Citizen Kane Filmmakers Journey:

Citizen Kane Harlan Lebo, 2016-04-26 A Thomas Dunne book d manipulation and other tactics A Orson Welles in Focus James N. Gilmore, Sidney Gottlieb, 2018-02-08 Through his radio and film works such as The War of the Worlds and Citizen Kane Orson Welles became a household name in the United States Yet Welles s multifaceted career went beyond these classic titles and included lesser known but nonetheless important contributions to television theater newspaper columns and political activism Orson Welles in Focus Texts and Contexts examines neglected areas of Welles s work shedding light on aspects of his art that have been eclipsed by a narrow focus on his films By positioning Welles s work during a critical period of his activity the mid 1930s through the 1950s in its larger cultural political aesthetic and industrial contexts the contributors to this volume examine how he participated in and helped to shape modern media This exploration of Welles in his totality illuminates and expands our perception of his contributions that continue to resonate today Who Wrote Citizen Kane? Warren Buckland, 2023-09-28 This book offers a solution to one of film history s major controversies the long running dispute over Orson Welles and Herman J Mankiewicz s contributions to the Citizen Kane screenplay It establishes the vital importance of computing and statistics to solving previously intractable puzzles in the arts and humanities Citizen Kane 1941 is one of the most acclaimed films in the history of cinema For 50 years it topped the Sight Sound film critics poll Orson Welles directed the film and is credited with co writing the screenplay with Herman J Mankiewicz But the co writer credit generates furious disputes between those who argue Mankiewicz is the sole author of Citizen Kane and those who claim that Welles collaborated fully with its writing The author employs computing and statistics to answer two questions What are the distinguishing features of Welles and of Mankiewicz s writing And What did each contribute to the writing of the Citizen Kane screenplay To answer these questions the author bypasses opinions and impressions and instead subjects the language of the Citizen Kane screenplay to a forensic examination Employing linguistics basic statistical tests plus computer technology and software the author identifies the stylistic signature of each author the combination of consistent and regular linguistic habits that make each author s writing distinctive This book replaces impressionistic discussions of Mankiewicz s and Welles contributions to the Citizen Kane screenplay with a rigorous experiment driven statistical analysis Earlier statistical studies of authorship have discovered that small unassuming language features such as punctuation pronouns and prepositions in statistically significant quantities constitute a screenwriter s distinctive writing habits Only with the extensive experimentation carried out in this volume did the author decide Mankiewicz s and Welles specific habits and their contributions to Citizen Kane Filmmaker's Journey Severo Perez, 2024-09-02 Born in San Antonio Texas in 1941 acclaimed filmmaker Severo Perez moved to Los Angeles in 1972 to pursue a career in the motion picture industry His films have won awards including five CINE Golden Eagles Perez is also an accomplished playwright and novelist Filmmaker s Journey offers valuable insights into the life and work of this influential and visionary artist Perez's 1994 film and the Earth Did Not Swallow Him perhaps his best known work is adapted from Tom's Rivera's classic 1971 Chicano novel y no se lo tragó la tierra. The film follows the lives of a South Texas family of migrant farmworkers in the 1950s. Perez's nuanced powerful film beautifully evokes the substance and spirit of Rivera's work and it has won international critical acclaim including top honors at film festivals worldwide. Some of these include the Sol Award at the 1995 CineSol Latino Film Festival, Best Feature Film at the San Diego Independent Film Festival and Best Feature Film at the Minneapolis Rivertown Film Festival. Filmmaker's Journey recounts Perez's winding path toward building a career as an independent filmmaker. Beginning with the events accompanying the first week of production for and the Earth Did Not Swallow Him which coincided with the riots incited by the Rodney King verdict on April 29, 1992, then picking up the thread of his Westside San Antonio upbringing and his early fascination with making movies, Perez recounts his experiences with the experimental underground and art film collectives and the move to Los Angeles that would eventually launch his forty-five year career producing programming for PBS cable and network television.

