Emotional Cities Joseph Ben Prestel,2017-09-01 Emotional Cities offers an innovative account of the history of cities in the second half of the nineteenth century Analyzing debates about emotions and urban change it questions the assumed dissimilarity of the history of European and Middle Eastern cities during this period The author shows that between 1860 and 1910 contemporaries in both Berlin and Cairo began to negotiate the transformation of the urban realm in terms of emotions Looking at the ways in which a variety of urban dwellers from psychologists to bar maids framed recent changes in terms of their effect on love honor or disgust the book reveals striking parallels between the histories of the two cities By combining urban history and the history of emotions Prestel proposes a new perspective on the emergence of different yet comparable cities at the end of the nineteenth century Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors, 1984 Nature-First Cities Cam Brewer, Herb Hammond, Sean Markey, 2024-09-03 Nature belongs in cities but how do we put nature first without pushing people aside Nature First Cities reveals the false dichotomy of that question by recognizing that people and nature are indivisible Western urbanization has meant the ongoing expulsion of nature which is engendering biodiversity loss and inequality thwarting economic potential and affecting health This volume instead applies the science and practice of nature directed stewardship to cities Tested through case studies this methodology for urban ecosystem restoration is uniquely effective at revitalizing our strained cities Nature is woven into networks distributed equitably across neighbourhoods and partnered with the urban density that is essential for addressing the climate crisis Nature First Cities offers a practical framework for urban planning that reinforces our place in nature both physically by ensuring that cities are replete with biodiversity and intact ecosystems and conceptually by rebalancing our relationships with the planet and with one another The Shaping of Western Civilization Michael Burger, 2013-12-16 Volume I of The Shaping of Western Civilization begins with the ancient world and ends with the Enlightenment Unlike other textbooks that pile on dates and facts Shaping is a more coherent and interpretive presentation Western Civilization William Hughes, 1989 The Sustainable Urban Development Reader Stephen M. residents and the natural conditions Thus an era of the huge ancient capitals without guards lasting for over 1000 years formed The concept that China's ancient capitals don't have outer enclosures presented in the book questions the traditional view that every settlement has walled enclosures Combining science with theory it offers researchers of history a clear understanding of the development process of China's ancient capitals      Western Civilization: A Global and Comparative Approach Kenneth L.
