also gall for my meat and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink applied to Christ Matthew 27 48 and Mark 15 23 But I need go no further to prove this than the first word of the verse where my text lies They hated me without cause Christ applies it to himself in John 15 25 We find our Lord here in the verse where my text lies is complaining of his enemies he complains of their causeless hatred in the first clause of the verse They hate me without a cause he complains of their multitude They are more than the hairs of mine head he complains of their implacable cruelty They that would destroy me being mine enemies wrongfully are mighty Now our blessed Lord is thus treated by the world whom he came to save When there is such a powerful combination of hell and earth against him one would have been ready to think that he would have stopped and gone no further but he did not faint nor was he discouraged for all the opposition that was made against him for you see in the word I have read what he was doing for lost sinners when he was meeting with harsh entertainment from them Then even then says he I restored that which I took not away Pharmacy Robbery Legislation United States.