Reinventing Hollywood David Bordwell, 2017-10-02. In the 1940s American movies changed. Flashbacks began to be used in outrageous unpredictable ways. Soundtracks flaunted voice over commentary and characters might pivot from a scene to address the viewer. Incidents were replayed from different characters' viewpoints and sometimes those versions proved to be false. Films now plunged viewers into characters' memories, dreams, and hallucinations. Some films didn't have protagonists while others centered on anti-heroes or psychopaths. Women might be on the verge of madness and neurotic heroes lurched into violent confrontations. Combining many of these ingredients, a new genre emerged: the psychological thriller populated by women in peril and innocent bystanders targeted for death. If this sounds like today's cinema, that's because it is. In Reinventing Hollywood, David Bordwell examines the full range and depth of trends that crystallized into traditions. He shows how the Christopher Nolans and Quentin Tarantinos of today owe an immense debt to the dynamic, occasionally delirious narrative experiments of the Forties. Through in-depth analyses of films both famous and virtually unknown, from Our Town and All About Eve to Swell Guy and The Guilt of Janet Ames, Bordwell assesses the era's unique achievements and its legacy for future filmmakers. Reinventing Hollywood is a groundbreaking study of how Hollywood storytelling became a more complex art and essential reading for lovers of popular cinema.

Visual Storytelling for Filmmakers Blain Brown, 2025-01-23. Directly addressing how filmmakers can craft visually powerful films through practical skills that can be used throughout the filmmaking process, author Blain Brown explores how we use space, color, camera angles, composition, motion, POV, and all the other methods in the day-to-day work of telling stories visually. Brown interrogates not only the tangible aspects of visual storytelling but also the more abstract areas as well, including visual metaphor, manipulating time and space, and visual subtext. It covers all the aspects of visual storytelling that directors, cinematographers, and editors use to tell stories visually. Written by a working filmmaker with over 30 years' experience as a director and cinematographer, this book looks at both the how and the why of visual storytelling consistently drawing on the day to day real world environment of making a film Ideal for intermediate and advanced students of filmmaking as well as professionals working in the industry Topics Include Building A World Cinematic Space Visual Metaphor Frame Composition Using Color Time Space Light Shadow Visual Forces POV Eyelines Motion Lens Focus Establishing Case Studies Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Art of Leadership William Nester,2024-06-30 Scholar William Nester explores Franklin D Roosevelt s character personality and presidential power After their independence and civil wars Americans never faced a greater threat than the sixteen years of global depression followed by global war from 1929 to 1945 Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the president for the last dozen of those years during which he led the nation first to alleviate the Great Depression then led an international alliance that vanquished the fascist powers during the Second World War Along the way he established the modern presidency with centralized powers to make and implement domestic and foreign policies He was naturally a master politician who eventually through daunting trials and errors became an accomplished statesman For all that historians regularly rank Roosevelt among the top three presidents Yet most historians and countless others criticize Roosevelt for an array of things that he did or failed to do Conservatives lambast him for creating a welfare state and trying to pack federal courts with liberal judges while liberals condemn him for interning 120 000 Japanese Americans during the war and doing little to advance civil rights for African Americans Critics blister war commander Roosevelt for caving into strategies demanded by powerful leaders that squandered countless lives and treasure in literal and figurative dead ends These include Prime Minister Churchill s push to invade the Italian peninsula and General MacArthur s determination to recapture the Philippines At times his policies violated his principles Like President Wilson during the Second World War Roosevelt championed self determination but not for every nation He badgered Churchill to break up Britain s empire while bowing to Stalin s brutal communist conquest of eastern Europe And those are just the opening barrages against Roosevelt Although he won four presidential elections with overwhelming majorities nearly as many people reviled him as they adored him Franklin D Roosevelt and the Art of Leadership explores the dynamic among Roosevelt s character personality and presidential power with which he asserted policies that overcame first the Great Depression and then the Axis powers during the Second World War Along the way the book raises and answers key questions What were Roosevelt s leadership skills and how did he develop them over time Which New Deal policies succeeded which failed and what explains those results Which war strategies succeeded which failed and what explains those results What policies rooted in Roosevelt s instincts proved to be superior to alternatives grounded in thick official reports advocated by his advisors Finally how does Roosevelt rank as an American and global leader "A" Western Filmmakers Henryk Hoffmann,2024-10-16 From High Noon to Unforgiven the A Western represents the pinnacle of Western filmmaking More intellectual ambitious and time consuming than the readily produced B or serial Westerns these films rely on hundreds of talented artists This comprehensive reference work provides biographies and Western filmographies for nearly 1 000 men pass with little public awareness and we only appreciate their momentous nature long after they occur Regardless these events are few and almost always far between But in 1969 four such events took place within the span of only 100 days In this book cultural historian Harlan Lebo looks back at the first moon landing the Manson family murders Woodstock and the birth of the Internet to tell the story of how each event shaped the nation and how we perceive ourselves Loaded with captivating anecdotes and insights based on extensive interviews with eyewitnesses and participants to provide historical insight and contemporary context 100 Days will fascinate readers who seek a deeper appreciation of how four seemingly unrelated events shaped America's emergence as the nation we have become Captain of Her Soul Lara

