In Order to Talk with the Dead Jorge Teillier, 2013-03-15 In order to talk with the dead you have to know how to wait they are fearful like the first steps of a child But if we are patient one day they will answer us with a poplar leaf trapped in a broken mirror with a flame that suddenly revives in the fireplace with a dark return of birds before the glance of a girl who waits motionless on the threshold from In Order to Talk with the Dead Reared in the rainy forests of Chile's La Frontera region which had nurtured Pablo Neruda a generation earlier Jorge Teillier has become one of Chile's leading contemporary poets whose work is widely read in Latin America and Europe along with the poetry of his well known contemporaries Nicanor Parra and Enrique Lihn This English Spanish bilingual anthology now introduces English speaking readers to Teillier with a representative selection of his best work from all phases of his career Carolyn Wright has translated poems from the volumes Muertes y maravillas 1971 Para un pueblo fantasma 1978 and Cartas para reinas de otras primaveras 1985 Avoiding the bravura effects of some of his contemporaries Teillier writes from a life lived directly and simply returning time and again in his poetry to the timeless and mythic South of his boyhood the Land of Nevermore Half of the World in Light Juan Felipe Herrera, 2008-01-01 Includes an audio CD of the author reading For nearly four decades Juan Felipe Herrera has documented his experience as a Chicano in the United States and Latin America through stunning memorable poetry that is both personal and universal in its impact themes and approach Often political never fainthearted his career has been marked by tremendous virtuosity and a unique sensibility for uncovering the unknown and the unexpected Through a variety of stages and transformations Herrera has evolved more than almost any other Chicano poet always re inventing himself into a more mature and seasoned voice Now in this unprecedented collection we encounter the trajectory of this highly innovative and original writer bringing the full scope of his singular vision into view Beginning with early material from A Certain Man and moving through thirteen of his collections into new previously unpublished work this assemblage also includes an audio CD of the author reading twenty four selected poems aloud Serious scholars and readers alike will now have available to them a representative set of glimpses into his production as well as his origins and personal development The ultimate value of bringing together such a collection however is that it will allow us to better understand and appreciate the complexity of what this major American poet is all about
