Outstanding Academic Title Flourishing in the United States during the 1940s and 50s the bleak violent genre of filmmaking known as film noir reflected the attitudes of writers and auteur directors influenced by the events of the turbulent mid twentieth century Films such as Force of Evil Night and the City Double Indemnity Laura The Big Heat The Killers Kiss Me Deadly and more recently Chinatown and The Grifters are indelibly American Yet the sources of this genre were found in Germany and France and imported to Hollywood by emigr filmmakers who developed them and allowed a vibrant genre to flourish Andrew Dickos s Street with No Name traces the film noir genre back to its roots in German Expressionist cinema and the French cinema of the interwar years Dickos describes the development of the film noir in America from 1941 through the 1970s and examines how this development expresses a modern cinema Dickos examines notable directors such as Orson Welles Fritz Lang John Huston Nicholas Ray Robert Aldrich Samuel Fuller Otto Preminger Robert Siodmak Abraham Polonsky Jules Dassin Anthony Mann and others He also charts the genre s influence on such celebrated postwar French filmmakers as Jean Pierre Melville Francois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Addressing the aesthetic cultural political and social concerns depicted in the genre Street with No Name demonstrates how the film noir generates a highly expressive raw and violent mood as it exposes the ambiguities of modern postwar society New York Magazine ,1981-12-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Now Playing at the Valencia

Stephen Hunter,2005-12-01 From Pulitzer Prize winning movie critic and New York Times bestselling author Stephen Hunter comes a brilliant freewheeling and witty look at the movies Evanston Illinois was an idyllic 1950s paradise with stately homes a beautiful lake a world class university two premier movie houses and one very seedy movie theater the Valencia This was the site of Washington Post film critic Stephen Hunter s misspent youth Instead of going to school picking up girls or tossing a football Hunter could be found sitting in the fifteenth row right hand aisle seat of the Valencia sating himself on one B list movie after another The Valencia had a sticky floor smelly bathrooms ancient popcorn and a screen set in a hideously tacky papier mache castle wall It was also the only place in town to see westerns sci fi pictures cops n robbers flicks slapstick comedy and Godzilla In Now Playing at the Valencia the bestselling thriller author Stephen Hunter has compiled his favorite movie reviews written between 1997 and 2003 bringing to the discussion the passionate feelings for cinema he discovered in the 50s a time when genres were forming mesmerizing stars played unforgettable characters and enduring classics were made While filmmaking has changed tremendously since Hunter first frequented the Valencia the view from the fifteenth row and the thrill of down and dirty entertainment has remained the same Spy Fiction, Spy Films and Real Intelligence Wesley K. Wark, 2013-09-13 This book won the Canadian Crime Writers Arthur Ellis Award for the Best Genre Criticism Reference book of 1991 This collection of essays is an attempt to explore the history of spy fiction and spy films and investigate the significance of the ideas they contain The volume offers new insights into the development and symbolism of British spy fiction Orwell Subverted Daniel J. Leab, 2008-05-28 Film and cinema Screening Torture Michael Flynn, Fabiola F. Salek, 2012 Before 9 11 films addressing torture outside of the horror slasher genre depicted the practice in a variety of forms In most cases torture was cast as the act of a desperate and depraved individual and the viewer was more likely to identify with the victim rather than the torturer Since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 scenes of brutality and torture in mainstream comedies dramatic narratives and action films appear for little other reason than to titillate and delight In these films torture is devoid of any redeeming qualities represented as an exercise in brutal senselessness carried out by authoritarian regimes and institutions This volume follows the shift in the representation of torture over the past decade specifically in documentary action and political films It traces and compares the development of this trend in films from the United States Europe China Latin America South Africa and the Middle East Featuring essays by sociologists psychologists historians journalists and specialists in film and cultural studies the collection approaches the representation of torture in film and television from multiple angles and disciplines connecting its aesthetics and practices to the dynamic of state terror and political domination Prologue , 1998 Ten-Tronck's Celebrity Locator Rob Ten-Tronck, 2005 The Celebrity Locator provides the addresses to our complete database of Movie Stars TV Stars Authors Politicians Rock Stars Athletes and Other Famous People If a person is famous or worth locating it s almost certain their regular address almost 12000 agents representative or web site can be found in here Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review , 1948 Kubrick, New and Expanded Edition Thomas Allen Nelson, 2000 Stanley Kubrick ranks among the most important American film makers of his generation but his work is often misunderstood because it is widely diverse in subject matter and seems to lack thematic and tonal consistency Thomas Nelson s perceptive and comprehensive study of Kubrick rescues him from the hostility of auteurist critics and discovers the roots of a Kubrickian aesthetic which Nelson defines as the aesthetics of contingency After analyzing how this aesthetic develops and manifests itself in the early works Nelson devotes individual chapters to Lolita Dr Stangelove 2001 A Space Odyssey A Clockwork Orange Barry Lyndon and The Shining For this expanded edition Nelson has added chapters on Full Metal Jacket and Eyes Wide Shut and in the wake of the director's death reconsidered his body of work as a whole By placing Kubrick in a historical and theoretical context this study is a reliable guide into and out of Stanley Kubrick's cinematic maze Best Years Charles Affron, Mirella Jona Affron, 2009-08-14 Americans flocked to the movies in 1945 and 1946 the center point of the three decade heyday of the studio system's sound era Why Best Years is a panoramic study shining light on this critical juncture in American history and the history of American cinema the end of World War II 1945 and a year of unprecedented success in Hollywood's Golden Age 1946 This unique time the last year of war and the first full year of peace provides a rich blend of cinema genres and types from the battlefield to the home front the peace film to the woman's film psychological drama and the period's provocative new style film noir Best Years focuses on films that were famous infamous forgotten and unforgettable Big budget A films road shows and familiar series share the spotlight From Bergman and Grant in Notorious to Abbott and Costello in Lost in a Harem Charles Affron and Mirella Jona Affron examine why the bond between screen and viewer was perhaps never tighter Paying special attention to the movie going public in key cities Atlanta New York Boston Honolulu and Chicago this ambitious work takes us on a cinematic journey to recapture a magical time Moving Pictures/Stopping Places David B. Clarke, Valerie Crawford Pfannhauser, Marcus A. Doel, 2009-05-16 Mobility has long been a defining feature of modern societies yet remarkably little attention has been paid to the various stopping places _hotels motels and the like_ that this mobility presupposes If the paradoxical qualities of fixed places dedicated to facilitating movement have been overlooked by a variety of commentators film makers have shown remarkable prescience and consistency in engaging with these still points around which the world is made to turn Hotels and motels play a central role in a multitude of films ranging across an immensely wide variety of genres eras and national cinemas Whereas previous film theorists have focused on the movement implied by road movies and similar genres the outstanding contributions to this volume extend the recent engagement with space and place in film studies providing a series of fascinating explorations of the cultural significance of stopping places both on screen and off Ranging from the mythical elegance of the Grand Hotel through the uncanny spaces of the Bates motel to Korean love motels the wealth of insights from a variety of theoretical perspectives that this volume delivers is set to change our understanding of the role played by stopping places in an increasingly fluid world Bulletin - Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute, 1951
