People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills,Kevin Gray,2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions commencing in the 1980s and continuing until the present and questioning their impact and potential influence on human dignity freedom justice and self determination and thus opening new avenues of enquiry into the future of democracy This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly      Environmental Justice in South Africa David A. McDonald,2002 In 11 articles reprinted from a

1999 journal and a 1998 anthology South African social scientists and those from elsewhere who have worked there provide an overview of the environmental justice movement in the country which blossomed only after the battle against apartheid was won in the early 1990s They trace its history and describe the key theoretical and practical issues it faces after a decade what has changed and what remained the same the most and least effective strategies and future directions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

International Migrants and the City Marcello Balbo, 2005 This new book which is jointly published by UN HABITAT and the Universit luav di Venezia gives an account of different policies practices and governance models that are addressing the issue of international migration in an urbanizing world The book reviews the policies and practices of ten cities including Bangkok Berlin Dakar Johannesburg Karachi Naples S Paulo Tijuana Vancouver and Vladivostok Key issues of analysis include the impact of national policies on international migration the role of migrants in the local economy the relationship between local and migrant communities and the migrants use of urban space It reveals the importance and the advantages of promoting communication between stakeholders and establishing channels for representation and participation of migrants in decisions affecting their livelihoods International Development Assistance and the BRICS Jose A. Puppim de Oliveira, Yijia Jing, 2019-10-05 This book aims to bring together a series of analyses on international development assistance in the BRICS the group of countries that includes Brazil Russia India China and South Africa The BRICS states comprise approximately 3 billion people 40% of the World s population and in terms of GDP account for 16.8 trillion dollars 22% of the World s economy Over the last decade the loose coalition has evolved to become a formal partnership on both economic and political fronts The first formal meeting of the then four BRIC countries took place in 2006 during the United Nations General Assembly This was followed in 2009 by the first summit of BRICS heads of state an event which has been convened annually ever since On 3-5 September 2017 the ninth BRICS Summit was hosted in Xiamen China This book an anthology of scholars based in BRICS countries provides invaluable insights into the emerging global south coalition and will be of interest to scholars employees of NGOs and China watchers

Sixteenth Census of the United States: 1940 United States. Bureau of the Census, 1942

Life and Death Matters Barbara Rose Johnston, 2016-06-03 The first edition of Life and Death Matters was a breakthrough text centralizing the experiences of those on the front lines of environmental crises and forging new paradigms for understanding how crises emerge and how different groups of actors respond to them This second edition fully updated with both expanded and new chapters once again provides a benchmark for the field and opens important pathways for further research Authors reassess the state of scholarship and grassroots activism in a new century when social and environmental systems are being reconceptualised within post 9/11 security and biosecurity frameworks when global warming and resource scarcity are not fears but realities when global power and politics are being realigned and when ecocide ethnocide and genocide are daily tragedies This bold new edition of Life and Death Matters will be a widely used textbook and essential reading for students scholars and policy makers

Climate Change

Epistemologies in Southern Africa Jörn Ahrens, Ernst Halbmayer, 2023-05-26 This book investigates the social and cultural dimensions of climate change in Southern Africa focusing on how knowledge about climate change is conceived and conveyed Despite contributing very little to the global production of emissions the African continent looks set to be the hardest hit by climate change Adopting a decolonial perspective this book argues that knowledge and discourse about climate change has largely disregarded African epistemologies leading to inequalities in knowledge systems Only by considering regionally specific forms of conceptualizing perceiving and responding to climate change can these global problems be tackled First exploring African epistemologies of climate change the book then goes on to the social impacts of climate change matters of climate justice and finally institutional change and adaptation Providing important insights into the social and cultural perception and communication of climate change in Africa this book will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of African studies sociology anthropology philosophy political science climate change and geography