Gabrielle, 2022-09-27 Northern California Book Awards Shortlist The comprehensive critical biography of silent screen star Marion Davies who fittingly referred to herself as the captain of my soul From Marion Davies's humble days in Brooklyn to her rise to fame alongside press baron William Randolph Hearst the public life story of the film star plays like a modern fairy tale shaped by gossip columnists fan magazines biopics and documentaries Yet the real Marion Davies remained largely hidden from view as she was wary of interviews and trusted few with her true life story In Captain of Her Soul Lara Gabrielle pulls back layers of myth to show a complex and fiercely independent woman ahead of her time who carved her own path Through meticulous research unprecedented access to archives around the world and interviews with those who knew Davies Captain of Her Soul counters the public story This book reveals a woman who navigated disability and social stigma to rise to the top of a young Hollywood dominated by powerful men Davies took charge of her own career negotiating with studio heads and establishing herself as a top tier comedienne but her proudest achievement was her philanthropy and advocacy for children This biography brings Davies out of the shadows cast by the Hearst legacy shedding light on a dynamic woman who lived life on her own terms and declared that she was the captain of her soul Filming the First Helen J.

Knowles-Gardner, Bruce E. Altschuler, Brandon T. Metroka, 2024-10-15 The First Amendment to the U S Constitution prohibits Congress from abridging freedom of the press But as the printed press has been transformed into mass media with Americans now more likely to get their political information from television or social media than from print confidence in this important mediating institution has fallen dramatically Movies in their role as cultural artifacts have long reflected and influenced those public attitudes inventing such iconic phrases as follow the money from All the President's Men and I'm mad as hell and I'm not going to take this anymore from Network. Filming the First Cinematic Portrayals of Freedom of the Press analyzes eighteen films that span from Citizen Kane to Spotlight showing changes in how the press have been portrayed over time which voices receive the most attention and why the relationship between the press's Fourth Estate role and the imperatives of capitalism and how despite the First Amendment's seemingly absolute language the government has sometimes been able to limit what the public can read or view.

Touch of Evil Richard Deming, 2020-05-28 Orson Welles classic 1958 noir movie Touch of Evil the story of a corrupt police chief in a small town on the Mexican American border starring Charlton Heston Janet Leigh and Marlene Dietrich is widely recognised as one of the greatest noir films of Classical Hollywood cinema. Richard Deming's study of the film considers it as an outstanding example of the noir genre and explores its complex relationship to its source novel Badge of Evil by Whit Masterson. He traces the film's production history and provides an insightful close analysis of its key scenes including its famous opening sequence a single take in which the camera follows a booby trapped car on its journey through city streets and across the border.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular United States National Film Registry Films Wikipedia contributors, The Art of the Filmmaker Peter Markham, 2023 The Art of the Filmmaker: The Practical Aesthetics of the Screen explores the filmmaker's intention and method their creation and capture of the fiction on the screen and their formulation of the elements of the frame as a designed address to the audience. Positing practical aesthetics as a resource of visual communication central to cinematic art this book examines the concepts fundamental to the selective processes of the filmmaker and offers the reader highly informed textual analyses of specific films to explain the how and why of cinematic decision making. After general consideration of language and cinema Peter Markham sets out categories essential to the reader in their understanding of the filmmaker's art: dramatic narrative elements before the lens screen language the shot camera editing sound and music. Furthermore Markham provides insight into how a comparison of the film with its screenplay can reveal the evolution of the filmmaker's storytelling strategies. This book also includes case studies of scenes and sequences from three films by contemporary filmmakers: Hereditary Ari Aster Moonlight Barry Jenkins and Nomadland Chloe Zhao. Screenshots are used to illustrate the concepts articulated in the carefully constructed text. This book is intended for the student of filmmaking its practitioners students and scholars of film studies and film theory for those in media studies and arts programs and for lovers of movies.

Fear, Cultural Anxiety, and Transformation Scott A. Lukas, John Marmysz, 2010-01-01 The contributors to this volume explore the themes of fear cultural anxiety and transformation as expressed in remade horror science fiction and fantasy films. While opening on a note that emphasizes the compulsion of filmmakers to revisit issues concerning fear and anxiety this collection ends with a suggestion that repeated confrontation with these issues allows the opportunity for creative and positive transformation.
