Understanding Cities Alexander R. Cuthbert, 2011 Understanding Cities is richly textured complex and challenging It creates the vital link between urban design theory and praxis and opens the required methodological gateway to a new and unified field of urban design Using spatial political economy as his most important reference point Alexander Cuthbert both interrogates and challenges mainstream urban design and provides an alternative and viable comprehensive framework for a new synthesis He rejects the idea of yet another theory in urban design and chooses instead to construct the necessary intellectual and conceptual scaffolding for what he terms The New Urban Design Building both on Michel de Certeau's concept of heterology thinking about thinking and on the framework of his previous books Designing Cities and The Form of Cities Cuthbert uses his prior adopted framework history philosophy politics culture gender environment aesthetics typologies and pragmatics to create three integrated texts Overall the trilogy allows a new field of urban design to emerge Pre-existing and new knowledge are integrated across all three volumes of which Understanding Cities is the culminating text

Cities, Classes, and the Social Order Anthony Lee, 2017-04-10 Cities Classes and the Social Order brings together nine conceptual and theoretical essays by the anthropologist Anthony Leeds 1925-1989 whose pioneering work in the anthropology of complex societies was built on formative personal and research experiences in both urban and rural settings in the United States Brazil Venezuela and Portugal Leeds brought to his anthropology a simultaneous concern for science and humanism and for explanation and interpretation He constructed a nuanced and intricate vision of the connections among ecology technology history evolution structure process power culture social organization and human creativity The essays in this book draw on his approach to demarcate the role of cities in human history the use and abuse of class analysis the bases of power in complex societies and an agenda for ethnographic and social historical research in the contemporary world In addition to major but little known writings and an important essay on Marx here published for the first time in English a selection of Leeds's ethnographically and politically inspired poems are included as are several of his professionally exhibited photographs In addition introductory essays by R Timothy Sieber and Roger Sanjek chart the course of Leeds's career and the development of his theoretical viewpoint
